About Lynn Conservatory

Since 1999, the Lynn Conservatory of Music has established a standard of musical training that is unmatched by many older and larger institutions. Under the leadership of noted pianist, conductor and academician Jon Robertson, dean since 2005, the conservatory has gained international recognition for its world-class artist faculty, highly talented and motivated students, and acclaimed performances. The conservatory offers programs leading to the Bachelor of Music and Master of Music degrees, as well as Professional Performance Certificates. Many Lynn Conservatory alumni hold orchestral positions and have their own studios for educating today's aspiring young artists.

Located in the Harold and Patricia Toppel Studios in the Count and Countess de Hoernle International Center, the conservatory's three-story facility provides spacious quarters for instruction and practice, and proximity to Lynn's three performance venues: The Snyder Sanctuary, the Amarnick-Goldstein Concert Hall and the Keith C. and Elaine Johnson Wold Performing Arts Center. Lynn's newest performance space, the Snyder Sanctuary, is an inspiring place where people of all faiths and belief systems can come together for contemplative thought, spiritual exploration, meditation, music and celebration. The intimate 220-seat Amarnick-Goldstein Concert Hall hosts concerts, competitions and master classes. Opened in 2010, the 750-seat Wold Center hosts the Lynn Philharmonia, Lynn Wind Ensemble, the Elmar Oliveira International Violin Competition, the Roger Voisin Memorial Trumpet Competition and other large conservatory events.

Lynn Philharmonia Orchestra

The Conservatory's Philharmonia Orchestra sets the standard for conservatory-level symphonic training. Now in its 27th season as a full symphony, the Philharmonia is an integral part of the education of the conservatory's graduate and undergraduate music students. It presents an annual series of high-quality concerts with a wide range of repertoire.

Welcome to the 2019-2020 season which marks the 20th Anniversary of the Lynn Conservatory of Music. As we celebrate our twenty years of making music we also celebrate the generosity of Elaine J. Wold who has challenged us to raise $500,000 in new endowment donations this year. She will match all your gifts up to $500,000. This gift ensures our place among the premier conservatories of the world and a staple of our community. We look forward to seeing you at many of the anniversary concerts and events planned for this year as the talent students, successful alumni and extraordinary faculty of the Lynn Conservatory share with you the beautiful world of music. – Jon Robertson, dean

There are a number of ways by which you can help us fulfill our mission:

Friends of the Conservatory of Music

Lynn University's Friends of the Conservatory of Music is a volunteer organization that supports high-quality music education through fundraising and community outreach. Raising more than $4 million since 2003, the Friends support Lynn's effort to provide free tuition scholarships and room and board to all Conservatory of Music students. The group also raises money for the Dean's Discretionary Fund, which supports the immediate needs of the university's music performance students. This is accomplished through annual gifts and special events, such as outreach concerts and the annual Gingerbread Holiday Concert.

The Leadership Society of Lynn University

The Leadership Society is the premier annual giving society for donors who are committed to ensuring a standard of excellence at Lynn for all students. Leadership Society donors make an annual gift of $2,500 or more and have the option of directing their gift to support the Conservatory of Music. Leadership Society donors receive invitations to exclusive events throughout the year that offer opportunities to engage with other Leadership Society donors and university administrators.
