My Dear Professor,

I received your book and many thanks to you. I can see your many characteristics throughout the work, and every page reminds me of the pleasant hours spent together during our voyage to Alaska. To say the least it is a noble and interesting work, and we are all delighted with it. I forward you a copy of the H. A. E. poems. I would have sent them before but I was called to Portland unexpectedly, to take command of S. S. Columbia. Should you contemplate a trip to Portland, I would be very pleased to have you come on the Columbia, and I promise you our morning coffee shall be the best.

Hoping we will be shipmates again in the near future and commemorate the
