.... THE FORWARD LOOK IS ANOTHER NAME FOR PROGRESS

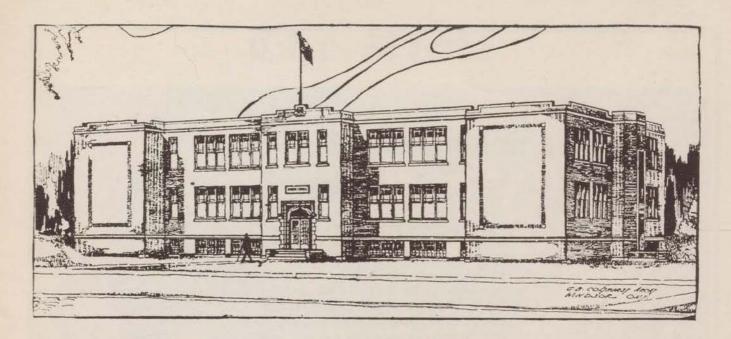

One look at any of the five exciting new Forward Look cars as it rounds a corner and flashes brilliantly down the street is enough to convince you. Progress . . . and the Forward Look do mean virtually the same thing.

But this progress, as exemplified by the Forward Look is not confined only to the great advances in automotive styling with which you are familiar: It is expressed in many ways, and in many areas of Canadian life.

The Forward Look is symbolic of the dynamic growth that has made this nation rich with opportunity in every field of human endeavour.

RIVERSIDE HIGH SCHOOL

THE STORY OF OUR SCHOOL . . .

Now that our four-room addition has been definitely approved and we have celebrated our tenth anniversary (tin, isn't it?), it seems a good time to say something about the history of our school.

Of course, we really must go back more than ten years because we are housed in a building which was started in 1917. In those days, the school trustees were proud that they were building a $35,000 school because, when Riverside was still a part of Sandwich East, the first school had been just an old frame building which was situated close to Riverside Drive on the west side of Reedmere Road. A few farm children attended this school which, as S.S. No. 2 Sandwich East, was later removed to the south side of Wyandotte Street just opposite St. Louis Avenue. Land for the present building was purchased in 1917, and the new school of two rooms was officially opened in 1919.

As the town grew, the school expanded. Two rooms were added in 1923 and another four in 1925. The building took its present form in 1927 when eight more classrooms and the gymnasium were added. The building was always known as the EDITH CAVELL SCHOOL, and, although the official name to-day is RIVERSIDE HIGH SCHOOL, we have taken pains to preserve the plaque over the front entrance so that the building itself may stand as a vital memorial to a notable British heroine of the First World War.

Work at the secondary level in Grades IX and X was started about 1934, but the school was considered an elementary school up until 1944 when Grades XI, XII and XIII were added and its official name became RIVERSIDE CONTINUATION SCHOOL.

During 1946 and 1947 there was a movement throughout the province to create newer and larger high-school districts which would bring secondary education to more boys and girls. The Department of Education envisaged a high-school district in this area which would have included Riverside, Sandwich East, Tecumseh and St. Clair Beach. It seemed likely that this area would provide education in a large school located just outside of Riverside in the Lauzon Road area. At the time, our Board which did not favour going in with the other areas worked to have the town of Riverside made into a high-school district by itself. The Department having agreed to this, the necessary legislation was passed in 1948. Although the larger area school would have provided a more diversified education than has been possible in our own school, certainly the decision of our Board to look after secondary education in the town of Riverside itself has been justified in several ways. In any event, we officially became RIVERSIDE HIGH SCHOOL in 1948.

Increasing elementary school enrolment made it possible to build more public schools and, in 1956, to remove all elementary classes from our building. The increasing public school population being carried over into the high school accounts for the four-room addition which is to be ready for September 1958. The addition will provide two urgently needed science laboratories and classrooms for the introduction of the commercial option and the special commercial course.

The new accommodations will make it possible for those interested to take a commercial subject as an option in Grades IX to XII — Business Practice in Grade IX, Typewriting in Grades X and XI. The special commercial course will enable students to devote a whole year to commercial work at the Grade XII level. Any who have fully completed Grade XI may take the special commercial course and still qualify for the SECONDARY SCHOOL GRADUATION DIPLOMA. Those who have completed Grade XII — or even Grade XIII — in the general course will be even better prepared to take the special course.

The present addition is planned so that more rooms may be added when they are needed. Naturally we are all happy to see Riverside High School expand, but we shall be some years before we reach the 500 mark enrolment. When that time comes, we shall all likely feel a tinge of regret because something of the intimacy and good spirit of a small school will be lost.

-ROBERT F. WALTON.

Thinking of the future?

If you're graduating this year, we invite you to consider an interesting business career with The Bell Telephone Company of Canada.

The Bell can help you select a career suited to your personal interests. This choice includes job training and company courses of instruction in many important fields which can help you to advance. You earn a good salary as well, and you help to maintain a public service essential to your community.

Why not drop in at The Bell in advance of your graduation to find out more about the opportunity for a career in this important service.

If you're going on to college we'll be pleased to tell you about opportunities in our Company for graduates in Arts, Commerce, Science and Engineering — men and women.

"Never in the course of human events have so many owed so much to so few." These words were spoken in memoriam at the close of the Second World War, by Winston Churchill; and yet it seems, that no phrase of words can so aptly sum up the devotion and striving for the betterment of education, that have been demonstrated by our teachers. For these dedicated men and women mould the course of our lives to come, and it is through their guidance that we may grow up to serve our country and our God, each our own way. Some of you, who are reading this now, have already gone through this period of transformation while others still await the pleasures of life which will unfold as time goes on; through the open doors of education. These determined and loyal men and women, have given their lives in order to cultivate a fond desire and even a lust for truth and knowledge; which is the God-given right of every man. In this aim, the teachers of Riverside High have far exceeded this goal, and have enriched the lives of all those who come in contact with them. What is owed to the teaching profession by the students can only be repaid by the same devotion to fellow man and a love of knowledge which will not be lessened by time; but which will increase, even after leaving the school.

EDITOR'S MESSAGE

Once again it is time to close our books and look back on the past year in Riverside High. How do we look back on this past — through our Year-Book the 'Rebelogue'.

When I think of the many hours spent on the compilation of the Year-Book, I have a proud feeling, knowing that I had a small part in this great project.

This year our Rebelogue has undergone a few changes. Our 'layout' is of a new format, which we hope will be of greater advantage to both the students and the advertisers.

Our attractive cover, this year, was designed by our own Lynn Marnock, the Art Editor.

As Editor of the Rebelogue, I never realized that the co-operation would be so spontaneous; from the Class Columns right down to the typing and proofreading.

