Plans Are Made For Homecoming

By Joyce Mandly

Plans are well under way for the "Tip-Off" activities on November 12. Chapel programs, alumni meetings, a parade, crowning of the "Queen," and the evening basketball games are the outstanding events being planned.

The Tip-Off Co-ordinating Commission, composed of Prof. Paul Schwada, chairman; Dr. R. W. Gardner, Prof. Jim Johnson, Dr. Clarence Grothaus, Prof. Elmore Vail, Millard Reed, Dennis Hill, and Don Watson, along with the Alumni Association, are planning a great day.

"O" Club will present the chapel program the day before "Tip-Off." Jean Schray is in charge of the committee for this program.

The alumni of Olivet will present the chapel program on "Tip-Off" day. The four morning classes will be shortened and chapel will begin at 10:40 a. m. Rev. Fred A. Reedy, alumni president, will give the welcome address and the speaker will be one of the alumni group.

Highlighting the chapel program will be the announcement of the "Tip-Off" Queen and her court. Orpheus Choir and the Olivet Symphony Orchestra will present various numbers during the program.

After chapel the student body will be dismissed to take part in the day's activities.

The "Tip-Off" parade, instituted last year for the first time, is scheduled for 1:30 in the afternoon. It will begin on campus and proceed through downtown Kankakee. The theme of the parade will be "Serving Our Day." Definite plans are being made by nearly all organizations on campus to enter a float in the parade. Following the parade, the floats will be judged and prizes awarded.

The alumni tea will be held from 3:00-5:00 p. m. in the parlor of Williams Hall.

"Queen For The Day" Not only will the "Tip-Off" Queen be announced in chapel on Friday morning of the annual homecoming, but she will reign over the entire activities during the day. During the intermission between games, "Queen for the Day," will be crowned and her court will be recognized. This should prove to be a highlight of the evening program.

Evening Events The evening activities will commence at 6:45 p. m. in the Bradley High School Gym with the "O" Club girls playing the Alumni. At 8:30 that night, the big battle will range between the men.

All seats for the games are reserved and they sell for $1.00.

Between the two games, Prof. Elmore Vail will be presented with the "Rusty Keg" as coach of last year's winning "O" Club team.

The Olivetians, Band, and Color guard will also entertain at this annual affair.

Marvin Hoffert, president of the senior class of '55, hails from Sikeston, Missouri. He was president of the band one year, is a member of the Student Council, and was in Orpheus Choir last year.

Marvin Hoffert

Hoffert has belonged to the F.T.A., Chancel Choir, Orchestra, Woodwind Ensemble, and has worked on the Tip-Off Committee.

Irish Chapel Speaker Nov. 3

Rev. George Brown, pastor of the Church of the Nazarene in Belfast, Ireland, was the special speaker in the chapel service on Wednesday, November 3.

Rev. Brown has been making an evangelistic tour of Canada and the United States this fall. He is a well-known and effective convention speaker in the British Isles.

Prior to the acceptance to the church at Belfast, Rev. Brown pastored churches at Govan and Perth in Scotland and Ilkeston, England.

Mrs. Brown, who is accompanying her husband on this tour, is an accomplished pianist. She also plays the auto-harp and her husband plays selections on the English concertina. Together they present vocal duets.

Wagon Wheel Has "Grand Opening" October 29

The official "Grand Opening" of the Wagon Wheel in Birchard Gymnasium took place on the evening of October 29, to offer recreational facilities to Olivet's student body. Improvements in the Wagon Wheel cost the Student Council $400, but the total work and labor was evaluated at $1,100.

The biggest improvement made was the newly tiled floor.

The executive council of the Student Council, consisting of Harvey Galloway, Millard Reed, Bob Squires, and Cal Mathews, was in charge of this project.

Others of the Council and student body lending a helping hand were John Petrie, Marvin Hoffert, Gene Phillips, Don Vickery, Jim Calvert, Al Nielsen, Art Salisbury, and Bob Crabtree. Mary Margaret Birchard helped by making the new drapes.

From the administrative staff, cooperation was extended by Wes Bentley and Jack Kammer.

A Bourbonnais, Illinois resident, Harvey Galloway presides as Student Body treasurer this year. Galloway was the treasurer of his sophomore class vice-president of his junior class, and has been business manager of the Trojan Society. Galloway is the son of Dr. Harvey Galloway, District Superintendent of the Central Ohio District.

