Dear Mr. Muir:

Your last letter
to us has been displaced, but we have just recalled the proposition you made of the articles on Alaska.
We should very much like two and probably three papers on that subject — to add to those we have on hand, is a definite announcement for next year. ("The California Alps Exersion" will appear in the forthcoming July number). We want to begin these in November and go right on with them at only an interval of a month or so.

We hope you will continue to give us the first chance at what you write, for unless there should be some ^{un-} ^{to prevent our handling the material,} looked for contraints, we should like to publish for you.

With sincere regard,

Very truly yours,

E. S. M.
