TIMES POLLUTION

Well, it's happened again! The LA Times is still at it . . . the Easter march took place across the street from the Times edifice of accurate reporting...tucked inside of Monday's paper the world was misled into believing that Jesus only had 500 weary souls plodding down the street . . .ironic was the accompanying photo with obvious thousands upon thousands rejoicingly marching forward to City Hall for the rally...when confronted with the facts they came up with some weak sister story that a "zero" had been knocked off... if that's the case, What happened to the comma after the "5" to indicate thousand? A breath of fresh air for the establishment came in reading the Herald-Examiner to see their report of 8,400 attending the march, which goes along with the police estimate of over 8,000.

On Friday, April 3, twenty five Jesus People walked into the Times building carrying signs reading "Print the Truth", "Jesus is the Truth", "Ressurrect the Truth". After much confusion on the part of the Times as to who was in charge and who had sufficient authority to talk with them, the editor-in-chief made his appearance. He then apologized for the error which he said, "Was obvious that there were more people in the picture than stated in the article." But he had no explanation why it was not corrected in the next edition of the Times. He also stated, "Good news does not sell papers!" To which a young man replied, "For five years I took dope because I didn't think there was any reason to life, every day all you read in a newspaper is violence, rape, murder, war, killing, riots, strikes, etc., so I took dope to try and escape. Why can't we read of things worthwhile?" (that doesn't sell papers, friend!)

Freedom is

Freedom is beautiful. (Please stop here and think about that for at least 20 seconds.)

To be free is to be totally free--relieved of every binding force--anything that inhibits, hinders, and gets you down in any area. So freedom includes being freed from your self.

It's a new decade. Maybe our whole materialistic freedom-fearing society is going to finally wake up and let those who want it have liberty. It would seem so the way everybody's finally thinking "Do your own thing". Sex taboos are disappearing, drugs are o.k. by most people, if you want them, expressing oneself is easier, intellectual growth has never been greater, and just maybe people are caring a little more about their brother. What more could a man want?

It's screwed!!!!!!
Is freedom society's to give? Is freedom an individual's to give to another when he doesn't have it himself? If you think about it long enough you're gonna scream in despair "Who can give freedom?"

Freedom is truth. (Stop and think about that). Where there is truth--the ultimate truth--there is freedom. We must find truth. There is nothing higher than ultimate truth for it is the ultimate. Even the Bible agrees! "And you will know the truth, and the truth will set you free." (John 8:32)

But of course Jesus Christ claimed that he was the ultimate truth when he said "I am the way, yes, and the truth, and the life. No one can get to the father except through means of me." (John 14:6)

If Jesus is that truth then freedom can lie only in him.

You claim to be free. But arent you enslaved to yourself? You know you do things you don't want to do. Yet you claim to be free.

Christ said he would give you liberty from yourself forever. "If the Son therefore shall make you free, you shall be free, indeed".

Trust in Him!

A Different Kind of Demonstration

BY RICHARD DALRYMPLE
Herald-Examiner Staff Writer

Overflowing the walks and lawns of City Hall, more than 8,000 young people sang and clapped in the spirit of the "Resurrection March" rally held in Los Angeles on Easter Sunday.

Many wore white arm bands with the word "Agape" lettered on them in red.

"The word means love in Greek," said one girl.

"You see, in the Bible there are three kinds of love mentioned. The first and most significant is Agape, meaning God's unconditional love. The second is Philos, brotherly love; and the third is Eros, meaning passion.

"The reason we use the term Agape is because the English word love has become such a cliché and too often identified with Eros... sex, passion. And since most everyone has his own interpretation of the word love, we've eliminated any confusion by using the word Agape. It has only one meaning."

The Resurrection March was a different kind of demonstration for the streets of Los Angeles. Instead of protest, the purpose was one of affirmation. The participants marched to proclaim individual belief in Christianity.

Several officers of the law attended the rally, and although their estimate of the crowd reached 8400, they stayed in their patrol cars. There were no incidents among the crowd, composed mainly of young people.

"We feel that the presence of the Los Angeles police is a protective one," said one of the participants, voicing what seemed to be the prevailing opinion of the marchers.

Assembling on the corner of Figueroa and Second Streets at 1:30 p.m. on Easter Sunday, the demonstrators moved over to First Street and marched to City Hall. Singing strong-voiced spiritual songs and wielding various signs and placards, they arrived at the City Hall Plaza for a 3 p.m. rally.

