Sam:

Called Carol's today to see what was up. Unfortunately, Carol is still dealing with her father in Chicago -- expected back in a day or two. But, I had an interesting conversation with Victoria, who seems to have sort of taken over in Carol's absence. Anyhow, she read off the list of who's where and what's what, with the proposal still pending at a couple of publishing houses. Sounded like Warner is a 'no" (although I didn't really press Victoria about it.) I said I wanted to ask Carol if she thought I should make any changes on the proposal, and Victoria responded that she (Victoria) didn't think so -- it's a terrific proposal, she said, it's just that everybody's nervous about the economy; it would have been snapped up before; it's only a question of finding the right house ... and so on with encouraging words.

So, the wait goes on. Of course, I'll let you know if I hear anything more.

Take care

Wing Lee