I would like to express my thanks to all on the Rebelogue Staff; to the Business Manager, the Layout Editors, and the Advertising Manager, and last, but by no means least, without the sound advice of our staff advisors, Miss Trottier, and Mr. Walton our Principal, the Rebelogue would never have made it "to press".

There is nothing more valuable than memories, and so with this book, I hope we have captured the precious moments of the 1957-58 school year.

Thinking of a CAREER — or just a job?

Like most smart students, you'll want a lifetime career — not just a job at so much a week. And a career in banking could well be the answer to your plans for the future. Banking today offers a wider variety of interesting and better-paid positions than ever before. Consider it seriously before reaching your decision.

And here are some of the attractions Canada's First Bank offers young graduates starting in banking . . . good increases regularly if you are good at your job . . . an effective training programme to prepare you for advancement . . promotion based on merit — not seniority . . pension and group insurance benefits . . . a genuine combination of opportunity and security.

If you are interested in finding out more about banking as a career, have a chat with your nearest B of M manager. You'll find him most helpful.

LAST YEAR'S GRADUATES

The Grade Thirteen class of '57 had an enrolment of seventeen students. Of these, fifteen went on to further their education in either Windsor, London, or Kingston. In Windsor, the popular choice was Assumption University which Linda Atkinson, Dorothy Harrison, Mike Prince, Walt Sigmund, Ian Steel and Keitha Wylie are now attending. Also in Windsor is Barbara McDonald who is enroled at the Windsor Business College. Margaret Gault, Joan Holditch, and Marlyn Sahw, following their ambition to become teachers, chose to enter London Teachers' College. Another former Grade Thirteen student, Jack Giffen, also went to London where he is continuing his studies at the University of Western Ontario. Beth Livingstone, Mrs. Penny (Shepherd) Duncan, and Bob Thayer all preferred the courses offered by Queen's University in Kingston. Bill Robinson is also in Kingston at the Royal Military College. Isobel Benjamin stepped out into the business world and is now working at the Toronto Dominion Bank in Windsor. Denis Maurice, also a working man, is employed at Underwood Typewriters' Limited.

GRADE TWELVE A

KRUNCH! KRUNCH!

It is the year 1968. The mysteries of darkest Africa have drawn our graduates to seek out its hidden secrets.

Listen! The drum beats are growing louder and louder as we near the heart of the continent. There's a fellow of whom we thought highly — Sir Jonathon Pickering riding elegantly astride an elephant as he leads a safari. Simply must bag a lion you know! Meanwhile back at the waterhole we see Doug Pearson conversing intelligently with an alligator as he waters the elephants.

As we travel south into a more civilized part of Africa, the drum beats die out and are replaced by a shrill whistle, as we discover Beverly Slusarchuk refereeing a basketball game between the Ubangi Bouncers and the Zany Zulus. Look! Isn't that tall, blond star player for the Zulus our own Zelda Kilch, (Kathie MacMillan)? We've heard that she is a graduate of Michigan State where she received her Ph.d. in hedge clipping. In a nearby shop, who should we meet but Bryan Coupland. But he is receiving stiff competition from Evelyn Watret who is manufacturing double barrels for honeymooners. Across the street we find, as you may have guessed, Myrna Malowney painting black stripes on white mules, and selling them to Zoos. Her stiffest competition is coming from Liz Tensch who is painting white stripes on black mules.

In a little hut on the outskirts of town can be found Murray Hutchings, our Sealy Mattress salesman. He seems to be having a hard time making a sale to native Helen Gazo who says, "Me no wanna sleep on cloud, me sleep with both feet on um ground."

Traveling north again we enter another part of the jungle. Here we see a group of natives huddled around a solemn-faced 'orphan which' doctor who oddly resembles Joan Millar, and a huge kettle in which Sue Pattison is bubbling contentedly as she studies her algebra. They are preparing a feast for the guest — our favorite home-room teacher, Old Black Joe Sabo.

GRADE TWELVE B

During the recent month we of the Rebelogue staff (from 12-B) have made a very serious study of our classmates. The purpose of this intensive survey is to try to find the future occupation of our classmates in 1978. The information was found by careful personality and activity (school and outside) study. The following is our predictions of the survey:— WE PREDICT:

- —that Heather Allen, because of all her Basketball ability, will be the coach of the future WOSSA Senior Girl Champions at Riverside High.
- —that Joan Ardiel will conduct her own school for cheerleaders in sunny Florida.
- —that Nila Jean Black, very interested in medicine and a bit absent-minded, will make a wonderful Psychiatrist or Brain Surgeon.
- —that a girl in our class who excels in athletics and skating, Lynn Brown, will be the first person to skate around the world without stopping.
- —that Bill Calvert, our hunter and fur trapper, will be a Big Game Hunter on Mars.
- —that Ron Eve, because he is so easy going and sports-minded, will probably have ulcers and eat Sauerkraut and wheatgerm the rest of his life.
- —that the quietest girl in our class, Marlene Gill, will be a famous comedianne like Martha Raye.
- —that for no reason in particular except that he is very active in school, Bob Greenwood will be a Beach-comber somewhere in Hawaii.
- —that for some reason or other John Hamilton will move over to Great Britain and be a professor of Ancient History at Oxford University.
- —that Arnold Kay will be the Canadian Ambassador to the Russian Colony on the moon,

GRADE TWELVE A (Cont'd.)

Off to one side we see Karen Booth peeling bananas and Vicki Coyle and Sylvia Lumb cutting Kumquats for the stew. Donna Cope and Cathy Bourne begin playing the bongo drums to announce the beginning of the entertainment, as Tarzan Bill Thomas swings in on a vine just in time to see the show. Here is the first act now! The one, the only, the FABULOUS Cathie Housley, a FABULOUS, FABULOUS, torch singer — Africa's awful dark you know.

The second act on the list is greated by a thunderous ovation when Lois Gardner, gives us her rendition of the African Hat Dance. A hypnotic trance then ialls over the audience as our pygmy? snake charmer Elaine Podolsky begins to play the mysterious snake dance. But they soon snap out of their spell when the marvelous Marilyn Mau Mau Sisters — Helen Wood and Marilyn Holmes — dance the Jigaboo Jump. Suddenly the festivities are temporarily silenced when we hear our little Jungle Bunny Elaine Kmit cry, "Mau-Mau, it's the citizen's man," and a rather confused Dick Sadleir "strolls" into the camp-site.

Well, now we've had our little visit and the time has come to leave the realm of Africa. So, until the next time we meet, "Kabala, Samaga, Gooma!" or Krunch! Krunch!

