SMIRC 2018 Lightning Talk
"The New ORCID US Community: Working Together for Robust Integration"
Jill Grogg, LYRASIS

ORCID is a unique identifier for researchers/authors
International non-profit
Behind the scenes machine-to-machine ID

ORCID integration in English speaking countries is significantly more robust than in the United States. Those other countries have a governmental initiative to integrate ORCIDs

ORCID US Community just formed, LYRASIS is the administrative agent
