The Committee on the Pay Roll respectfully report that they have examined and compared the several names borne on this Roll and that they find the whole amount of travel and attendance of the members to be fifteen thousand seven hundred fifty four dollars - which is submitted -

James Smith Bond

In Convention Oct-29. 1819

Read and accepted and ordered that the Treasurer be required to pay the amount due the several persons borne on this Roll. Respectfully the sum set against this name respectively -
 attn R C Van Sledright

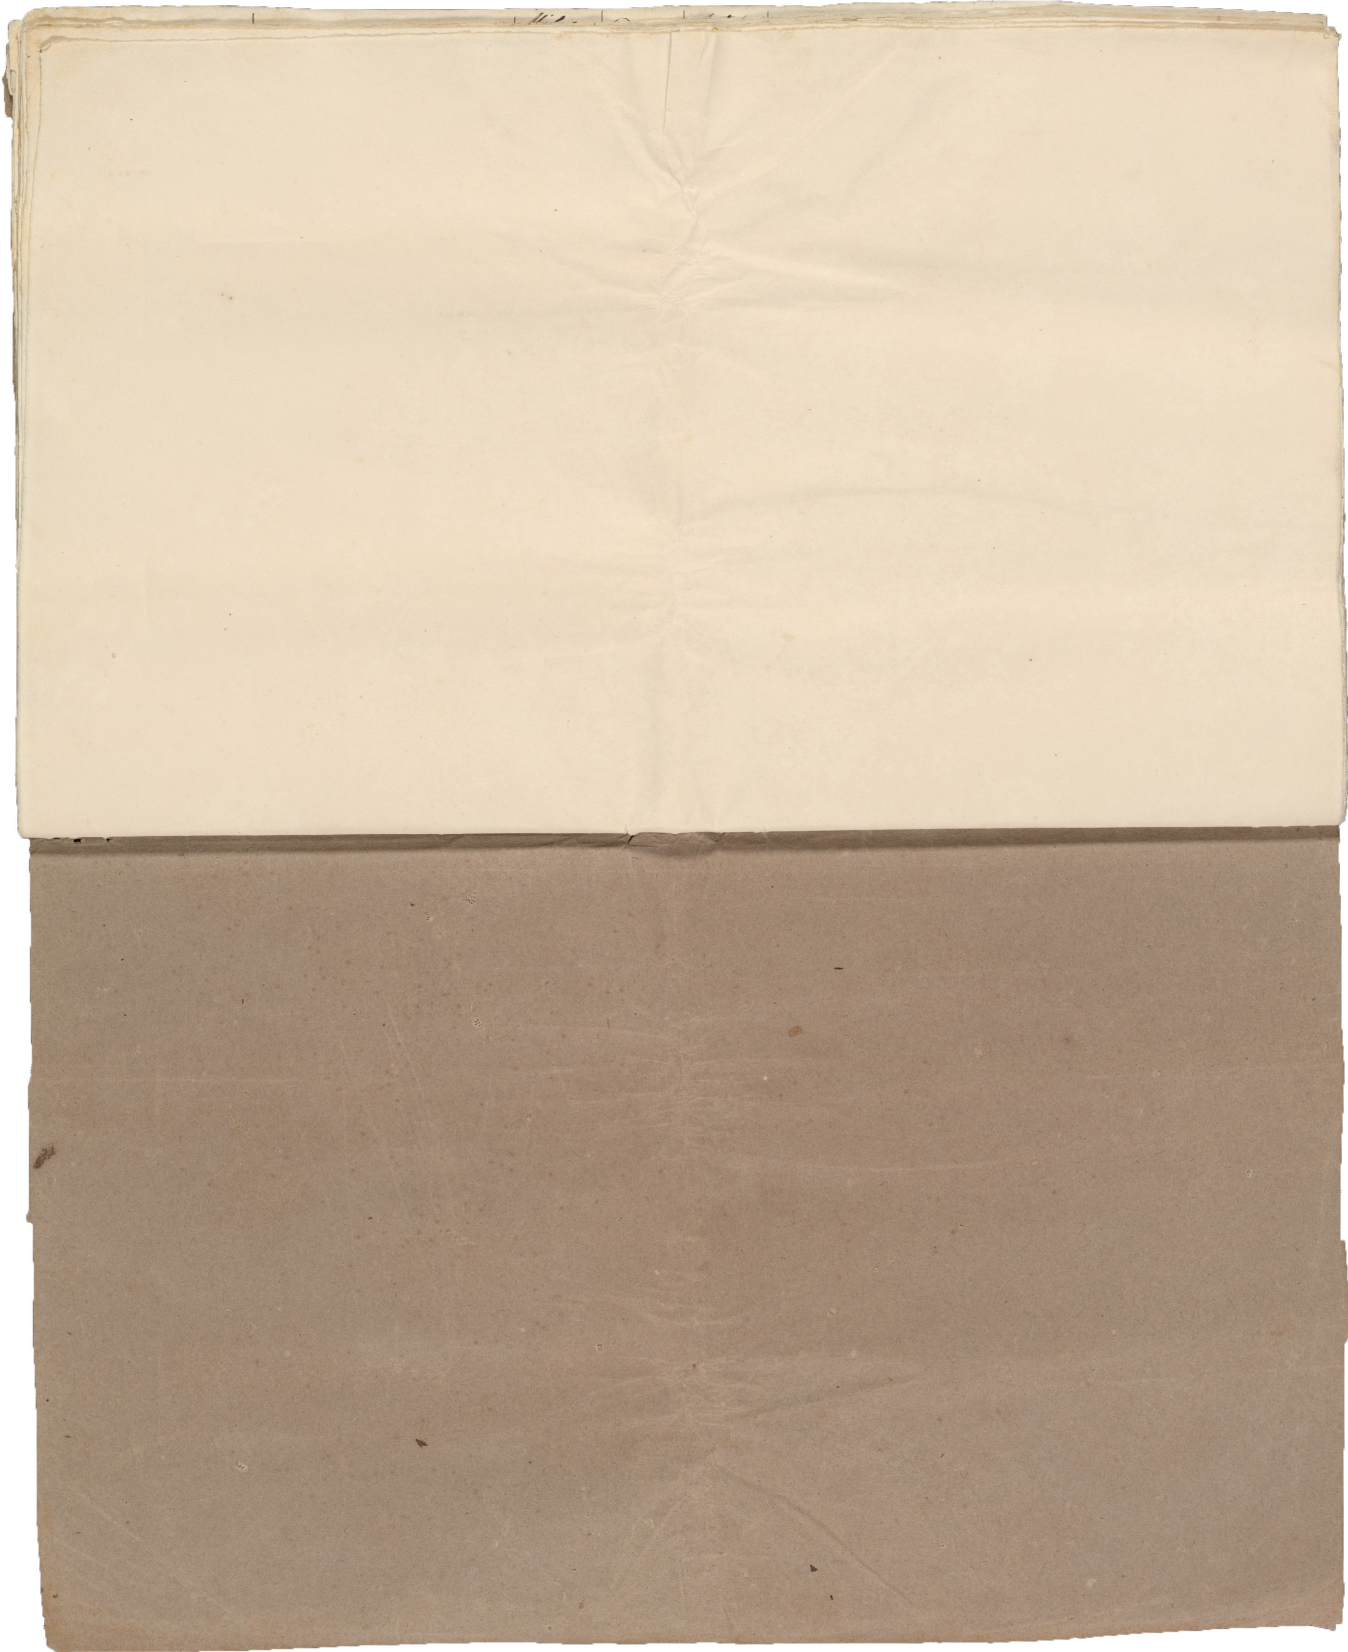

W. King Pres

In Convention Jan 7. 1820.

The above Pay Roll, was examined by a committee appointed to settle with the Treasurer, when it was found that the total amount of the same amounted to the sum of fifteen thousand dollars, and no more
