My dear Mr. Muir

My husband, Captain Robert Cattin received the book and autograph letter you sent him, this morning and as, an attack of Paralysis has made it difficult for him to write, he has deputed me to act as his most willing amanuensis and I take this opportunity

To add my thanks to his for your great kindness.
It has increased the debt of gratitude we already owe to you for giving us the great pleasure of being your travelling companions through so many beautiful lands.

We have climbed with you
"the heaven-kissing hills" traversed glaciers and rested under the giant Sequoias and you have brought with sick rooms. the fresh invigorating air of nature which stimulates the mind and through it, the stricken body. I shall also thank our dear Mrs. Bestwell for her kindness and hope you will
