Term paper and presentation – 20%

ACADEMIC INTEGRITY

Academic integrity is fundamental to the process of learning and evaluating academic performance. Academic dishonesty will not be tolerated. Academic dishonesty includes, but is not limited to the following: cheating, plagiarism, tampering with academic records and examinations, falsifying identity, and being an accessory to acts of academic dishonesty. Refer to the Student Code of Conduct for further information. The Code is available online at <http://www.studentaffairs.uno.edu>.

FINAL GRADE REPORTING:

Under no circumstance will final grades be posted in any manner or given out over the phone by the Department or the instructor. You can learn of your final grade by going on line the day after final grades are due. (Look in your class bulletin for the final grade due date.)

ACCOMODATIONS FOR STUDENTS WITH DISABILITIES:

It is University policy to provide, on a flexible and individualized basis, reasonable accommodations to students who have disabilities that may affect their ability to participate in course activities or to meet course requirements. Students with disabilities should contact the Office of Disability Services as well as their instructors to discuss their individual needs for accommodations. For more information, please go to <http://www.ods.uno.edu>.

CLASSROOM CONDUCT:

Be in class on time. Please do not come five, ten minutes late. Distracting interruptions are inconsiderate, disrespectful, and time wasting. There is no excuse for repeatedly arriving late.

Turn off all cell phones before you walk through the door.

*Go to the bathroom before class begins.

*Feel free to ask me questions during class. But do not ask other students, as talking disturbs my concentration and concentration of other class members.

Do not eat anything in the classroom.

*Civility in the classroom and respect for the opinions of others is very important in an academic environment. It is likely you may not agree with everything that is said or discussed in class. Courteous behavior and responses are expected.

You are expected to prepare for each class and be ready for active engagement with me when called upon.
