SUMMER QUARTER NEWS

There is still time to acquire up to 12 units of credit (3 courses) between now and the opening of the Fall Quarter.

Four intensive, 12-day courses begin next Monday, August 1 (Hebrew Exegesis, Old Testament Theology, Systematic Theology II, Biblical Theology of Mission). The final intensive session begins on Thursday, August 18, when courses will be offered in Kingdom of God and Language and Culture Learning I. The post-session from September 5-16 finds the School of World Mission offering a course in Intercultural Communication and another in Historical Development of the Christian Movement. Both bear credit in the M.A. and M.Div. programs.

Last year's tuition rate ($162 per course) still applies to these courses.

Visiting Professor George Vandervelde comes to the Seminary from the Free University of Amsterdam where he took his doctoral degree under G. C. Berkouwer. He currently serves as an associate professor of theology in that department. From August 1-16, Dr. Vandervelde will offer a course in Systematic Theology II (christology and soteriology) which meets the M.Div. core requirement in THb.

Course Updates:

OT534 Old Testament Theology will be jointly taught by professors William LaSor (whose basic outline will underlie the course) and John Watts.

M551/651 Historical Development of the Christian Movement has a change in instructor. This course will be taught by Dr. Arthur Glasser, dean, School of World Mission, assisted by Dr. Charles Mellis, formerly president of the Missionary Aviation Fellowship.