-ELAINE PODOLSKY and JOAN MILLAR.

GRADE TWELVE B (Cont'd.)

- —that David Koski will be a great research chemist or a big producer of Horror Movies in Hollywood.
- —that Jack Masters will be an Ace Rocket Pilot in the Royal Canadian Air Force.
- —that Alan Schwartz will move to Reno, Nevada where he will run a roulette wheel for Harold's Club.
- -that Blake Sherman, very interested in football, will be a future waterboy for the Detroit Lions.
- -that Gail Tripp is going to be Dean of the Assumption University branch in Kenya.
- -that Pat Wellock will raise fleas for a flea circus and have her own T.V. show.
- —that because of his good looks, Ed Wenger, will star in David's Horror Movies. He could put Tab or Boris out of business you know.
- —that Bob Wilkes will retire on the banks of Avon and read Shakespeare the rest of his life.
- —that Pat Wilson, because she is taking up the guitar and is an Elvis fan, will have Mr. Presley collecting "Pat Wilson" buttons and records in twenty years.

Those are our predictions. Some are funny and some are of a more serious nature. We are quite certain that all the members of 12B will find thir mark in life and will be very happy.

Middle row, left to right: David Baker, Davvid Cooper, Grant Smith, Tom Skinner, Bob Musselman, Tom Smith, Paul Peacey, Helmut Ferber, Raymond Matthews, Roddy Smith, Mr. O'Gorman.

GRADE NINE A

The actions of the boys and girls throughout the year have made possible this Nine A class column.

We have concluded that Nine A wouldn't be the same if: John Andriash didn't tell everybody, "That's not right."

David Ascot and homework could agree.

David Baker knew who Sam Fahrenhuit was.

Andrea Campbell wasn't so interested in boys.

Diane Chandler didn't have a pony tail.

Phil Church could get along with Miss Trottier.

Dave Cooper wouldn't always insist that "You're right."

Jackie Davis didn't have to have the last word.

Martha Dunklee didn't think Mr. Forden was a "DOLL".

Helmut Ferber wasn't such a funny little flirt.

Sheila Georges wasn't always running into all the classes after the attendance slip (in her gym suit). Deanna Jackson didn't always get caught chewing gum in Mrs. Pavzka's class.

Don Kincaid could convince Mr. O'Gorman that he is not in Girl Guides.

Ray Matthews didn't want to put sugar in the other guy's machine.

David Moore wasn't always day-dreaming in the Art Class.

Bob Musselman didn't like the office so well.

Paul Peacey wasn't the "Ship's Mascot".

John Rockett didn't get Don Kincaid involved with the Girl Guides.

Tom Skinner wasn't the practical joker.

Grant Smith wasn't so terribly timid.

Vera Ure didn't hurry to see "Muggs".

Gaye Webb spoke out loud.

Barbara Yates didn't know a guy named Dennis.

Mr. O'Gorman wasn't the best teacher in the school,

-BARBARA YATES and BOB MUSSELMAN.

GRADE NINE B

Well here we are. Our first year in nine B and we think it wouldn't be so enjoyable if:

Pat Cunningham wasn't our best French Student.

Craig Allen wasn't such a brain in class.

Peter Vuicic's eyes weren't always focused on a girl.

Carolyn Eve wasn't always bragging about her "BIG" brother.

Dick Giffin wasn't so enthusiastic in Math class.

Jim Starrett decided to do his English homework.

Bill Wells didn't talk so much in class.

Peggy Upton didn't always carry the attendance slip.

Doug Topliffe ever got his hair cut.

Dennis Wells ever figured out the answer to 2 to the sixtieth.

Bob Smith ever got above 20 in French.

Ed Soulliere wasn't 9B's professional class gabber.

Mary Jane Vallance's lipstick was ever on straight.

Peter Budwin wasn't the great lover of all times.

Gary Snyder didn't act like Prime Minister Diefenbaker.

Joe Wiseman didn't have such fiery red hair.

Susan Downey wasn't always making eyes at D.T. in 9B.

Sandra Mueller didn't always wear that fancy ring on her finger.

Shirley Everett wasn't always flirting with Mr. McConnell.

Lynne Roden didn't always have her eyes on Prime Minister Diefenbaker.

Linda Carberry wasn't always worrying about her tawny locks.

Barrie Hillman didn't use a whole tube of axle grease on his hair each morning.

Page Twenty

Carol Burbridge wasn't having so much difficulty in algebra.

Patty DeSallier didn't have such long brown hair.

Beth Montgomery wasn't such a nice little girl.

Jim Flanagan wasn't 9B's "little Irish Lad".

Peter Loaring and Alex Davidson were not so chummy.

Mr. McConnell didn't mystify us with his complicated algebra problems.

GRADE NINE C

As we enter nine C we wonder what it would be like if:

Karen Ardiel wasn't so nice.

Jean Bennett hadn't just come.

Fred Buckenberger wouldn't blush.

Peter Chauvin wasn't so small.

Diane Chantry wasn't so shy.

April Courtney-Brown was seen without Sharon.

GRADE TEN A

Won't you come in and join us for a typical day in 10A?

On entering the classroom you will find Harry Woodend, Bob and Larry Relf in the far corner discussing the latest happenings around the school. Then just as the bell rings in dashes Barbara Boycott frantically clutching her books and trying to take off her coat at the same time.

Our first period is Latin, and we find Mrs. Raymond patiently waiting while Betty Thomas attempts to translate her Latin into English, even though Blaire Durbin, Jeanette Keel or Nancy Gordon could have done it in half the time Next we cross the hall to Mr. Forden's Geometry class where Pat Berthiaume and Dennis Duff try to enlighten the other pupils with their geometric proofs and deductions.

Now we trudge glumily on to the Lab. to see Ann Tofflemire and Jane Dent quietly trying to learn the digestive tract. Then at the back there's Dave Calcott who is continually trying to asphyxiate the studious ones such as Ross Miles and Ros Duncan?? ? Meanwhile at the second table, Gale Purdy goes into fits of laughter when Mr. Melega asks Bill, Harry and Ross to prepare the apparatus for a certain experiment in the room.

With the conclusion of the Science period we dart up the stairs to French where we are pleasantly greated with Mr. Sabo's "Close your book!" Bill Stewart and Jack Russel reluctantly do so. Later on, Gale Purdy and Sandra Miller turn bright pink after being asked if they can "can can" while Barb Smith thinks over the answer.

Now with French behind us we struggle down the steps to Literature and during the course of the period we see Jan Hamel and Mary MacPherson showing Miss Westgate their homework while Otto Armin tries to explain how he forgot his at home. Hurriedly we dash out of the library for lunch, but not until we have pushed in our chairs. As we pass the girls lunch room Blaire and Barb Smith can be heard singing their favourite song, "Got Along Without You."