Lyceum Programs To Be Held In Kankakee

Four more lyceum programs, under the auspices of the Student Council, will be presented in the Kankakee High School auditorium this semester in order to share the programs with Kankakeeland.

Featured Nov. 20, will be Soulima Stravinsky, internationally renowned French concert pianist and son of Igor Stravinsky, world's greatest living composer.

The University of Illinois' 90-piece orchestra, directed by Leonard Goodman, will appear December 2. This orchestra was chosen to play at the Music Educators' National Conference in Chicago.

Don Craig, bass vocalist, radio, television and recording artist, will sing here January 11. He has been recitalist and guest soloist for schools and churches and has had seven bass roles in operas.

Concert audiences in 16 states have watched Craig perform as a member of Fred Waring's Pennsylvanians. He has conducted music festivals in 36 states.

Naval Band The last lyceum program will be the appearance in February of the Great Lakes Concert Naval Band. The band is composed of 40 professional players. A date for this program will be announced later.

Questionnaire Gives Results

During chapel services sometime this semester the student body will be told the tabulation results of the Woodruffian student questionnaire given last spring.

Dr. Woodruff, arranger of the questionnaire, and his secretary spent a great deal of time in tabulating the results during the summer.

There are materials in this study for chapel speeches, evangelistic sermons, faculty meeting discussions, counseling sessions, and even Glimmerglass editorials.

Dave Elwood, treasurer of the senior class this year, is originally from New Castle, Indiana. Elwood is a psychology major. Another big job for Dave this year is serving as the student assistant in psychology.

Dave Elwood

Other activities which Dave participated in are the International Relations Club and the Chess Club, being president of each for two years.

Faculty And Students Elect

Who's Who members were elected by a joint meeting of the faculty and upperclass members of the Student Council.

Jack Barnell, Aurora editor, has the highest grade point average (3.789) among the 13 elected to Who's Who. Barnell is from Sturgis, Michigan. Besides being on the Aurora staff for two years, Barnell has been a member of the Student Council three years.

Jack Barnell

Living now in Bourbonnais, Illinois, and president of the N.Y.P.S. of Olivet College Church is Don Carpenter. Don has taken part in many student activities.

He has been a member of the Student Council three times, vice-president of his sophomore class, president of his junior class, vice-president and president of the M. D. A.

The W. R. A. president, Glenna comes to us from Cedarville, Ohio. Another responsibility for Glenna is acting as secretary of the senior class. Miss Nance has belonged to the Music Educators' Club, Organ Guild, Orchestra, Band, Library staff, and the Apollo Choir.

Glenna Nance

Another busy fellow on Olivet's campus is Calvin Mathews, business manager of the Aurora. Galena, Illinois, is his birthplace.

Mathews, besides working on the Aurora, has been a member of the Student Council for two years. He has also given much of his time to the responsibilities of the Student Prayer Band, being vice-president twice.

Mrs. Betty Thill, has been a member of the Science Club, the F.T.A., WRA, has served as librarian, belonged to the Band, and is a member of the Student Missionary Band. Mrs. Thill's home town is Stockton, Illinois.

Of the 13 members elected to Who's Who, Thill had the second highest grade average of 3.589.

A Bigger And Better Parade

By Dick North

A bigger and better "Tip-Off" is just around the corner for Olivet students, and from here it looks like interest is beginning to pick up for this gala affair. The theme for this year will be, "Serving Our Day."

Last year marked the first year in its history that Olivet had a homecoming parade. Though all will agree that it was successful for a first year try, it was not as big and successful as it could have been.

Last year there were ten floats entered in the parade. There ought to be at least double that number this year if every club and organization will lend its full support. This will necessarily mean that we must have the whole-hearted cooperation of every student on our campus.

If each one of us will do our part it will: (1) Provide a greater welcome for our alumni; (2) Bring about an increased feeling of unity among the students of Olivet; (3) Improve relationships between Olivet and Kankakeeland; (4) Bring Olivet, its program and objectives, before the people of Kankakee.

Let's all rally behind our leaders and accept all responsibilities that come our way. Every organization on Olivet's campus should have a float in the parade.

Following the parade the floats will be judged and prizes awarded. Entries will be judged on the following bases: (1) How well the theme "Serving Our Day" is carried out; (2) Originality; (3) Quality of Workmanship.

There are 8 days left before "Tip-Off". Make every day count! Let's have some strong competition for the float prizes. This will insure a successful parade.

It is the hope of the Student Council that everyone will use their imagination and endeavor to fit their float in with the general, over-all theme.

