WANKER'S CORNER SALOON & CAFE, 2509 BORLAND RD., TUALATIN, OREGON 97062 U.S.A.

Goober Pea Capitol of the West

More than 25,000 pounds of goobers (peanuts to you) are consumed annually at Wanker's Corner Saloon.

So, if you feel like it, grab your nuts here. They're free on weekdays from 4-6 pm.

PORTLAND, OREGON U.S.A.

PARTY ON

We have outrageous parties and love to have groups celebrate their special event here. YOU can shock your friends by having your next party at the WANKERS CORNER. Don't face another party at someone's house where everyone stands around looking at knick-knacks while bumping into the coffee table. Break with tradition and let WANKERS give you a party to tarnish your reputation. For a lousy ten bucks we'll even video tape your function and give your guest of honor a WANKERS coffee cup or beer glass, key chain, and panties or boxers. ---Sure, joints with a good reputation are a dime a dozen, but we here at the WANKERS CORNER have taken ours right down the drain and become the "shame of the county". Please accept our apology for our tasteless attitudes and surliness. We've run off more customers than most places ever get, so stick around and see why.

WANKERWEAR

T-Shirts, sweatshirts, golf shirts, hats, panties, boxers, lighters, pens, coffee mugs, beer glasses, key chains, sunglasses, wristwatches, etc., are always on sale. We can ship C.O.D. or charge on your Visa or Mastercard.

60 + YEARS

The original WANKERS TAVERN was established in 1933 in the back of a grocery store. It was moved to its present building around 1963. In 1985 it took on the look it has today, and the official name became WANKERS CORNER SALOON & CAFE (pronounced WANG-KERS), since the geographic location is "Wankers Corner, Oregon". The same operator of the famous "Wurst Haus" and "Stein Haus" taverns in the '60s and '70s is responsible for this transformation.

WANKERS CORNER SALOON & CAFE is dedicated to feeding the hungry in two ways.---1. serving large portions of damn good food at a reasonable price, and---2. raising close to $50,000 for the Oregon Food Bank by collecting a $1 cover charge on dance nights.

WANKERS CORNER SALOON & CAFE serves water only on request in order to preserve that most precious resource. (Besides, the well water contains so much iron and other minerals that it's sometimes brown in color.)

WANKERS recycles bottles, cans, cardboard, and uses no polystyrene.

WANKERS OUTBACK ALE

WANKERS CORNER SALOON & CAFE now has its own micro-brew. On tap exclusively at the saloon, and also available in 22 ounce bottles and gift boxes. This new micro-brew is tawny in colour, has a fresh roasted aroma with a delicate flavour and a smooth finish.

BEAN SOUP MANDATE

The U.S. Senate Restaurant is required by the Senate to have bean soup on its menu every day.-----They probably thought eating beans gave senators more energy for filibusters----- Here at the WANKERS CORNER you can always get our famous Black Bean & Bacon soup every Monday and our equally famous Navy Bean & Ham soup every Thursday.

FEED THE HUNGRY

TUALATIN--Giving away money is easy. WANKER'S CORNER SALOON sees no reason why other taverns and restaurants around the state don't follow our example. We have given close to $50,000 to the Oregon Food Bank since starting a weekend cover charge.

What began as a joke in the spring of 1990, now has the food bank laughing all the way to the bank.

Since starting WANKER'S CORNER SALOON & CAFE in 1985, we have seen it grow from a quiet neighborhood tavern into one of the area's hottest lunch and nightspots. We instituted a 25 cent cover charge (to keep out the riff-raff). Inflation has raised that to 49 cents. In October of 1990, we decided to collect canned food at the door, with a Christmas donation to the food bank in mind.

The idea failed. People wouldn't bring cans of food to a bar, so we gave them a choice--a can of food or a buck for the food bank. They brought the dollar and we upped the cover charge to $1.49, where it stands today.

Christmas came and went. We saw how easy it was to collect the buck, so we kept the cover.

The charge, in place only on weekend nights, is a hit with the patrons and the money raised for the Oregon Food Bank has grown along with the popularity of the saloon, where lines of people can be seen outside on Friday and Saturday nights, waiting for a table.

Why the Oregon Food Bank? We were looking for a charitable organization to help, and we know that the food bank is legitimate. With approximately 600 agencies in its network, the organization is able to send our donations directly to agencies in our area, such as the Tualatin Valley Food Center.
