DEVIL'S DEVICES

There is great confusion today among many people concerning the operation of Satan and God in today's world. We need to look at our authority, the Scriptures, to get a clear picture of what is actually taking place.

Let it be known strong and clear that we as Christians are involved in a spiritual warfare. Being involved in this conflict it is important to understand what God has to say concerning our defense.

We need to understand "the wiles of the devil." Wiles refer to his tricks, devices and traps. All these are geared to implant thoughts in your mind to conform you to the world. The thrust of the world is conformity. This is why society many times is against the program of God. The purpose of the devils wiles are to make you become less than what God intends for you to be -- the Gospel always appeals to the whole man.

The marks of the Devils success in the soul of man is always confusion, chaos, discouragement, depression, fear and hostility. However, Christ has cancelled the bond which stood against us with its legal demands; this He set aside, nailing it to the cross. He disarmed the principalities and powers and made a public example of them in him. (Col. 2:14)

You see the devil is working in today's world to destroy humanity (both Christian and non-Christian). He tries to get us to waste our life in useless activity and attitudes.

Know this -- Christ Himself is our defense. His very life is the seed-bed of all that is true.

Here is our course of attack. So take up God's armor now! When the evil day comes you will be able to resist the enemy's attacks and after, fight to the end, you will still hold your ground.

So stand ready: have truth for a belt tight around your waist; put on righteousness for your breastplate, and the readiness to announce the Good News of peace as shoes for your feet. At all times carry faith as a shield with it you will be able to put out all the burning arrows shot by the Evil one. And accept salvation for a helmet, and the Word of God as the sword that the Spirit gives you. Do all this in prayer, asking for God's help -- Pray on every occasion, as the Spirit leads. For

EDITORIAL

We have received many questions requesting Hollywood free Paper to take a stand. Everyone in an organization has varying opinions. We will give you our answer for each of your questions. That true integration, true equality can only be attained when all man turns his eyes off of their own self interest and finds the answer in something or someone greater than themselves. Jesus Christ is that answer. Christ shows us how much God loved us "For God so loved the world that he gave us his only begotten Son who so ever believes in him should not perish but have eternal life. For God did not send the Son into the world to Judge the world; but that the world should be saved through him. He who believes in him is not Judged; he who does not believe has been judged already, because he has not believed in the name of the only begotten son of God. And this judgement that the light is come into the world and men loved the darkness rather than the light for their deeds were evil. (John 3:16-19)

If man follows the teaching of Jesus there would be no need for desegregation by busing. Busing cannot be the only answer, man must learn to respect each other. Christ called man to one commandment, "A new commandment I give to you, that you love one another even as I have loved you" (John 13:34). That may mean more that standing up for the rights of others, "Greater love has no one than this, that one lay down his life for his friends", John 15:13). If man is willing to believe in each other enough to die for that belief, then he will be ready to serve. Christ calls us to "Do nothing from selfishness or empty conceit but with humility of mind let each of you regard one another as more important than himself." (Philippians 2:3) That doesn't call us to a false humility or a false nobility either. That calls all man to treasure and respect each life, to try in truth to build up one another. Not to tear down or to search out someone less than ourselves to build up our own ego, or the worlds opinion of ourself. Segregation comes about because of mans inability to see the beauty of all creation. Our society is built on so much of a competitive level. If all man would accept that God loves each of us equally there would be no segregation. To be more encompassing there would be no wars, hate, militant groups, racism, United Nations, or any other group having to keep peace or to fight to find it. Christ goes on to teach, "Do not merely look out for your own personal interest but for the interests of others" (Philippians 2:4)

Peace real peace can only be found through Christ. And true integration when all man realizes the unity that Jesus died for, that ALL MAN IS ONE. That 2,000 years ago Christ died on a cross to take away the hate bitterness, disunity and sins of the world. Of each man individually. Not the "racists" or the "radicals" or the "conservatives" because there the one's who need it; but all man. First the individual. Christ called us to oneness, "There is one body and one Spirit, one Lord, one faith, one baptism one God and Father of all who is over all and through all and in all" (Ephesians 4:4-6)