Placement Office Helps Students Secure Jobs

BY DAVE ELWOOD

Under the direction of Professor Paul Schwada, Olivet is building up an effective Placement Office whose purpose is to place Olivetians on jobs and to strengthen the understanding and satisfaction between students and employers.

Aids Graduates

The Placement Office, which is located in room 106 of Burke Hall, finds employment for graduates as well as for students. Graduates who are planning to be teachers are helped in finding schools and graduates planning to work in industry and business are aided in finding jobs.

Olivet met with five other colleges at Lake Forest College in Lake Forest, Illinois, for the purpose of introducing seniors to possible future employers. The meeting, which took place before graduation this spring, was called Senior Contact Day. Thirty-five companies sent agents who interviewed the seniors for employment.

The most persistently active role of the Placement Office is the placement of present students on jobs here in the Kankakee area. With freshmen this begins through correspondence. Before the freshman arrives on campus, he is contacted and his experience, reference, and needs are determined. This helps the Office in finding the proper job for him. This can be done, of course, only in those cases where the student has notified the school that he plans to enroll and has thereby made his address available.

Professor Schwada, whose official title is Director of Placement, says his philosophy is that the student or graduate should be matched to the job. This he believes will result in more satisfaction for the employer and the employee. The Placement Office, he points out, serves both the student and employer.

PAUL L. SCHWADA

The idea of matching the student to the job of necessity involves the idea of screening. In other words, being a student doesn't automatically qualify a person for any job. The student's abilities and needs must match with the demand and remuneration of the job.

Prof. Schwada's position as Director of Placement is one of activity. In working towards the realization of the purpose of the Placement Office, he personally contacts many of the Kankakee area business men and acquaints them with the functions of the Office. Mrs. Cross, the wife of Professor Cross, is Professor Schwada's secretary. She helps with the placement of girls.

It is Professor Schwada's hope that Kankakee employers will come to depend upon the Olivet Placement Office as a source of reliable workers.

The employment situation in Kankakee has been rather tight of late, but it is opening up and most Olivetians looking for work will be placed. As of January this year, 73 per cent of Olivet students work, so the employment problem is of concern to nearly everyone.

Three "A" Officers Attend Conference In Washington, D. C.

Three "A" officers from Olivet College attended the 1954 Thirtieth Annual Associated Collegiate Press Short Course Conference at the Hotel Statler, Washington, D. C., on October 21-22.

Dennis Hill, editor of the Glimmerglass; Prentiss Tomlinson business manager of the Glimmerglass; and Calvin Mathews, Aurora business manager, represented Olivet.

This annual press conference is held for college newspapers and yearbooks.

Classes were held from 9:00 a. m. to 4:30 p. m. on October 21 and 22.

Olivet's representatives, besides attending the conference, saw several educational points of interest.

Our Library

By Joyce Mandly

One-half of the second floor of Burke Hall houses the 25,000 volume library of Olivet Nazarene College. The Canterbury collection, recently acquired, is in the process of being absorbed and cataloged into the library.

The periodicals coming to the library number 265. The sheet music numbers approximately 8,000 and includes band, orchestra, octavo, piano, organ, vocal, and miniature scores.

A book list is published each month, listing the new books added that month. The August and September lists consist of 117 books and articles.

Projector Installed

The microfilm projector, purchased by the 1954 graduation class, is now in use in Olivet's library.

In addition to the projector, the class bought a $215 microfilm cabinet with the remaining funds. This is located in the southeast corner of the reading room.

Microfilms are constantly being added, among which are: The American Historical Review, Reader's Guide, and the Musical Quarterly. The New York Times comes currently. The English Guild presented $75 which in part paid for the purchase of the English Literary History issues.

Mrs. E. Martin is in charge of the periodicals and also teaches two classes in library science. Mrs. Harvey Collins has assisted with clerical work. Mrs. Everett Moore will also be assisting in this way.

Student Workers

The large bulletin board just outside the library attractively features phases of the library. Evangeline Lane is in charge of this board. The typing of the catalog cards is done by Louise Fallis. Jack Hansher does the lettering on the books. Ada Mae Trimble oversees the circulation of books, and Edna McWherter assists in the periodical check-in. Eleanor Bolender is the assistant in the record library at Goodwin Hall.

Other students employed in the library are as follows: Elsie Morse, Patsy Seelye, Clara Mae Riddle, Paul Bassett, Constance Handschy, Marilyn Bryant, Nancy Hendricks, Rose Mary Stephens, and Alberta White.