With everyone in the classroom once again we hear Sandy Hepburn patiently trying to quiet the class for the assembly meeting as Marianne Langlois and Jane Tebbs look silently on.

Our next class is Music where Mr. Armin guides Betty Landauer at the piano and Peter Bode and Frieda Ferber with the directing of the scenes in the Operetta. Then there is Jean Bruce who desperately tries to make up the costume list.

Finally we find ourselves in Social Studies where Bev Wirch and Bill Voy discuss the Renaissance??? Then we hear Mrs. Fotheringham ask Lynne Flewelling, "What are you discussing, Social Studies?" Lynne— "Yes." Oh come now, Lynne, really!

With this typical school day now past we fondly remember the sight of Diane Mansell and Winnifred Crosby strolling down the street discussing the day's happenings.

Well, we hope you enjoyed the day and that you will come and see us again next year.

GRADE TEN B

As soon as the door of Room 15 has been opened, an impatient crowd of 10B students fills it with a deafening roar. Bill Wakely takes one quick look at the clock and runs off for an 8:30 detention in the French Room. He gets there at exactly 8:29:50; this he records on the black-board.

Back in Room 15 Bob Mitchell, our best behaved boy, is frantically trying to get his homework done before the bell rings. Audrey Reid and Karen Kersey are standing in the cloak room, exchanging secrets and not missing the smallest incident which has happened over the weekend. Marion McKinnon and Helen Points are discussing certain names such as Mickey and Jerry and reliving last Saturday's night's date. Joan Bays is listening to them occasionally adding her opinion to what they have to say. Karen Wallace and Elizabeth Lazuiruk go from desk to desk writing verses and jokes in the backs of everybody's books. Ruth Morrison who has a big "don't bother me, I'm thinking" look on her face is trying to figure out what reasons she can give for not refusing any of her numerous dates for the weekend. Larry "Lover-boy" Vindischman has been talking to Monica Erwied ever since he came into the room until Mr. Forden interrupts to remind them that the bell has rung.

The class gradually settles down for the first class of the day, mathematics as usual. Larry Allan breathlessly rushes into the room, interrupting Elizabeth Day who is showing the class how to prove a deduction. Immediately he is sent down to get another late slip. In the next class, Latin, we hear Carol Sherman and Bob Lynch at the back of the room arguing about who is better at shooting baskets; then we hear the bell announcing the end of another period.

In French Mr. Sabo greets us with this phrase, "Close your books everybody, that means you too, Beth," Beth Lyon looks surprised and says, "But sir, this is your book." He then asks Tom Ryan and Jim "Jammy" Storey, if their homework is completed. This question is answered by a loud but unconvincing "Yes". Class is resumed with this statement from Mr. Sabo, "Ingrid, you're talking again." Ingrid Stahl immediately stops talking only to start again when the teacher's back is turned.

In Social class everyone keeps up a lively conversation, especially Paul Hewitt who is surrounded by girls. If it is a Friday the day to bring current events, John Cleaver and Ken Thorn divide their newspaper clippings evenly. Mrs. Fotheringham also thinks that something should be split evenly, their marks. Linda Benjamin pulls out her last stick of gum and she is told, "five merit marks off". Then as the bell rings everyone packs up his books to go to his favourite period, noon hour; and thus ends a morning with 10B.

GRADE ELEVEN B

Dear Rebelogue:

On looking back on the term 57-58, and Grade 11-B, we remember our fellow students with fond memories. Here are some "tid-bits" of information we have gathered about them. David Williamson, always seemed to have an answer in Physics. Marlene McKinnon did a splendid job as Photography Editor for the Rebelogue. Sandra Klapowich directed our class assembly. Glory Milner immensely enjoyed drinking milkshakes at the "Grill". Murray Clark caught up on lost sleep in History classes. Bob Markovich added to our class assembly with his striking resemblance to a Hula dancer. Eugene Swynarchuk, although a little backward in History, is a big forward in Basketball. Heather Marnoch's outstanding characteristic is her big blue eyes. Camille Watson was our representative to the Athletic Society. Bill Ursu was one of our Student Council representatives. Jane Wylie is one of the smaller girls of the class. Kathryn Eddie was our contribution to the Volleyball team. Nina White was often seen "strolling" around the halls. Lynn Marnoch adds a little culture to every class with her capabilities in the Art World. Jim Duncan was a quieter member of the class. John Waugh, the blackboard brusher in Mr. Sabo's room. Sharon Smith was always rushing into the room at exactly 8:45 a.m. Paul Carr played the chief in the play.

Wendy Webster did an excellent job of instructing the boys in how to do the "Hula-Hula". Pat Thompson tried so hard to sell Rebelogue ads. Roger Poultney finally got out of solitary confinement in the corner. Denis McCrea was a Hula dancer in our play. Jack Barlow was the comedian of the group. Helen Hetherington was one of the stars of the Jr. track team. Karen Miller always kept on her toes with her lively conversation in Geography. Carol Whittaker had interests at Assumption College. Jack Livingstone, although he lost part of his costume in the play did a terrific job. Gary Richardson, one of the class jokers. Gordon Clark renders his skill to the Badminton World. Ron Walker was the barbarian invader from Walkerville (just kidding of course). Bob Issell kept the Jr. boys Basketball Team on its toes. David Parmeter had a hard time keeping his homework up-to-date. Shelley Jewel was Karen's accomplice in Geography. Jim Roberts, notorious "Don Juan" in Mr. Sabo's room. Bob Broadwell the up and coming salesman with the "Cooke Cap" sold arms and legs in our assembly. Bob Williams, known as "Sunshine" ranked high in the class and added to the class play too. Howard Dennison couldn't get along very well with Mr. Sabo. Pat Wakely was active in the Rebelogue, Black and Gold and the Library Club. Finally, Mr. Vaughn-Evans, who gave us so much time and assistance throughout the school year.

STUDENT COUNCIL

In September 1957, Dick Shuel and Joan Millar were elected Head Boy and Head Girl of the Student Body. Allan Wirch was elected Treasurer and Helen Wood, Secretary.

The first school project was a successful magazine subscription drive which lasted for two weeks. With the profit, the Student Council purchased an electric scoreboard for our gymnasium.

Nila Jean Black, Janet Varah and Joanne Bunt were convenors of the Maytime Rapsody which was held on May 9. Music was by Matti Holli and as always the queen of the ball was chosen. The Graduation Commencement followed the same pattern as years before. A dinner was given to the Grads and parents. There was a graduation dance following the commencement exercises.

