Ask Me

Waber, Bernard

A little girl tells her father about things she likes as they stroll through the park on a red, autumn day. The author's ability to capture the little girl's voice is wonderful, and the artwork featuring bright colors attracts readers' eyes. Throughout the story, the little girl builds conversation with her father in a way that is whimsical and charming. I highly recommend this book for children ages 3-5, especially the child who is talkative and imaginative. Laura Ullom, Centennial Library Intern