The record library at Goodwin Hall, for the use of all students, contains about 1,300 selections and is under the supervision of Miss Jewell Flaughter, who is Music Librarian. This department is planning a series of record concerts for the student body.

New Library News

Funds pledged for the new Memorial Library total $187,000 of which $50,000 has been paid. Miss Ruth Gilley, librarian, is greatly anticipating this new library in that it will afford more room for the various divisions of the library. A larger space for the reserved area, the stacks, and also display cases, are planned to better serve the students.

BY REV. L. GUY NEES

Question: If a student has a lot of school work to do that he can't do on Saturday, should he do it on Sunday?

Answer: My personal feeling is that students should avoid doing school work on Sunday.

One of the common failures in school life is to allow school work to "pile up" by failing to do the assigned amount each day. Then it becomes necessary to "cram" and burn the midnight oil to meet the deadline. I am sure every student would be much better off to obey the scriptural injunction, "In six days shalt thou labor and do all thy work ... on the seventh day thou shalt do no work." Students will be better off spiritually, mentally, and physically by doing so. I am sure Dr. Seaman and Mrs. Lane will agree also.

Question: If carnality is eradicated at the time of sanctification, how can the roots of carnality spring up again and a person backslide?

Answer: In the same way carnality entered into the heart of Adam who had never sinned. We make a mistake by thinking of carnality as an entity that can be removed as a physical organ is removed by surgery. Carnality is a principle — a principle of sin. The basis for this principle is selfishness. Prior to a person being saved and sanctified, his whole life is organized around himself. Unholy pride, carnal anger, and other marks of carnality are a result of this fact. Anything that harms self is avoided, even resented and anything that pampers self is encouraged. When a person is sanctified this principle of selfishness is cleansed away or eradicated. His life is now organized around Jesus Christ and His will. Selfishness is destroyed. However, by cooling off spiritually and deliberately disobeying God, he can return his life to the former principle of living and thus carnality enters again or again takes control and he can thus backslide.

Note: I would recommend Dr. White's new book on Holiness for a scholarly answer to this question.

Question: Why are we responsible for the sin of Adam and Eve in the garden of Eden?

Answer: It's not a question of responsibility as much as it is a question of liability. In the same way we might ask, Why are we responsible for the wrong choices of any others in society? The wrong choices of our neighbors affect us. We still are bearing the marks of the choices of the forefathers of our nation. Some good — some bad. However, the choice of Adam and Eve was more significant because they were the first parents and through them the principle of sin entered the life-stream of humanity and the consequence of this guilt is passed on to every person. But "As in Adam (those who are in Adam) all die, even so in Christ (those who are in Christ) shall all be made alive."

Editor's Note: Rev. Nees would appreciate having students submit social, educational, financial, spiritual, etc., questions to him for this column.

Inquiring Reporter

By Evelyn Holland

Olivet's Glimmerglass is highly acclaimed by many faculty members and students. The following persons have presented suggestions which might make it a better paper:

Gordon Dawes, Sr.: I really like the Glimmerglass. I would like to see an article on improving Olivet academically and materially. This article should not be a gripe column, but one setting forth basic ideas that would challenge all of the Olivet family.

Marcia Schneider: A chuckle column would be a welcome addition.

Paul Meyer: I would like to see personals on the seniors with pictures included.

Gene Foiles: I definitely like the Glimmerglass and I am always eager to receive my copy. In the last issue there were three editor's notes on the first page which I thought were unnecessary. I read the poem, "My Passion," with a very sacred thought. Only three stars separated the poem from jokes. I think the staff should watch placement.

Mick Hutchens: I would like to see more articles about professors. These articles would give us a better understanding of our professors and consequently enable us to work together better.

Mrs. Martin: I would like to see some articles in the Glimmerglass about the library. Perhaps one reporter could be assigned to keep up-to-date information on the library.

Anonymous Professor: I think the Glimmerglass is written with a high degree of excellence. Every phase of college life is well covered. I do think there are too many articles about professors.

New Look On Campus

Once upon a time there was peace and serenity on ONC's campus. Then came the morning of Freshman Initiation. After that two fellows decided they liked the idea of not having to shave and, as a result, the campus looks as if the calendar date has been moved back 40 years.

Those two fellows set off a chain reaction that has seen several males on campus growing a beard. The girls' answer to this was knee-socks. But it rather back-fired when the girls and some of the fellows decided they were rather "cute," thus encouraging the girls to change the fashion to knee-socks and shorter skirts.

