Dear Paul,

Mrs. Hardin came down this evening and got the snow scene so this is $50 to the good. Mrs. Hardin says she does not know when she will be in Chicago to get new frames for all her pictures and would like the flat band wood frames you are doing for her if you will. Likes the one you made for this picture you painted them for Christmas. Am going to Chicago tomorrow as planned if nothing happens and expect to be back this next Tuesday. Shall hope to see you soon after that. Everyone raves over this big trees picture.

Please remember me to your mother. Hope all are well.

Sincerely,

Ginny Anderson