The rally revolved around speakers, testimonies, and music, featuring the Rev. E. Hill of Mt. Zion Missionary Baptist Church in Watts, Bob Norton of Hollywood Presbyterian Church, the Watts Community Choir and the Salt Co. folk-rock musical group. Dr. Don Williams, pastor of the college department of Hollywood Presbyterian was Master of Ceremonies.

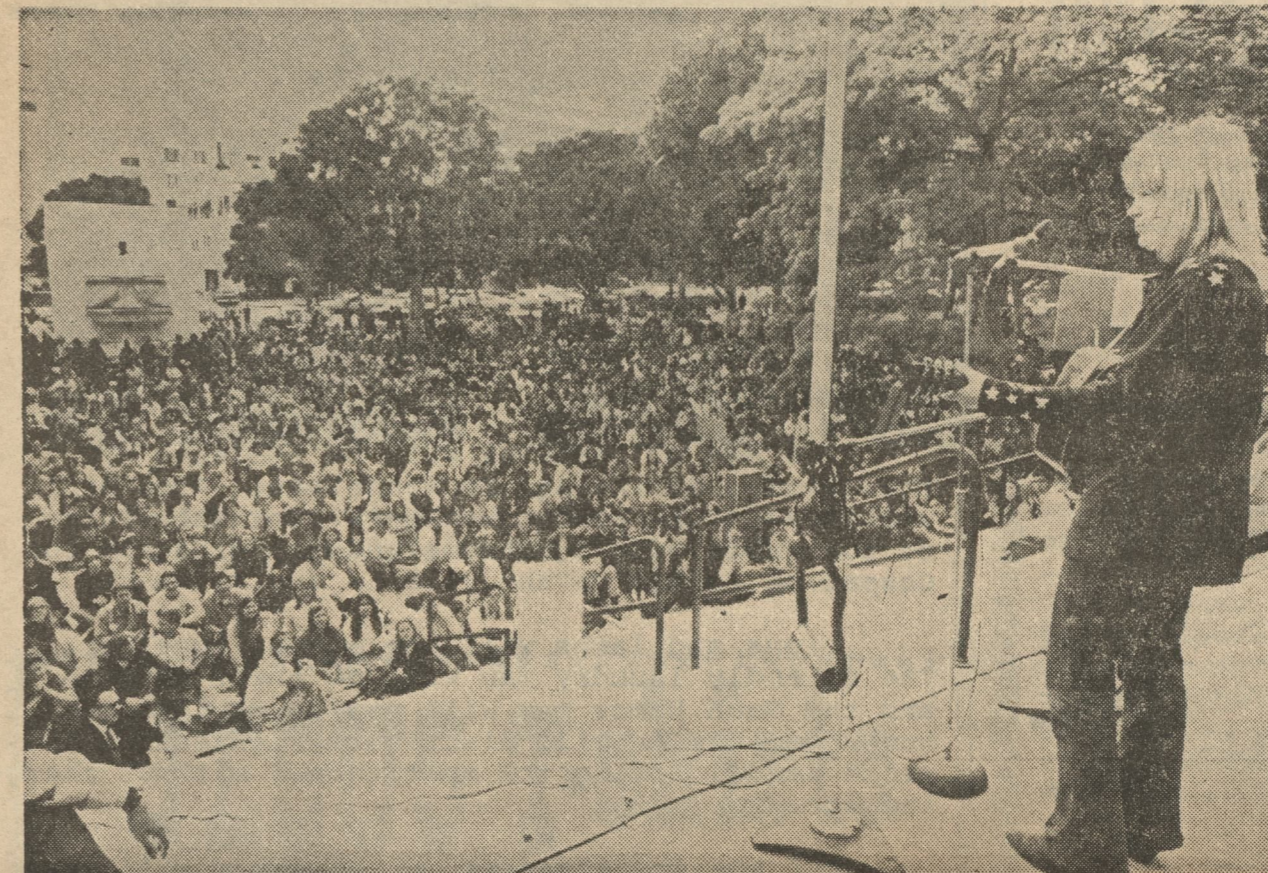

Although Christians of many different denominations participated, the main theme and purpose of the rally was to demonstrate unity in the love of Jesus Christ.

A pamphlet widely distributed at the meeting read: "We pray all Christians will respond to this call, no age limit, or denominational distinctives, for we are all members of one body and Christ is the head."

Asked if the march was a statement against negative demonstrations and "love ins", a young man who identified himself only as "a Christian" said, "The march and rally wasn't a statement against anything."

"We simply believe that a personal encounter with Jesus Christ will bring the peace we're all seeking... and is the only way to real love.