Of course the fellows couldn't let this opportunity go by, and now we have knickers and long socks. Where will this end?

OUR LIGHT AFFLICTIONS

What are our light afflictions here,
But blessings in disguise?
They only make for us a home
Of rest beyond the skies.

What if we oft are weary now,
With burdens hard to bear?
They only make the crown more bright
When we that crown shall wear.

O, cast thy every care on Him,
Thou weary burdened one,
And raise to Heaven the trusting prayer,
Thy will, not mine, be done.

So when the toil and care shall cease,
With Jesus thou'llt be blest,
When, folded in His loving arms,
The weary are at rest.

I looked up to the sky one day,
Its glories to behold,
And found it covered dark with clouds,
No glory did it hold.

But as the morning rifted on,
And I to God did pray,
The clouded heart that once I felt,
Now lifted for the day.

It's just like His miraculous love,
To take all care away,
Then to implant a joyous song,
Which comforts all the way.

Comments On Current Events

BY DAVE ELWOOD

The issue of McCarthy is dying. Six months ago McCarthy was making headline news almost every day and was frequently the subject of columns and editorials.

McCarthy And Elections

McCarthy went so far one time as to predict that he would be the issue in the elections this fall, but the reverse seems to be more true. At present his name is hardly mentioned as an issue in the elections of November. The biggest way he is an issue is if a candidate says he is for him. Many of those who openly identified themselves with him earlier this year are now seeking the cover of McCarthyistic neutrality.

Highly notable among these is Republican conservative Joseph Meek who is running, here in Illinois, against incumbent Paul Douglas for U. S. Senate. During the primary Meek was an out-and-out McCarthyite, but now his colors have faded. Recently he was questioned concerning McCarthy and his reply was, "Why bring him up?"

Two of the factors which have been working in the depopularizing of McCarthy have been (1) a growing public rejection and (2) disapproval of the Republican Party. A third factor which will further depopularize McCarthy is the report of the Watkin's Committee, a group of senators chosen to investigate censure charges against McCarthy.

The Watkin's Committee

As senatorial committees go, this was a weak one and it was the opinion that McCarthy would steam-roll the committee into tangents and confusion so as to prevent the presentation of any clear-cut recommendations.

However, the committee held the halter on McCarthy and came through with a recommendation that McCarthy be censured on five charges. Such adjectives as insulting, reprehensible, inexcusable, etc., were used to describe the charges. Only twice before in the history of the Senate has a censure recommendation been made towards a senator.

A Basis For Evaluation

The fairness of the Watkin's Committee and the validity of its charges may be judged better after the November elections at which time the Senate will vote on the censure recommendations.

JACQUES ROMAIN

Man Of The Month

By Carol Lockwood

Speaking, writing, singing, and preaching five languages and three dialects isn't a very common trait, but Jacques (Jack) Jean Romain can do it and doesn't seem to have much trouble at it.

Born of Catholic parentage in Milot, Haiti, Jack started to school at the age of three. He has always loved to go to school and to study. While in high school he was promoted from the freshman to the junior class because of his ability to do more advanced work.

Desires To Be Priest

After graduating, Jack wanted to be a Roman Catholic priest. Universities were scarce and hard to enter, but with his ability he started to college. He trained two years for the priesthood.

Later he heard that there was going to be another school opened by the Americans. When the school was established Jack enrolled and his first classes were, "Soul Winning," "Life of Christ," and "Christian Living."

"Where is the world am I?" was his first reply after receiving his assignment of classes. To his dismay he learned that it was a Protestant Bible school and not a Catholic college.

He stayed, but was ashamed to tell his folks because they would call him crazy. In a few weeks the Lord spoke to his heart and he was saved.

In 1949 a Nazarene missionary went to Haiti to teach in the Faith Mission Bible School. He was introduced to Jack and took a great interest in him. He talked to him about needing more religious education training and suggested that he return with him to the U. S. on his furlough.

"It was the Lord's will for me to come to America because He helped me in all the difficulties I had in trying to come," was Jacques' comment on his decision to come to America.

He arrived in 1952 and enrolled in God's Bible School in Cincinnati, Ohio. He graduated last spring, and was also a member of the Stanton Avenue Nazarene Church in Cincinnati.