A school trip was planned by the Student Council with the help of the C.N.R. The May 24 weekend was used for this trip.

Six beautiful framed picture prints were donated to the school which now hang in various classrooms and the school halls.

The members of the Student Council of 1958 give many thanks to the Student Council advisors — Mr. O'Gorman and Mr. Walton for a successful year.

KEY CLUB

The 1957-58 officers are: president, Nick Pearson; vice-president, John Perkins; secretary, Bill Thomas; treasurer, Alan Wirch; Lieutenant Governor, Ed Wenger; advisors, Mr. Lucas and Mr. Shiner.

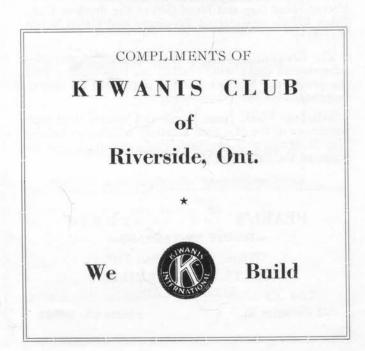

Activities got under way at the start of the year with a 10th Anniversary Past Members' Banquet. Over twenty present and past members turned out for a very enjoyable evening.

Other projects of the club included aiding the Riverside Kiwanis in their annual peanut sale, the Riverside Recreation Centre in their drive for funds, and the Goodfellows in their sale of papers, and also the Christmas tree in the lower hall was donated by the Key Club. In co-operation with the Windsor and Essex Kiwanis Clubs, the Key Club established a sister club in the Essex High School.

The Club hosted boys from as far away as London and Sarnia for a Divisional Rally. This lasted for two days at the first of March. This was to promote unity in our Division No. 5.

In April, a District Convention in Toronto was attended by several members of the Club. The year was Page Thirty successful in that our division gained another club, and the Riverside Club helped the school and community.

THE BLACK AND GOLD

The Black and Gold started its activities in October '57 with the appointment of the editor. Bob Greenwood took the post and had last years' experience as assistant editor to guide him. Bob's two assistant editors this year were Blake Sherman and Ed Wenger.

A meeting was held to supply the paper with columnists; this was done by nomination or appointment.

The editors are sorry to say that the paper was not very successful this year as only three editions were published before Christmas. There has been trouble with the printing process and the Riverside Key Club who sponsors the paper is trying to remedy the problem.

Mr. Vaughan Evans, who took over the role of Staff Advisor this year, was very helpful.

On behalf of the editors, I would like to thank everyone concerned and especially our cartoonists, Lynn Marnoch and Jerry Dowling, for the work they did on the Black and Gold.

JUNIOR RED CROSS

This year was quite successful for the Junior Red Cross Club. Despite the fact that the membership was small in comparison with other years, considerable accomplishments were made.

In October the executive was elected, consisting of President, Pat Wilson; Vice-President, Karen Booth; Treasurer, Peggy Varah; and Secretary, Sue Pattison. One of our year-round projects is selling refreshments at the dances and the selling of school crests. The head of ticket sales is Shelia Wright.

The members wish to thank Mr. Walton and Mrs. Pavezka for their help and co-operation. We hope that next year's club will be bigger and better than ever.

GLEE CLUB

The Glee Club, under the expert direction of Mr. Armin enjoyed a very excellent year. "Sleigh Ride," arranged by the eminent Fred Waring Choir, and Soffeggio, a light and gay melody are just two of the many selections which the Glee Club presented at various social functions.

The choir entertained the graduates and their families at the annual commencement exercises. Its programme included the two famous selections, "Somewhere Over the Rainbow," and "Via Condios" as well as many others which were enjoyed by all.

One of the highlights of the Glee Club's year was the radio broadcast at C.B.E. They recorded a series of Christmas Carols including, "We Three Kings," "Silent Night" and "O Come All Ye Faithful." These carols were presented on one of the delightful C.B.E. Christmas programs.

Mr. Armin organized a triple trio this year made up of Helen Wood, Blair Durbin, and Carroll Graham, first soprano, Marilyn Holmes, Betty Thomas, and Jane Wylie, second soprano and Kathy MacMillan, Susan Lapsey and Donna Barton, altos.

This group was entered into the Windsor Music Festival where they received third prize with eighty-four marks.

The entire Riverside Glee Club joined in the Music Festival and captured third prize for the four part mixed voice competition.

On April 22, of this year the choir presented a "Spring Concert" which marked the end of this type of social function for the school term. Our very talented school orchestra as well as their distinguished guests performed beautifully. Their specific section of the program included the "Toy Symphony" by Haydn, the lovely "Swedish Rhapsody" and a selection from the "Capriol Suite" which was the accompaniment for a ballet by Susan Cook and Mary Ellen Loaring arranged by the Bickle Dance Studio. The choral section of this program included selections from the operetta, "Her Royal Highness Miss Jones" such as "Moon Over Anywhere" and "On The Desert Trail" as well as other effective choral arrangements such as "Oklahoma" and "The Happy Wanderer."

THE LIBRARY CLUB

The Library Club has held meetings every month since October, 1957. These meetings were very profitable with an average attendance of forty, including the Junior Library Club, which was made up of Grade Nine students. We ordered new books for the library, covering a wide variety of subjects. Mrs. Dingman spoke to us on library work and showed us a film to illustrate her talk. A group of thirty paid a visit to Carnegie Library where we were shown a film and taken on a conducted tour of the library. As we visited the various departments, the head of each was there to give us interesting details of the department's operation. Another one of our projects is a scrapbook containing excepts from the newspaper, of Riverside students and activities.

The executive for this year was: president, Marlene McKinnon; vice-president, Audrey Reid; and secretary, Susan Lapsley.

Your school cadet corps has enjoyed a very successful year. In May 1957 a successful Annual Inspection was made by Capt. Stupart of H.M.C.S. York, Toronto. Three cadets took seven week's summer training for communications, naval air, and gunnery. Ten cadets attended a ten day course at H.M.C.S. Acadia in Sydney, N.S. During the year C.P.O. Thomas passed his petty officer's test.

In the fall, two new divisions were created from new entries, most of which were grade nine students. Hurried preparations were made to have these two divisions in good shape for the Annual Inspection on May 12.

The Christmas and Easter parties were again a success. The parties given by the officers, were at the school with coke and ice-cream and goodies prepared by the home economics classes. Movies were also featured.

SENIOR BOYS BASKETBALL

For the third straight year the Rebels have completed the E.C.S.S.A. league without a single defeat and have gone on to win their third consecutive W.O.S.S.A. championship.