You ask how integration can best be attained. I'll tell you there is only one way. No other, when man realizes he is one and stops fighting God, he will stop fighting each other. I cannot say the militant groups are totally wrong, because they have been oppressed for so long. But what I would personally say to them is what Christ says "When you shall know the truth, the truth shall set you free" (John 8:32) Jesus Christ is the truth. Dis-unity is sin, the sin, that is striving for less than God wants for us. "Jesus answered, truly truly I say to you that everyone who commits sin is the slave of sin. And the slave does not remain in the house forever, the son does remain forever. If therefore the son shall make you free you shall be free indeed". (John 8:34-36) Freedom, our only freedom, can be found through truth. Jesus Christ is the only man who says "I am the way, the truth and the life. No man comes to the father but through me." (John 14:6)

This article may sound like an evasion of your questions. It is not, because for us there is only ONE answer and one unity. That which we are born to, through Christ. All are given the chance to find for ourselves. Man does have the choice to search and try to find the answers in himself, but he never will. Because that only leads to competition, to proving one man, one style of life, one country, one color is better than another. It won't work, because man is selfish. Only through God can we care about someone else. Only through Jesus Christ do we dare.

Man is human and that's why we fail. That is why you even need to ask such questions. Man has failed each other and there is dis-unity. Looking at life and man honestly, he cannot get away from himself and human battles will continue. We have found the answer.

LETTER

Dear Free Paper,

I noticed in your last issue that you had a small item about girls in trouble to call Booth Memorial Hospital. I was just there for the past four months, and let me tell you, its really a far out place. A lot of Jesus People there. Do you think that you could put a bigger item about it in the paper sometime? Being an unwed mother's a bigger problem than most people think. Most girls are pretty mixed up about which way to turn. But at Booth the Spirit really moves. More Jesus girls should know about it! It happens to them too!

Thanks ----

Jesus said unto her, I am the resurrection, and the life: he that believeth in me, though he were dead, yet shall he live: and whosoever liveth and believeth in me shall never die. Jn. 11:25,26

CHANGES

The entire world is begging for change. In a world where 3/4 of the total population goes to bed hungry we yell for more food and better living conditions. We want an end to war and poverty. We want to stop pollution. We want peace at home and abroad. But how do you change the existing world toward the better? One group will tell you to go through the existing channels for change- like courts, petitions to congressmen and voting. Another group will tell you that going through those channels either takes too long or no one will really listen to you there anyway. So they say you have to tear down those channels and start over, in other words, destroy the system! Yet, another group will agree that no one will listen any way and say that destroying doesn't accomplish anything, so it's hopeless!

Maybe, in a way, you sometimes feel it's hopeless. But think about this: a rundown ghetto or a starving child is just a symptom of the real disease. You wouldn't try to stop a cold by just plugging up your nose, because a runny nose is just a symptom of a cold. To stop a cold you must cure its cause - the disease within you. The trouble with the world is that its problems are caused by people -- because of their hatreds, prejudice, selfishness and greed. Ghettos and starving children are just the end results of the diseases within human hearts. So, evidently, if you're going to change society, you'll have to start with people.

But you say "I can't change other people. Many times I can't even seem to change myself!" I agree! You can't change other people. But just as most diseases in your body can be cured with the proper treatment, so can the human heart be cured of its selfish tendencies. Only one person in history ever claimed to have the cure for general distribution which would not entail people trying to remake themselves: his name is Jesus Christ. His cure, he claimed, was the fact that he could bring you into a personal relationship with God and through that relationship give you all the power necessary to conquer selfishness and set you free. He offers new lives changed lives through Himself and it's free of charge - yours for the asking.

here come da judge

Here come da judge! Here come da judge! He gives verdicts without any intention of being involved in any solutions.

"Now if you feel inclined to set yourself up as a judge of those who sin, let me assure you, whoever you are, that you are in no position to do so. For at whatever point you condemn others you automatically condemn yourself, since you, the judge, commit the same sins. God's judgement, we know, is utterly impartial in its action against such evildoers. What makes you think that you, who so readily judge the sins of others, can consider yourself beyond the judgement of God?" Romans 2:1-3.

