- Exams: You must have a picture identification (i.e. Student ID or Drivers License) to take an exam.
- Make-up Policy: Make-up exams and assignments will not be given! If you know that you are going to miss an exam, you must notify me in advance and take the exam prior to the rest of the class. Failure to do so will result in a 0 for that exam.
- Missed Classes: Everyone has emergencies. Emergencies include illnesses, family illnesses, death in the family, car trouble, computer problems, oversleeping, and all other reasons for not attending class or getting assignments turned in on time. If you miss a class, it is your responsibility to get the notes from someone and find out about any upcoming assignments. Late homework is not accepted and make up quizzes are not given.
- Attendance Policy: Attendance will be taken. You need to be in class. According to University policy, excessive absences can result in penalties.
- Extracurricular Activities: If you take part in a University sponsored extracurricular activity that will cause you to miss a class, you must have written documentation prior to missing the class and any assignments must be turned in before the missed class.
- Moodle/Email: Your grade from assignments will be posted on Blackboard/Moodle. It is your responsibility to check your grades every week. Assignments and notes will, at times, be posted on blackboard or emailed to your UNO email address. It is your responsibility to check these electronic sources for material. Computers are available in the labs and all students are expected to have the ability to get online and check email before entering this course.
- HW, other Assignments: Late homework is not accepted. Paper copies of homework will not be accepted. All homework will be submitted through McGraw-Hill's Connect
- Academic Honesty: Students are expected to conduct themselves according to the principles of academic integrity as defined in the statement on Academic Dishonesty in the UNO Judicial Code. Any student or group found to have committed an act of academic dishonesty shall have their case turned over to Judicial Affairs for disciplinary action which may result in penalties as severe as indefinite suspension from the University. Academic dishonesty includes, but is not limited to: cheating, plagiarism, fabrication, or misrepresentation, and being an accessory to an act of academic dishonesty.
- Disability Access: It is University policy to provide, on a flexible and individualized basis, reasonable accommodations to students who have disabilities that may affect their ability to participate in course activities or to meet course requirements. Students with disabilities are encouraged to contact their instructors and/or the Office of Disability Services to discuss their individual needs for accommodations.

Please be aware of the drop dates. This is your responsibility and all information concerning this is available on the UNO website.