Back in November the first practice was held with no unfamiliar faces. Returning from last year's team were many regulars and some graduating juniors. By the time of the first game, Bobby Greenwood and Mickey Stinchcombe had been placed as forwards between Gary Richardson, Billy Symonds and Gene Swynarchuk took up the guard positions. The bench consisted of Ed. Wenger, Blake Sherman, Glenn Campbell, Jack Livingstone, Murray Hutchings and Gord Clark.

Before the season opener, the Rebels had a number of exhibition tilts. The first game was played at Kennedy, against the Clippers who won by one point. An old rivalry was resumed with R.U.B.C. During the season the teams had it out three times, the Bible Class coming out ahead with two victories.

One of the big events was the invitation, the Rebels received to play in the first annual Assumption Invitational. In the qualifying round the Black and Gold were soundly defeated by Stamford of Niagara Falls. On the strength of a defeat over Corpus Christi, they advanced into the Consolation Finals, but were defeated by St. Mike's of Toronto.

After the Christmas holidays, it was time to get down to league play. Murray Hutchings took over the right forward position when Mike Stinchcombe left school to work in Sarnia. The season opener was played at Kingsville and the senior Rebels took up where they had left off last year, and defeated Kingsville 55 to 25. Then they defeated Harrow and Tilbury by scors of 71 to 36 and 71 to 40. The next week the team was idle but returned to action the following week and went on to end the season with lopsided victories over St. Rose, Amherst, and North Essex. On the six league games Greenwood led the scoring and was followed by Richardson, Symonds, Swynarchuk, and Hutchings.

This year the playoffs differed in that the first two teams played a home and home series. The first game was played at Amherst. Gene and Bobby sparked the teams play and they scored 40 points in the half. In the second half the play was very rough and the Rebels only caged 8 points, but won the game by a score of 48 to 36. The two teams returned to Riverside where the home five romped to a 77 to 28 win and the right to go to London for the W.O.S.S.A. tournament.

In the semi-final the crew completely outclassed the Western Ontario Agricultural College by a score of 62 to 34. In that contest most of the team got into the scoring column. In the final game the Rebels had a tough time getting the lid of the basket and scored only 4 points in the first quarter. In the second quarter Sy found the range with his two hander and from then on it was no contest. The scoreboard showed a final score of 56 to 25 and Riverside had another pennant for its halls.

Once again Coach Bill McConnell turned out a superb Junior Basketball team. They started out by defeating Kingsville 43-16, Bob Issell leading the way with 17. On to Harrow they travelled, where they trounced their opponents by a 43-19 score, Issell leading the way again with 19. The Junior Rebels were then visited by Amherst whom they defeated 71-33, Issell scoring 27, followed by Fraser Fellows with 18. Next they defeated St. Rose 73-21 with Fellows, Duff and Stewart hitting the double figures. With their next two games at home the Juniors squashed Tilbury 64-34, Issell finding the range for 25; and slaughtered North Essex 75-22, Issell leading with 24. Thus the Juniors finish their regular season with a perfect 6-0 record.

Demoralized by the loss of Bill Stewart, a top-notch guard, the Juniors entered the playoffs in Amherstburg and lost their first game in 55 by a score of 40-37. However, in the next game of the two-game, total point series the Rebels gained revenge, trouncing Amherst 70-42, Issell hitting for 31. This advanced them to the W.O.S.S.A. playoffs in London, where they edged Strathroy 60-48 in the semi-finals. With one more game to go the team was full of confidence. They were up against Pope Pius team of Chatham. They led at the end of the quarter 10-6, and were never behind as they pushed on to a 46-25 victory, thus taking the W.O.S.-S.A.-B. Junior honours for the fifth consecutive time.

Bob Issell — Guard—Fine ball handler and shooter. Best shot was a quick one-hander around the key. Best effort was 31 points against Amherst in second game of total-point series. Averaged 20 points a game.

Fraser Fellows — Centre—Good jumper, fine rebounder. Best shot was a jump shot around the basket. Best effort was 25 points against Tilbury. Averaged 14 points a game.

25 points against Tilbury. Averaged 14 points a game.

Bill Ruch — Guard—Forward—Fine defensive player with a good fade-away one hander from the right side. Best effort 11 points against Tilbury.

Dennis Duff — Forward—Capitalized on fast breaks and had a good jump shot from the left side. Best effort was against Amherst, when he scored 16 points.

Bill Stewart — Guard—A fine guard and ball handler with a good one-hander from the outside. Top effort was 13 points against St. Rose.

Jim Perkins — Forward—Inexperienced at first but improved vastly. Had a good jump shot from the right and was a good rebounder. Best effort was 10 points against Strathroy.

RIVERSIDE FOOTBALL

After several years of trying to get to the purple bowl the Rebels finally made it this year. Not only did they get there, but they also came home victorious, by easily over-powering their opponents.

This year's team was the best the school has ever seen. They were beaten only once, and that was because their spirit had been drained out by the Asiatic Flu. They soon recovered, however, and went on to down Sarnia's St. Pat's for the second year in a row and to shellac Mitchell in the Purple Bowl game.

With the aid of three good running backs: Ed Wenger, Nick Pearson and Blake Sherman; three sticky fingered pass receivers, Bob Greenwood, Richard Shuel, and Eugene Swynarchuk; a big hard driving line of John Hamilton, Roy Harrison, Arnold Kay, Bill Thomas and Allen Wirch; and an elusive quarterback with an accurate throwing arm, Bill Symonds, the offensivve team scored an average of 30 points per game.

The defensive crew was just as solid in its part. It contained many of the offensive players plus Ron Dickson, Murray Hutchings, and the Relf brothers on the line; Garry Richardson and Gerald Snyder backing them up and John Perkins as pass defense. They allowed an average of only 4 points a game to be scored against them

BOYS TRACK AND FIELD

Again in 1957-58, our boy's track team was one of the smallest in number to wear the Black and Gold of Riverside. Although small in number, the talent was high, and again this year, as last, Riverside placed second in the E.C.S.S.A. and the W.O.S.S.A. meets. The boys who put in time and practice are to be congratulated for their excellent showing

On Friday, Sept. 26, the track team boarded the bus and headed for Kingsvivlle and the annual E.C.S.S.A. track and field meet. The junior boys walked off with the junior boy's pennant, the big gun being Jim Perkins who captured the junior boys' individual championship. Jack Russell looked in good form as he took a red ribbon for the 100 yard dash. In the intermediate events the boys missed winning the pennant by two points. Harry Woodend also missed out on the individual championship by two points. Harry had four firsts and a second. Bob Issell won the high jump and collected two firsts and a second. The intermediate relay team composed of Jim Wood, Gord Clark, Harry Woodend, and Bob Issell broke the relay record with a time of 47.5 seconds. Our senior boys were the smallest number ever to compete with only three trackmen, Blake Sherman, John Hamilton, and Arnold Kay. John showed his muscles and won the discus throw.