Boo! Hiss! Exit: the judge.

Here come da discerner! Here come da discerner! He distinguishes and investigates.

Praise the Lord!

At what point does a sincere concern for any other dude become a judging of him? How does judgment differ from discernment?

1. Judgment accepts hearsay at face value and forms opinions of motives on a few known factors. "The simple believeth every word: but the prudent man looketh well to his going" says Proverbs 14:15. Discernment asks questions until all important factors are understood. "It is the . . . honor of persons to serch out a matter" (Porverbs 25:2).

2. Judgment openly shares conclusions with those not related to the solution of the problem "He that answereth a matter before he heareth it, it is folly and shame unto him" (Proverbs 18:13). Discernment studies all important factors to discover root causes for the present problem. "He shall not judge after the sight of his eyes, neither reprove after the hearing of his ears:" (Isaiah 11:3).

3. Judgment avoids personal self-evaluation by projecting hostility toward the offender and his offense. Discernment looks for a comparable problem in personal experience. "... who comforteth us in all our tribulation, that we may be able to comfort them which are in any trouble, by the comfort wherewith we ourselves are comforted of God.

4. Judgment has not yet overcome the same personal problem. Discernment carefully reviews the steps taken to overcome a similar problem.

5. Judgment fails to differentiate between the sin and the sinner and, therefore, reflects a rejection of both. Discernment accepts the offender as he is and waits the right opportunity to approach the problem.

6. Judgment tells a person where he has been wrong with out providing direction for a solution Discernment gains the confidence of the one in need then shares the steps taken to overcome a similar problem.

7. Judgment reminds God of the shortcomings of the offender. Discernment assumes the responsibility for restoration.

GET SEXUALLY LIBERATED!

Sex should be a super far-out experience. Sex is something which EVERYBODY digs. Every man needs a woman. Every woman needs a man. We can't make it by ourselves. A man's sex drive proves that he isn't complete in himself. He NEEDS somebody else.

Mick Jagger sang "I can't get no satisfaction." That's our problem. We can't get no satisfaction. We play around with all kinds of lovers but we get no satisfaction.

Because for a man and a woman sex is a SPIRITUAL thing. You can't really groove on sex unless you groove spiritually with your lover. That means that your woman LOVES you, and your man CHERISHES you.

Sex for human beings is much more than it is for animals. For a man and a woman sex is the ULTIMATE TRIP they can take together. It isn't just for producing children. Children are the flower of the Oneness which you and your man have in sexual ecstasy! Jesus said:

"In the beginning the Creator made them male and female, and said, For this reason a man will leave his father and mother and unite with his wife, and the two will become one."

When you and your man get together spiritually in the love of God, you aren't two people anymore - YOU ARE ONE PERSON. This is when you experience real sexual ecstasy - SUPERSEX!

Love says "I can give satisfaction." When you really love your man you want to satisfy him sexually. This is real SEXUAL FREEDOM. Sexual freedom doesn't mean you are free to have a different man every night. It means you can be totally FREE to give yourself sexually to the man you've committed yourself to because you love him. You can really dig sex with him because you don't have any hangups about it! "Perfect love casts out fear."

God created sex to be the most beautiful experience on earth! But before we can really dig it we have to be turned on to him and his love. Otherwise sex just doesn't satisfy - you feel something missing. You're not complete. But if you are turned on to Jesus "you are complete in him" as the Bible says. He can satisfy your soul just like sex satisfies your body. And you can't satisfy your sex needs until you satisfy your soul first!

That's why we need to have SPIRITUAL INTERCOURSE with Jesus. The Bible says "He who is united to the Lord becomes one spirit with him." This is the ultimate marriage. When you're joined up to Christ, the most terrific love vibrations flow through you. You can share this love energy with your man and really turn him on! Jesus said this:

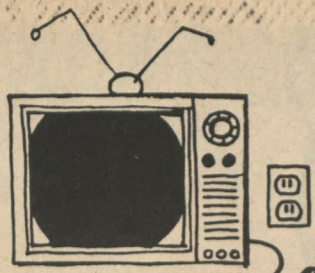

"Listen - I am standing at the door of your heart and constantly knocking. If anyone hears me calling and opens the door, I will come in to him and love him spirit to spirit."