"This is why we're all here together. We each, individually, the majority of the people here, have had this personal encounter with God, and through it we have experienced this love in our own lives. We can show this personal relationship to the people around us, and this is the only purpose of our march."

Herald-Examiner photos by E. Bruce Howell

A member of the "Salt Co." folk-rock group, above, accompanies a gospel song on the guitar. He is standing on the steps of Los Angeles City Hall, where 8400 young people gathered on Easter Sunday afternoon for a "Resurrection Rally" reaffirming their faith in a risen Christ. The sign resting on the bottom step reads: "Messiah Jesus... He died for us... Was buried... Is alive."

"I could dance in the streets... just knowing Jesus loves me" reads a home-made sign carried in the Resurrection March on Los Angeles City Hall Easter Sunday afternoon. Some of the others read: "He lives," "Our God is risen and alive," "Help Christians Oppressed by Communists" and "Jesus Christ is the only begotten Son of God." Many of the young participants in the march are wearing head and arm bands with the word "Agape," a biblical word for love.

Jesus is coming again, "For the Lord Himself shall descend from Heaven with a shout, with the voice of the archangel, and with the trump of God: and the dead in Christ shall rise first: then we which are alive and remain shall be caught up together with them in the air: and so shall we ever be with the Lord." That's a fact!

After all that and seven years of curses and abominations (the tribulation period), culminating with the showdown at Armageddon Flats, there will be a big sign on the front gate of the world.... "no non-Christians allowed."

This will be the millennium, the time of the thousand years when Jesus Christ will have his rightful place in the driver's seat. If you want to picture the world as a giant, shiny green El Dorado Cadillac or a giant Greyhound touring bus that's exactly where Jesus will bein the driver's seat. When he drives into a gas station it will be to fill you up with the Holy Spirit!

The Age of Aquarius will be replaced by the dawning of the Age of Agape Love. You will see this in the restrooms where the handwriting on the walls will be Psalms and Proverbs and the Gospel of John.

Lions and lambs will bop around together. The friendly laundry man will do their woolens and the Good Humor man will really be in a good humor because he will distribute righteous ice cream sandwiches to the multitudes, without charging a cent.

All the cheerleaders in the world will start cheering Jesus and if the Rolling Stones ever get right with God by accepting His son, the Stones will cry out "Hosanna", "Praise God", and "Thank you Jesus."

It will be a time when bikers will beat their machines into pruning hooks and gang people will beat their switchblades into plowshares. Others who get their kicks out of hunting will put down their guns and get on their knees and thank God for every fish of the sea, fowl of the air and every living thing that moves upon the earth. These people will all get it on together singing that old Christian hymn about "I once was lost but now am found, was blind but now I see."

Sun worshippers will become really cool people when they turn to the son of God.

Get the picture? The closer Jesus gets the better you look. Praise His name!

Bikers...your brothers with Christ Patrol are daily gaining new members...this could be the bag you're looking for...you can check it out at 8116 Garvey Blvd., Rosemead.

There was an empty field, a few flowers growing, vacant, the hazy sun beating down. Along the curb a few cars drove up and parked, then more, all "saved cars." "I found peace in Jesus" plastered over the windows, "Jesus loves you" blocked on the doors. In a few minutes hundreds of people congregated upon the field! Signs were raised! Songs of glory were raised! Something was happening. The nearby hill was covered, swarming with people. The march had begun!

The angels must have wept and marveled at such a sight as this, likened unto an image of Jesus preaching on the hills of Galilee to the multitudes, or Jesus healing among the throngs, or feeding the 5 thousand.

Easter Sunday, March 29th may have been a day of Easter bonnets and patent shoes for most church-goers, but this Sunday saw Jesus people united together for the 2nd march for Jesus in the Los Angeles area. About 5000 Jesus people singing and carrying Jesus signs, such as "Jesus is my bag" (written on a paper bag)!, marched from Figueroa and 2nd right up to the very steps of City Hall.

Just as Jesus rose alive from the dead, rolled the grey rock away 19 hundred years ago in God's Power, the cold, cloudy colored City Hall, with a cryptic message by Cicero staring down, saw life: Jesus People alive in Jesus Spirit. It was as a scene perhaps right out of Heaven. All kinds of people- black, brown, yellow, and white, straight, hippy, poor and rich: a biker in the same crowd as a L.A. councilman-Jesus People fellowshipping: sharing words of love and encouragement, catching up on the various ministries in evidence that glorious Easter day. Hugs and kisses-greetings in the Spirit. Joyous Jubilee: songs by the Little Zion Baptist Church of Compton, Salt Company, Larry Norman, and Mike Morrow. Communication of how to get it together: Hollywood Free Paper, Right On, Rated X, Action, Mission Services and others.