On Saturday, Oct. 3, the teams got an early start to the W.O.S.S.A. meet at London. The highlights of the day for Riverside were that we broke two records and tied another. In senior boy's competition John Hamilton threw the discus for a new record. Then in intermediate events Harry Woodend equalled the record for the 100 yd. dash. Again as in Kingsville the intermediate relay team established a W.O.S.S.A. relay record. Harry also came through with two more firsts. Jim Perkins came through with another good performance and took the individual championship.

All in all we had a good season and thanks must be given to Mr. McConnell for his coaching and time.

BOYS VOLLEYBALL

This was the first year Riverside has had a volleyball team and it proved to be a very successful one. Although they did not have any exhibition or season games they were very successful in the Essex County playoffs.

Under the able coaching of Mr. McConnell the team showed a great deal of promising talent and formed a smooth working unit backed by a strong reserve. Harry Woodend, Jerry Dowling, Fraser Fellows, Bill Ruch, Dennis Duff, and Mike Ward formed the Rebels offence; David MacKay, Bob Luckbaker, Bob Lynch, Jim Perkins, Doug Steel, Don Dawson, Ron Allen and Doug Topliffe made up the Rebel reserve. In the first game with Kingsville the Rebels got off to a slow start, but then glided by for an easy victory. They entered into the semi-finals, but were beaten by the strong Harrow team.

RIVERSIDE HOCKEY

For the first time in the history of R.H.S., we have had a hockey team. Under the able coaching of Mr. Forden the team has played many exhibition games with Windsor and Riverside Schools. Winning slightly less than half of their games, the team was fairly successful. Members of this year's team were Jack Master and Keith (Gump) Ward in goal. The forward lines were Dennis McCrae, Jim McLachlan, Dwayne Duke, David Copper, John Rockett, Howard Dennison, Murray Clark, Bryan Coupland, Bob Luck-Baker. Defense were David Grant, Arnold Kay, Ron Duncan, Doug Butcher.

Under the able coaching of Mr. Forden, the team has won 10, lost 12, and tied 2. Next year we hope for more after-school games so students may see us in action. The team was supplied with new uniforms which showed up effectively on the ice. Next year the team will be representing R.H.S. in one of the city leagues. The team would like to thank Mr. Forden for his hard work and his 6:30 a.m. appearances for our games.

GIRLS SENIOR BASKETBALL

In the 1957-58 season of Senior Girls' basketball, Riverside again put forth great efforts in order to obtain good standings in the E.C.S.S.A. league. Although their efforts failed, they won the championship in sportsmanship, which is far more important. In actual records, the girls were defeated in all six of their league games.

The first game was against Kingsville, in which R.H.S. girls were defeated soundly by a score of 61-13. The following week they again were defeated by Harrow to the tune of 38-19. The next game, Riverside journeyed to Amherstburg where General Amherst Seniors trounced Riverside 52-18. The following game, at home, was considered the best of the season although the Rebelettes were still unable to win. In this game, they struggled gallantly to gain priority, but trailed three points behind with the recorded score of 35-32. On the fourteenth of February, the Riverside girls again travelled out of town to Tilbury, where they received a sound thumping of 35-27.

Their final game was played at North Essex and although they put up a terrific battle, it was not enough to stop their opponents who scored thirty-one points to Riverside's twenty-six.

The season was short and Riverside girls had no official win except for sportsmanship. Every member of the team, composed of thirteen, displayed a sportsmanship quality that surpassed every other team in the league. That was the most important game and the Seniors won it.

JUNOR GIRLS BASKETBALL

The Junior girls under the efficient coaching of Mrs. Thomas had a successful season. They played a series of six games in league competition. Most of the games were easy victories but they were defeated in the final play-off by a heart-breaking one point deficit. The high scorer for league and play-off games was Camille Watson with 112 points. She was closely followed by Elaine Podolsky with 105, Bev Alewick with 61, and Blaire Durbin with 11. Much of the credit is due to the hardworking guards: Helen Hetherington, Irma Bernard, Linda Waugh, and Sharon Downey.

In the first league game, Riverside walked over Kingsville with an impressive 62-23 victory. In the following game Riverside edged out Harrow 37-36. In their third game they were stopped on their rampage by losing 24-31 to General Amherst High School.

Two exhibition games were played with Walkerville. The first string Juniors and Seniors combined to meet them. The first game was played at Walkerville and Riverside lost 21-40. The second game was played at Riverside and the girls lost again 29-38. The girls played two exhibition games with Corpus Christi. They lost their first 11-17, but walked over them 36-14 in the second game.

JUNOR GIRLS VOLLEYBALL

The Junior Girls under the able coaching of Mrs. Thomas had a successful season. They finished in top place, in a Round-Robin Tournament, played at Tilbury. The first game was held at Tilbury where they were victors with a score of 30-19. In their second game they walked over North Essex by 46-16. After these two easy victories the Juniors ventured to meet Harrow. Here they met their Waterloo, being routed by Harrow 40-24. Even at half-time the Juniors were trailing by fifteen points. A valiant string of points by Wendy Webster failed to put them out in front, but they went down good-heartedly to defeat.

The Juniors played two close exhibition games with Corpus Christi. In both games they trimmed them 31-24 and 32-24. The team captains were Donna Cope and Camille Watson. The team consisted of: Linda Waugh, Jan Hamel, Helen Hetherington, Blaire Durbin, Beverly Alewick, Dorothy Humphreys, Kathryn Eddie, Sharon Downey, Cathy Bourne, Wendy Webster, Gale Purdy, Ruth Harrison, Mary Lou Sherman, Betty Thomas, Barb Smith, and Monica Erwied. Since a majority of this team will remain Junior again, the school has a good chance of winning a Junior E.C.S.-S.A. and W.O.S.S.A. pennant.

MAYTIME RHAPSODY 1957

A colourful and picturesque carnival theme predominated for the tenth annual Maytime Rhapsody. The ceiling was hidden from view by a canopy of brightly-coloured streamers, centred with a captivating mobile from which hung balloons and animated monkeys. Lining the balcony and walls of the gymnasium were lively animal replicas, including representations of giraffes, tigers and elephants, and a large red cage was placed in the corner of the room to house "Leo the Lion".

The dance owed much of its success to the efforts of the convenors, Keitha Wylie, Barbara MacKay, Dorothy Harrison, and Penny Shepherd.

