SECTION B: INFORMATION AND CHOICES FOR RESTRICTED ACCESS OPTIONS

The University of Huddersfield is subject to the Freedom of Information Act 2000. This Act gives a general right of access to all information held by the University, including information held in the University Repository. As a matter of normal practice we will only make your material available in accordance with the restrictions you have placed upon it. However, if someone specifically asks to see it, we must give them access unless the material qualifies for an exemption under the Act. Please indicate which of the following exemptions may apply to your material (if any) and explain why:

1. The material is due for publication or I am actively seeking to publish this material (the thesis will be embargoed for up to two years)
2. Release of the material would prejudice substantially the commercial interests of any person (the thesis will be embargoed for up to ten years)
3. The material includes information that was obtained under a promise of confidentiality (the thesis will be embargoed indefinitely)
4. Other (please specify)

If someone asks to see your material, we will use this information to decide whether or not we can refuse the request.

The following exemptions apply to my thesis:

Thesis submitted for the degree of ~~MA/MSc/MRes/MEnt/MPhil/PhD/EdD or Professional~~ ~~Doctorate~~ (delete as applicable)