More "Education with a Christian Purpose" and a desire to acquire all knowledge possible of God's word and work for Him prompted him to enroll at Olivet this fall. His desire is to go back to his people and preach and teach to them his new-found way of life.

Juniors Sponsor Halloween Gala

The annual Halloween Party, sponsored by the junior class, was held Saturday night at 7:30 p. m. in the Birchard Gymnasium.

Costumes for this annual affair were optional and prizes were awarded to those who were best dressed.

Winning first place in the costume contest were the two sons of Ortie Welch, Olivet student.

Various individuals and groups entertained for the evening. Dr. LeRoy Brown presented a comedy act. Harold Keech and Ron Smith gave three pantomimes. Special solo numbers were presented by Roger Deal and Bonnie Wells.

Juniors and seniors were in charge of the over-all program for the party. Refreshments were arranged by the sophomores and the freshman class constructed a stage for the entertainment.

Religion

In the

SPOTLIGHT

BY HARRY ROMERIL

Now that the revival is over one can see more of God's blessings that we received than we could during the campaign. It is always that way, especially in the realm of religion.

The revival had its effect upon the Christian and non-Christian alike. To the Christian, Dr. G. B. Williamson opened some new areas through which we could serve the Lord in a better way. To those outside of Christ, the issues were clearly stated so that no one could say they failed because of misunderstanding.

Holy Spirit Leads

The Holy Spirit was close to us in a wonderful way during the revival. Especially we will recall the Friday night service to our minds from time to time when we need inspiration.

Prayer was undoubtedly the reason for the success of the meeting. The students, faculty and church constituency joined together on their knees praying that souls would come to grips with the problems of their lives.

However, our prayers should not lose their intensity because the revival is over. We should continue to pray that God will bless us in the months to come and that we all should draw closer to Him.

Ministerial Fellowship Project

The completion of the Nazarene church building at Morningside is this year's project for the Ministerial Fellowship. The church, pastored by Raymond Barr, an Olivet student, was started four or five years ago and the people have been worshipping in the basement.

The members of the Fellowship have been working on this project each Saturday. They are just starting on the roof, and, if the weather is favorable, they should finish in a few months.

Rev. Mark Moore is to be the speaker at the next Ministerial Fellowship breakfast. These breakfasts are held several Saturday mornings during the year, and one of the District Superintendents is chosen to speak on the subject, "What a District Superintendent Expects of a Young Minister."

FTA Presents Skits

The Future Teachers of America previewed their entire year's program by way of skits in the meeting held Tuesday night. Dr. Groves was introduced to the club as chairman-elect of the Education Department.

The Philately Club has been organized for those who are interested in collecting stamps and coins. Officers are: Gordon Dawes, Jr., president; Pat Gould, vice-president; and Jean Ann Lee, secretary-treasurer.

Officers Elected

The Gale Organ Guild has organized this year with Bob Brown as president; Bill Coil, vice-president; Nancy Tesch, secretary; Jean Schray, treasurer; Dr. Ella Leona Gale, sponsor; and Prof. Kenneth Bade, co-sponsor.

Personals On— Professors

Profs Are Human, Too

By Herb Samra

Collecting data on the personal affairs of professors can sometimes be quite entertaining. There are incidents, however, that students should not know about, therefore, it is advised that what you read in this column be kept TOP SECRET.

The recent faculty retreat at Turkey Run State Park opened the way to various adventures and complications for some of our profs. The air rings with a story of Dr. John Cotner's "Charles Boyer-type technique" with women.

Cotner Has Troubles

It seems that Dr. Cotner was enjoying a fine luncheon at Turkey Run with the Olivet faculty until he crossed wires with one of the waitresses. The incident took place when Cotner, after ordering tea (the menu allowed the choice of one tea or one coffee), decided to further pursue a cup of coffee.

Upon delivery of the coffee, the waitress requested ten cents for the order. Jokingly, Dr. Cotner replied in disagreement to the request, after which the waitress readily put into action a complex battery of hostilities against him. Lacking a sense of humor, the waitress evidently resolved to afford Dr. Cotner no more service; meanwhile, others were receiving an overdose of courtesy and continued coffee re-fills without cost.

If you were to ask Dr. Cotner, he might be inclined to agree that some women have gone beyond the impossible-to-understand mark. (Incidentally, he paid for the coffee!)

Professors Like to Walk

Also at Turkey Run, Dr. Snowbarger, Dr. Mitten, and Professor Rice decided to take a short afternoon walk which, most certainly, is a healthful idea. From a schedule of government-marked hiking paths, the three selected Path No. 9. Walk they did, following a stream of arrows that read something like "to Path No. 9." Thinking that they were all of the time on Path 9, the shock came when they finally reached their starting point after walking a mile and a half.

