I like to see all my friends. I am getting an old woman now, I have entered my 80th year. I cannot expect many more years.
James May & family
are all well, also Mrs.
Jeffrey our Cousins: -

Susan Gibroy & Jane Mather both well and busy at their several occupations Maggie joins me in much love to all our friends near you.

Believe me
Ever your affectionate
Cousin
Mrs. May L. Leman

My dear Cousin John

We were very pleased to have your New Year's letter, with all your good wishes
for the coming year,
with the enclosed Money Order for the poor people of Dunbar, it is awfully good of you never forgetting them, and I am sure they are all very grateful to you! we have had a very severe cold changeable winter, and a great deal of sickness amongst^{us}! but I trust the spring may be better, I am glad to say that Maggie is much better getting a little stronger week by week, though she has not yet venture out to take a walk

I had a letter lately
from W^m Murdoch
Edinburgh

I was very pleased to hear that you correspond with him, he sent us your paper on the Grand Cañon! to read,
which you sent him!
we did enjoy reading
it. the description
was most wonderful,
we are truly delighted to think you may be in Scotland this year! and have a visit from you see