Just like you take a lover, fall in love with Jesus. He'll free you from your old hangups and fill you with LOVE! Just say, "Jesus, come into my heart. I want YOU to satisfy me."

This is it man! This is real satisfaction! Don't you want somebody to love?

A STUDENT in a huge multiversity flunks out. Who cares? A white-collar worker in a towering office building goes bankrupt. Who cares? A punch-press operator in a sprawling factory dies in a rush-hour traffic accident. Who cares? A tenant in a modern high-rise apartment commits suicide. Who cares?

Depersonalization, estrangement, isolation, the lonely crowd--these are the terms that characterize our age. We play the role. We pretend that it doesn't matter. But inside we're alone, desperately alone.

We seek acceptance and identity in strange ways. We join street gangs, beatnik societies, bridge clubs, peace marches, protest groups, country clubs, service organizations, even churches. Yet we remain dissatisfied, unfulfilled, unloved.

Beneath our thin façade of sophistication we battle disconcerting doubts, haunting fears, and crippling anxieties. Silently we cry out for someone who will listen, who will understand, who will care. Many of us conclude with the Psalmist of old, I look to the right and watch, but there is none who takes notice of me; no refuge remains to me, no man cares for me.¹

Is there, then, anyone who cares? Is there perhaps someone beyond the world who cares? Is there even anybody out there? If there is, is it possible that He, the great infinite God of the universe, is even aware of the individual member of the species homo sapiens on His microscopic planet Earth, let alone concerned?

Jesus Christ--who, confessedly, must be a liar, a lunatic, a legend, or the truth--once asked, *What shall it profit a man, if he shall gain the whole world, and lose his own soul?*² He plainly implies, in other words, that the soul of one man outweighs the combined worth of all the world's treasures.

He asked, moreover, *Are not two sparrows sold for a penny? And not one of them will fall to the ground without your Father's will. But even the hairs of your head are all numbered. Fear not, therefore; you are of more value than many sparrows.*³ Not only is the God of the universe aware of us, He has numbered the hairs of our heads.

Jesus asked, finally, *What man of you, having a hundred sheep, if he has lost one of them, does not leave the ninety-nine in the wilderness, and go after the one which is lost, until he finds it? And when he has found it, he lays it on his shoulders, rejoicing. And when he comes home, he calls together his friends and his neighbors, saying to them, 'Rejoice with me, for I have found my sheep which was lost.' Even so, I tell you, there will be more joy in heaven over one sinner who repents than over ninety-nine [self-] righteous persons who need no repentance.*⁴

To God, the individual matters, matters so much that He gave his only begotten Son, that whoever believes in him should not perish but have eternal life.⁵ Jesus said, *I am the good shepherd; I know my own and my own know me, as the Father knows me and I know the Father; and I lay down my life for the sheep.*⁶

To become one of "his own" you must abandon the façade and admit you, too, are a lost sinner. You must repent of your sin, be willing to turn from it. You must ask Jesus Christ to become your Savior from sin. You must invite Him to become your Shepherd, and your Lord. You must ask Him to make you a child of the heavenly Father. You must believe that He will.

To deny God's ability or longing to meet your deepest needs is to deny the authority of His Son. It is to deny the unanimous testimony of His children down through the centuries.

To accept His offer of love is to find your hope for real peace and real assurance in this age of insecurity. To do so is to find authentic personal identity. It is to find a Friend who has said, *I will never fail you nor forsake you.*⁷

Who cares? God does. He sent His Son to die for you. He raised His Son to live in you. He brought this message to you.

*Cast all your anxieties on him, for he cares about you.*⁸

HIS WORK IS HONOURABLE AND GLORIOUS:
AND HIS RIGHTEOUSNESS
ENDURETH FOR EVER!

HE HATH MADE HIS WONDERFUL WORKS TO BE REMEMBERED: THE LORD IS GRACIOUS AND FULL OF