To make a long story short (and a short walk long), the stroll along a rugged path totaled to approximately four hard-earned miles!

Women Drivers!

The writer has been informed that one of the professor's wives borrowed her husband's car in order to make a short business trip from Turkey Run Park to a nearby town. Somehow she managed to make a wrong turn (which is unusual for women drivers!), and she found herself driving over thirty miles out of the proper route. This woman is concerned about the matter, and does not wish for her husband to know about the incident. If any of you should know who the woman is, please try to restrain from telling her husband.

Spring Fever

As many of you know, the faculty staff had a hayride at Turkey Run and had a grand time. For some, such as Dr. and Mrs. McClain, Dr. and Mrs. Larsen, Dr. and Mrs. Woodruff, and Dr. and Mrs. Leist this event seemed to recreate old romantic spells. For the singles, there is no telling at this early stage!

Indians Take First Tackle Football Flag

By Max Durbin

The mighty Indians clinched the 1954 tackle football title by outclassing the hard working and determined Spartans by a score of 7-6 in a thrilling game October 22.

This was the Indians' third victory of the season, having previously beaten the Spartans 27-0 and the Trojans 19-7.

After three hard fought and scoreless quarters, the Indians finally reached paydirt on a 40-yard pass from Fred Richardson to Bill Winegar. Another pass from Richardson to end Dale Martin was good for the extra point to make the score 7-0.

The Indians held the Spartans until there were just eight seconds left in the game. At that time Spartan right halfback Ron McQueen went over from the six inch line.

The Indians missed their chance to tie the game on the extra point attempt and the Indians emerged victorious.

Tromp Spartans 27-0

The Indians scored the biggest single win of the season when they whipped the Spartans 27-0.

The men in green, hard-hit by injuries, just couldnt get going as the Red men rolled over them for four tallies. Don Spotloe, sophomore quarterback, scored three times and Richardson once for the Indians.

Trojans, Indians Tie

The Trojans and Indians fought to a 7-7 deadlock in a game played October 15.

Fullback Tom Murray scored the touchdown and kicked the extra point for the Blues, while Richardson scored from the one-yard line and passed to Winegar for the extra point for the Reds.

Spartans Nip Trojans

The Spartans came from behind in the fourth quarter to whip the Trojans 14-13 on October 19.

Carroll Ball drew first blood for the Spartans on a nine-yard run for the touchdown. A pass from Ball to McQueen was good for the extra point.

The Trojans fought their way back into the game when Ken Bellville scored on a long pass from John Tyler. Murray's kick was no good.

Murray ran around left end to score the Trojans' last touchdown and put them out in front. The pass from center was high on the extra point try but Murray again arose to the occasion by picking it up and run-

The intramural football and softball programs have come to an end. The Trojans captured the men and women's softball crown, while the Indians were victorious in Olivet's first tackle football season.

Basketball Next

Basketball season is here at last. The "O" Club started practice last Monday and will meet the All-School team on November 5.

Olivet's intramural basketball season opens with the first game being played November 19.

The Alumni is looking forward to upsetting the "O" Club in their bid for the 9th straight victory as the 1954-55 "Tip-Off" game, November 12, is fast approaching.

Two members of the alumni team were on the campus last weekend. Chuck Taylor and Chuck McCullough spent Saturday and Sunday visiting Olivet and old friends they left behind.

They spent most of Saturday playing basketball in Birchard gymnasium. Must be practicing for the "Big Game" on November 12!

The following is the final statistics of the 1954 football season. It should be pointed out that for this being the first year of tackle football on our campus, it was a highly successful season. Already plans for next season are taking form.

	I	T	S
First downs	38	36	16
Yards rushing	506	510	587
Own fumbles

Opp. fumbles

Intercepted
passes	11	6	3
Penalties	205	115	210
Points	67	48	33

Tom Murray, Trojan fullback, took the scoring honors for the season with 24 points. The top five scorers are as follows:

	G	TD	EP	T
Murray, Tom (T)	5	3	6	24
Spotloe, Don (I)	5	3	0	18
Bellville, Ken (T)	5	3	0	18
Winegar, Bill (I)	6	2	3	15
McQueen, Ron	6	2	1	13

That puts an end to the season of football and brings into view the basketball games that lie just around the corner. This season promises to be one of the greatest in Olivet's history.

