My dear Min:

In conversation with you while en route for Alaska, in 1890, you told about a lake now there in southeastern Alaska of the same nature as Margelen Lake, Switzerland. As the lake referred to has never been described so far as I am aware, I venture to ask if you will kindly send me a few facts concerning it. Will you tell me what glacier holds it in check, its location, size etc. I wish to use the information in a text book I am preparing and will give full credit. Hoping that you can oblige me, I remain, sincerely yours
