IMAGINATION

How beautiful is the product of pure imagination,
The barren, desolate land can be painted with green grass,
The quaint, homely, communication poles transmuted into swaying,
whispering trees,

The polluted irrigation trenches into murmuring, complaining brooks,

The shady, tar-papered domiciles into quaint little structures,

And attach green, swinging shutters, if you will.

For nothing is impossible in the scope of imagination.

He has endowed us, one and all, with power of imagination,

So let us not perpetually embattle cruek reality, Let me guide you through the lanes of fancy, to the world of imagination.