Truly, if you are revolutionary for Jesus, a Jesus person, you were in the action, and in the know as to where it will be, to make this world ready for Jesus' second coming.

The purpose of this Resurrection March was to show the world there is yet another answer still untried by a majority of the people of the world: the religious, the rich, the poor, the intellectual, the career-minded, the pleasure seeker, the sickly, and the retired.

As Reverend Hill noted, "there is more truth written on the signs than in the entire public library!" The words of Life are in the best seller: the Bible- read it! As Bob Nortor put it- "Don't get caught up in the world's game and miss out on being ready to meet Jesus in the air!" As Hal Lindsey solemnly echoed- "He's coming Real Soon: Maranatha!"

JESUS CHRIST IS THE ONLY BEGOTTEN SON OF GOD

JESUS PEOPLE UNITE
GET IT TOGETHER
KEEP JESUS SPIRIT ALIVE

"The fields are white, ready for harvest, but the laborers are few."

WGA

God loves you and has the heaviest life style for you.

HIS LOVE:

"God loved the world so much that He gave His unique Son so that anyone who believes in Him shall not perish but have eternal life." John 3:16

HIS LIFE STYLE FOR YOU:

"No mere man has ever seen, heard or even imagined what wonderful things God has ready for those who love Him." I Corinthians 2:9

EVERY PERSON HAS GONE HIS OWN WAY RATHER THAN GOD'S AND IS SEPARATED FROM GOD. SO HE CANNOT KNOW GOD'S LOVE OR EXPERIENCE HIS LIFE-STYLE.

People were created to groove on God, but our stubborn selves caused us to go our way rather than His, so our contact with Him was broken.

"All have purposely done their own thing rather than God's; all fall short of God's ideal." Romans 3:23

SEPARATION FROM GOD:

"For the wages of going our way rather than God's is death." (spiritual separation from God) Romans 6:23
Some of the results of that separation are worry, irritability, and lack of purpose in life as well as the heavier things like murder and stealing.

A great chasm separates man and God. Man's best efforts to bridge this chasm—doing good, tripping out, meditating, religion, etc.—are not enough.

"When we put on the robes of our own righteousness, God sees them as filthy rags." Isaiah 64:6

Jesus Christ is God's bridge. He makes it possible for you to know God's love and have His life style.

"God showed His great love for us by sending Christ to die for us while we were still going our way rather than His." Romans 5:8

"Christ also suffered. He died once for the waywardness of all of us who were going our way rather than God's, although He Himself was innocent of any wrong at any time, that He might bring us to God." I Peter 3:18

"Jesus said, I am the way, the truth, and the life. No one can get to the Father except by means of me." John 14:6

When you receive Jesus Christ as liberator and leader, you will know God's love and have His life style.

"All who receive Him, He makes children of God. All they have to do is trust Him to liberate them." John 1:12

"I am standing at the door and constantly knocking. If anyone hears me calling and opens the door, I will come in and talk with him spirit to spirit." Revelation 3:20

Here's how it adds up:

1. God loves you and has the heaviest life style for you.
2. Every person has gone his own way and is separated from God, so he cannot know and experience God's love and life style.
3. Jesus Christ is God's bridge. He makes it possible for you to know God's love and have His life style.
4. When you receive Jesus Christ as liberator and leader, you will know God's love and have His life style.

You can receive Jesus Christ right now by asking Him. Just talk to Him spirit to spirit. He knows what you feel inside, so your words are not as important as your attitude. You might say something like:

"Dear Jesus, I know I have done wrong. I am willing to turn from going my way. I open the door of my life and receive you as my liberator and leader. Thank you for forgiving me. Take control of my life center. Make me the kind of person you want me to be."

If that expresses your desire, then just tell Him and He will come into your life as He promised.

"This is what God has said: That He has given us eternal life, and that this life is in His Son. So whoever has God's Son has life; whoever does not have His Son, does not have life. I have written this to you who believe in His Son so that you may know you have eternal life." I John 5:11-13

You are now a member of God's family and have many real brothers and sisters. Look for them, rap with them, and get to know them.

This will help you to know Him better and represent Him here:

1. Read His words and those of His children. I Peter 2:2
2. Talk with Him in every kind of situation. Philippians 4:6,7
3. Get together with other members of His family. Hebrews 10:25
4. Tell others about Him. Mark 5:19
5. Help other members of His family. Ephesians 4:29