Lending their patronage for the evening were Mr. and Mrs. George Davis, Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Varah, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. MacKay, Mr. and Mrs. D. Little, Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Brown and members of the teaching staff.

The highlight of the evening was the crowning of the "Queen of the Ball", Penny Shepherd, who was lovely in a gown of pale blue chiffon. Her escort was David Duncan. Her princesses included, Linda Atkinson, in pale pink embroidered nylon, escorted by Ernie Riddel, Jo-Anne Bunt, in blue and white lateral-striped crystalette, with Ron Dickson; Joan Holditch, wearing red chiffon, with Ian Steele; Beth Livingstone, in pale pink chiffon, with Bill Robinson; Marlyn Shaw, wearing pink embroidered nylon, with Garth Smith; Janet Varah, wearing white nylon with blue accents, escorted by Vern Harvey; and Keitha Wylie, in yellow silk organza, with Jim Graham.

Among those entertaining at coketail parties prior to the dance were Mary Margaret Oke, escorted by Walter Scheuerman; Elaine Podolsky and Ian Dickson; and Lannie Hoffman with Dean Webster. Following the dance, John Perkins, president of the Student Council, who escorted Heather Stuart, held open house.

Noted dancing were Isobel Benjamin with Mike Pritchard, Barbara West escorted by Bob Hull, Barbara McDonald and Terry Knuckle, Margaret Gault with Bill Lemmon, Barbara MacKay with Al Lackowicz, Marilyn Holmes with Brian Furlong, Nila Jean Black and Ed Wenger, Heather Allen and Jack Giffen, Anne Galloway and Mike Prince, Lynn Marnoch with Bob Thayer, Marlene McKinnon and Richard Shuel, Doreen Robinson and Walter Sigmund, Glenna McPhee and Kevin McFadden and Myrna Malowney with Allen Wirch.

SCHOOL TRIP

Friday, May 17, 1957, with Mr. and Mrs. O'Gorman as chaperons, we left for Chicago and arrived there the following morning at 8:30. We taxied to the luxurious Hotel Sherman, where we breakfasted in vineswept booths of its Celtic Cafe.

In the afternoon we toured the Museum of Natural Science. Here we saw hundreds of fascinating inventions of modern sicence — we saw ourselves on television and toured an actual coal mine and submarine. One of the most interesting things we saw was a huge model of the human heart. It gave one an eerie feeling to actually be inside a heart and hearing the thump, thump, as it beat. This was truly one of the most unusual tours we had. That evening we spent as we pleased. Most of us caught up on our lost sleep.

Sunday, we toured the Museum of Natural History, the Planetarium and the Aquarium. The Planetarium was, perhaps, the most fastinating. We were all seated in an immense circular room in the centre of which was a gigantic telescopic machine. A man began speaking, and slowly, mysteriously, darkness enveloped the room as the high dome ceiling became a beautiful moonlit sky with millions of twinkling starts. The speaker described the movements of the sun and stars and we were all surprised when we realized that we had seen the same sky, night after night and never realized its beauty. The speech lasted about an hour and we were again surprised to be greeted by bright daylight as we left the building, after the realism of the night.

We then made our way to the Museum of Natural History which also was a fabulous building. Here we were greeted by a dinosaur skeleton and from there we roamed the corridors where incredibly life-like stuffed animals were displayed. In addition, the lives of ancient civilization were portrayed by life-size statues in actual reproductions of their ancient dwellings.

At 6:00 p.m. we had a group dinner in the Ming Room of the exotic Hoi Sai Jai Restaurant, where we enjoy oriental food and fortune cookies That evening was also free. Some of the students went to Chinatown on the overhead railway, toured the T.V. stations, or went to a show. Later in the evening, we met in the O'Gorman's room where we drank cokes and gaily discussed the exciting events of this weekend.

The following morning at 8:30 we viewed Don Mc-Neil's Breakfast Club in the College Room of the hotel. We then rushed to our rooms, packed, and hurried to catch the train home.

LITERARY

SCENE ON A MOONLIGHT NIGHT

All is darkness on this bitter night, Then the bright moon pierces the blackness with light. Beams of light shoot through the sky, And strike icicles, making sparks fly.

The white light shines through the cold, biting air, And people everywhere retreat into their lair. The sidewalk, covered with snow, Shines where the footsteps made ice, all aglow.

The moonlight is reflected on window-pane; And slowly increases as house-lights wane. The whole world takes on a silvery sheen, As moonlight illumines this cold winter scene.

-CATHY BOURNE (12-A).

THE NIMRODS

Why do men hunt and kill?
Is it that they fear,
The inocent rabbit and the deer,
Or wish to show their skill?
Do they somehow think,
The wildlife a menace,
Or feel, "What's a deer more or less?"
How low they do sink!

I often inquire,
And wonder what rules,
Those who kill for a trifle.
And I often desire,
To get those fools,
At the end of a rifle.

-ROBERT BIGGS, Grade XIII.

THE LONG WAIT

By Len Snyder (11A)

Rain dropped lightly upon his cap as he shuffled along the lonely path, the miserable thought of the past behind him. Inside he felt melancholy and morbid; it was all so horrible to think of, and he had been wrong from the very start. Out of the mist appeared the white frame house towards which he silently moved, the evidence still in his hand. He slid silently upstairs grasping the long bannister in his pale hands. As he took off his soaked clothing and prepared to slide into bed, the thunder rattled the very beams of the house.

Sleep did not come; like a wine which one takes in slow swirling gulps, it took hold of his weary mind as it retraced the day's happenings and the passage of all the months before. It had not all arisen overnight, but had come through days of restless sleep and worry. He had had his fun — now he must pay for it.

The rain pattered against the window. Then, as the tap often did, it would drip, beating out a slow chant. Louder and louder it sounded until it sounded through his senseless head and made him sit upright in bed. Sweat dripped from his head and face, and fear stared from his startled eyes. He lay back and tried to sleep, but he knew he couldn't do it.

Now there were five hours left, five hours until he came, five hours of weary waiting. He could run and never be caught, he thought; but that was the way of a coward, not his. The clock ticked heavily. A sickening it beat out with the falling rain.

Throughout the gloomy house the chimes reverberated. Now he knew there were only two hours left. What would happen to him? What would his punishment be? These were the thoughts that kept eating at his mind.

There was very little time left, but he was prepared. Out in front a car skidded to a stop and a door slammed shut. Footsteps stomped up the walk and the door creaked again. The stranger walked along the corridor and came to the foot of the stairs. He was coming up.

A rigid figure met him at the landing. They met face to face, father and son, and with trembling hands, the boy gave the father his report card.
