Cute, Neb.

July 21, 1889.

Dear Aunt Emma & Uncle Sam, Mother told me of the little stranger that has just come into your home. Accept congratulations if it is not too late. Kiss the little fellow for me, and tell him we would like to see him in Cret with his mother before so very long, and his father too if business is not too pressing. How delighted I would be to have you all make me a visit in my own new home. We have been married almost ten weeks. How the time does fly & can hardly realize that it has been so long.

I have a very nice happy home All come and see me.

I want to thank ^{you} heartily for the nice sugar from you sent me. I hardly know what you can think of me for being so long in acknowledging it but that is just one of my many faults to put off letter writing I have written just two letters since I have been married and one of those was to my father.

Forgive my negligence and accept many thanks.

Our trip east was enjoyed thoroughly. We were away two weeks taking in Omaha, Plattsmouth and Chicago - We were pleased to get home and settled after so much sight-seeing.

With lots of love to all & will close.

Lovingly yours -

Anna Reid Waterman
