Extraordinary Jane

Harrison, Hannah E.

A cute book about a little white puppy named Jane. Jane is unlike the rest of her talented circus performing family. She does not perform, fly, ride, or paint well. Read to learn how Jane is just Jane in this book illustrated with acrylic paint on Bristol board. There are hidden quips throughout the short story. This book's theme is being extraordinary puts you in the spotlight, but being ordinary is alright. Jane still belongs. The book is designed for young readers. It could be a good group reading book.
