INTERNATIONAL SOCIAL SCIENCES AND TOURISM RESEARCH CONFERENCE

This joint international conference focuses on a wide range of social science and tourism disciplines, expressing divergent views, searching for common ground, and creating the synergies that can inspire multi-disciplinary collaborations. It seeks to debate and consolidate ideas on issues pertaining to initiatives for establishing hand in hand progress of social development and sustainable tourism more holistically.

The conference aims to add to this debate by stimulating discussion and exchange for ideas between professionals, academics, researchers, policy-makers, consultants, practitioners, government officials and postgraduate students in related fields.

Submissions are focused but not limited to the following topics:

- Education and Pedagogy
- History and Geography
- Anthropology
- Philosophy
- Language and Literature
- Communications
- Teaching and Learning
- Economics and Marketing
- Environmental and Sustainability Studies
- Humanities
