Dr
Muir

My dear Mr. Muir,- Your invitation to me to visit you on Saturday of this week tests my power to resist temptation almost to the last notch. But I shall come off victor - for it is impossible to come off any thing else. However I have no hope for "victory on to victory" if like temptations assail me in the future. Too much ground now, but try me again some time! Our love poles will be here from Portland before long, then you will want to come down and see them - and of course while you are here you will not neglect to visit me.

Keeler is spoiling himself with work - or fuss - again. must get his work done quick & save the world.

Cordially yours,

Wm. S. Ritter.
