I need it all - and

The summer did much

My dear Mr. Muir,

I have had it in my heart to write to you ever since the return of Kate and Mina - from your beautiful land.

I am glad of what they could tell us of your lovely home - of yourself of your wife and daughters. Once a friend, a friend forever - and I thank God that I have had many life-long friends.

My dear Mr. Muir:

I have had it in my heart to write to you ever since the return of Kate and Mine from your beautiful land. I am glad of what they could tell us of your lovely home - of yourself, of your wife and daughters. Once a friend - a friend forever - and I thank God that I have had many life-long friends.

In the September "Gentury" I found a wonderful story - of the "Adventure with a dog" on a glacier. I enjoyed every word of it - read it over and over - and then Merrill read it - and then he read it aloud to the assembled family - much to the delight of all. We thank you for it. But I want to say - do not fail to have it published in book form. It is too good to be lost in a magazine.

I know that you love Janet and will wish to hear from the dear child. She seems to be slowly improving. I go next week to stay a month near her - if it seems best. I will write and tell you more particularly when I return. Thank Mrs. Muir for her love and sympathy. God knows I need it all - and am grateful.

The summer did much good to my sisters. They were happy in all of their visits and have come back in love with California. Their visit to Katie [Graydon] did them good. Janet and Katie, how inseparable.