These are just two scenes, representing tackle football in Olivet's intramural program.

Organizations Initiate 43 New Members

A total of 43 new members were initiated into Orpheus Choir and "O" Club on October 18 and 19 respectively.

Orpheus Initiates

Initiated into Orpheus were: Monagail Kennedy, Miriam Morgan, Gwen Ulveling, Marilyn Bryant, Shirley Ann Burris, Ruth Headlee, Virginia King, Zenana Hawkins, Linda Cleveringa, Martha Reed, Mae Spearman, Bonnie Wells, Charles Bowers, Frank Garton, Harold Rogers, Glenn Sparkes, Gene Foiles, Harold Keech, Gene Phillips, Darrell Trotter, Roger Deal, Dick North and Pat Pinner.

Wearing bows around their heads and nipples around their necks, the new choir members sang songs at various intervals during the forenoon.

They reported for choir practice to find they weren't released from their initiation. The procedure of pranks and fun was climaxed at noon with dinner and a skit put on by old members of Orpheus.

Beverly Fullerton was in charge of the program.

New "O" Clubbers

The following were initiated into "O" Club: Paul Bassett, David Boice, Harry Romeril, Fred Fortune, Gene Phillips, Bob Crabtree, Vern Fischer, Gene Houchin, Jim Smith, Harold Keech, Merlin Demaray, Ronald McQueen, Darwin Warner, Frank Hallum, Thomas Murray, John Hanson, Anna Taylor, Rosella Scott, Janet Storer, Sharon Spence and Marlene Hiner.

The rising hour was 4:00 a. m. for the new members and this was followed by a long walk in very uncomfortable apparel. Highlighting the full day was the 140 stripes administered by old "O" Club members with their paddles. The day was climaxed with final ceremonies at Kankakee State Park and a wiener roast.

Don Watson, "O" Club president, was in charge of the initiation.

Trojans Capture Softball Title

The Trojan softball team swept through their 1954 softball schedule without a defeat to capture their third straight softball championship. They have now won 16 straight over a three-year span.

Jim Mitchell bore the brunt of the pitching load for the Blues, winning five and losing none. Jim Smith won the other game. Paul Dishong and Smith led the hitting attack for the victors.

The Indians won the final boys' softball game of the season on October 21, with a 7-6 victory over the Spartans to clinch second place.

By losing this game, the Spartans were forced to finish the season without a victory.

The final standings:

	W	L	Pct.
Trojans	6	0	1.000
Indians	3	3	.500
Spartans	0	6	.000

Girls! Do you hear knocking noises early in the morning? Do you hear what seems to be chains rattling? Do you hear stealthy footsteps in the halls? If you do, it isn't the Halloween ghost nor are you a candidate for Manteno. Its just Mrs. High checking to make sure that everyone is in "her own room" safe and sound.

Prof. Moore has quite a unique way of telling jokes. At the Commerce Club weiner roast Prof. was telling a joke. He came to the punch line, paused, and then said, "And the cow jumped into the river and drowned to death." It's rather encouraging to know that profs make mistakes too.

Speaking of ghosts, I hear by way of the "Ghost-Vine" that Paul Bassett thinks Carol Terry is intriguing. Maybe we should have Paul's definition of the word to find out just what he means.

Did you hear about Prof. Humble trying to get his social science class to quiet down? After several futile attempts he finally said, and quite loudly, "Order, please!" An innocent (?) freshman from the back of the room quickly spoke up. "A coke, please."

If you have seizures of forgetfulness, think nothing of it unless the same thing happens to you as did to Betty Nauman. Due to freshman initiation, Betty had to replace another girl at the switchboard at the last minute. In her hurry to get there she forgot to remove part of her pajamas. Don't worry Betty, we won't tell anyone.

Remember, Twirp Week is just around the corner, and from what I hear the boys are well aware of this. Phil Petrie has been going around soliciting dates for the last three weeks. Here's your chance girls!

Crossfire

It seems while Professor Cross was teaching his psychology class that two of his male students spotted a fire.

As Gene Phillips and Jim Smith were busy (looking out the window), they spotted smoke rising from a barn. They told the professor, and before long all the students had a grandstand seat from which to watch the barn go up in flames.

The village fire alarm was sounded but before firemen of Bourbonnais could get to the barn it was out of control.

Professor Cross then had the students return to their seats and he tried to get them on fire (over their schoolwork).
