Dear Brother John

I was ^{made} very sorry by your letter which I recd on Saturday eve. I believe it is the only accident that has happened to any member of our family of any account. I went over & told Maggie yesterday.
She is very sorry. We talked of going down to see you & keep you company. but concluded to wait until we heard from you again

Now John if you want any thing - Money - Clothing - eatables or preserves just let me know & I will send it to you. And if you would like some of us to come down and take care of you or keep you

When back in Florida company dont be afraid to say so, and I will either come or get some of the others to come & keep ^{you} company & wait on you or bring you home Maggie thinks you had better come home and if you make up your mind to do so I will come down and get you, and you can stay at my house until you get well.

Now John write me just a few words on the receipt of this and tell me what I can do to be of the most service & comfort to you dont keep us waiting, for I shall be very impatient until I hear from you again
I remain your affectionate friend Daniel
