FROM "PERFORMANCE WITH JAGGER" TO "PEACE WITH JESUS..."

James Fox 'hangs' film career for Jesus.

by Bob Anderson

James Fox is an actor. He's the one that recently co-starred with Mick Jagger in the movie, Performance. He also has starred in films like The Servant, King Rat and Thoroughly Modern Millie.

But, James Fox has had it with acting. He said that Performance would probably be his last flick.

You could probably think of a number of reasons why James is putting down his career. With the films he's done, he could really get it on with all the bread he's stored up. Like the newspapers have put it, he's led the life of a rich hippy. James said that at one time he spent half his life in all the "in" night clubs. But, he doesn't go anymore. All the things James turned-on to in his life just didn't make it.

He has cut out of the movie bag, he says, because he wants to have time to get to know Jesus.

In Performance he plays a London gangster that meets up with a pop star who's hung-up in himself, and together they rip through the film in a plot of violence and sensuality. The destructive content of this sex-drug film really started him to take a deeper look at himself and his whole life. For much of the film portrayed his own kind of life style. James says that he was completely involved in the more gross side of the film world and drug scene in London.

"I realized my life had no purpose...So I set out to turn over a new leaf. Memories of chapel at my public school came to me, and especially one verse of the Bible from those days- Matthew 11:28: "Come unto me, all ye who labor and are heavy-laden, and I will give you rest."... I'd been to the door of hell and had a look in and I hadn't liked what I saw. Surely God must have a solution somewhere?"

Finally one day his searching for the answer ended while he sat down to breakfast at a restaurant in Blackpool. There he met someone who told him Jesus Christ could give him a whole new life and the forgiveness of all his sins. After a few days of thinking it all over, James received Jesus as his Lord and Savior.

Later on, he really got the static from all his show-biz friends. They called him a "religious maniac." James says, "They reckon that Jesus Christ is just my latest "experience", but I know they are wrong. This is reality, not illusion."

James is busy now going to colleges and universities giving talks on "Why I Became a Christian". He's seen other Christians in show-biz make their jobs work for the Lord, but as for working right now, he says, "I'm waiting for God to show me...I've taken the decision to stop filming to try to get established in the Christian life."

JESUS SCOOPS THE Mahirishi by 2000 yrs.

by JERRY RECTOR

Today everywhere I have turned I have found people struggling; searching for existance; trying to get it together any way they can. Yet the world goes on, sinking deeper and deeper into despair while we sit back crying, "give peace a chance."

So where do we begin? How can we find true peace and purpose in life? The Bible says, "Jesus Himself is our way of peace," and that, God is the author of peace."

For three years Jesus traveled around His part of the world teaching peace and love. He really knew where it was at. In fact, He was so "in", the establishment rejected Him. Imagine what it must have been like. Rome was rising in power, a war-like society which ruled by force. And in the midst of all this comes a man with a message of peace and love. The churh thought He was a heretic, the government called Him a radical, but the people listened and they followed Him.

Jesus was cool; too cool as far as Caesar was concerned. He set out to stop Jesus, but by the time He got around to it, Jesus' teachings and philosophy were already tuned in with the people. That takes a smart man, not some middle class, materialistic dude out to make a name for himself.

So if Jesus really is the way to peace, as He proved during those three years, we should accept Him as liberator and leader.

The Mahirishi taught that in order to have world peace you must first have inner peace. Jesus can give you that inner peace. He did it two thousand years ago; He can do it today. He's got the heaviest life style for you.

Jesus is our liberator. Why not make Him yours?

FROM DRUGS to jesus

By JERRY LINGENFELTER

You have probably heard all the different stories about drugs, but sit down and think about this. Take a look at yourself and see if you see any of what happened to me, happening to you. If you do, then don't you think its about time to find something else? This is serious business with me.

It started when I wanted to drop-out-turn-on-tune-in, back in 1964. I was just like alot of you. The whole world was nothing but a big chaotic mess and I wanted no part of it, so I left home. I wanted to be free so California was where I was bound for. I split from Seattle and I found myself in Haight Ashbury. A movement was getting started and I told myself this is for me. I found a pad where I could crash each night and a few new friends.

After a few days we decided we would try some Acid with a Psylocybin Chaser which is really a combination. I had smoked grass for a year or so but I wanted to experience something new. It was new alright, in fact it was so new that when it hit me full force, I tried to kill myself. I looked down at my feet and they were gone, then the rest of me disappeared. I really got scared when I looked in the mirror and all I saw was my eyes. When the trip was over I found that my hands and legs were tied up. The people I was living with stopped me when I tried to kill myself.

My mind seemed to lose control in what it was thinking and soon with the help of any drug I was having really terrible flash backs. At first I could handle them, but they kept getting worse as each day passed. Soon my mind was one large trip that I thought I would never come back from.

Drugs seemed to be my world and after awhile I was selling drugs to anyone that wanted them. I sold to anybody and everybody. I was staying high so I didn't care what was going on around me. People getting killed for the drugs they had but I didn't care one bit. It really got old after awhile and I decided it was time to split back to Seattle to see what was happening with my family. It took me only 10 minutes to realize that my family didn't have any use for a drug user and that I wasn't wanted around the house any more. Well, that about did it, so it was off to California again; only this time everything blew up in front of me.

I got a job but it lasted about two weeks. I enrolled in school and after a few days it became a drag. The only thing to do was drop out once again. I was out of school about a month and I started stealing and soon I found myself in Texas under arrest and in the custody of the Federal Government. The next four years I spent in Prison. In 1969 I was paroled and after I had been out a couple of months I was settled down and married. Soon the problems started developing again. I jumped my parole and after being on the run for three months, I found myself once again in prison. Right then I decided I needed something, so I started going to church every week. Bible classes and rap sessions five nights a week starting.

After my studying I found I was really getting turned on. And it wasn't a drug induced high either, it was a spiritual high. I felt so good inside. My heart was opened up and I realized then that this Jesus was better than drugs. I soon started rap sessions and it was really beautiful.

I'm no longer married now because she found someone else. I am really happy for her because she is finally happy. Sure I'm single again and I'm still in Prison but what means anything to me now is Jesus and what He wants me to do with my life.

I may be getting out of prison next year 1972 and if I do I'll be telling people about what I found in Jesus. He has come into my heart to stay. I don't like having sand kicked in my face anymore than the next human being.

Hey Brothers and Sisters, look at yourself in the mirror. Do you like what you see? Or are you on your way into something you can't handle? Or are you accepting Jesus as I have and letting Him into your hearts? He's really beautiful, you know. Think about it and see what you come up with. I did.

It's going on two years since I found Jesus and He's here to stay. Now what are you going to do with your life?

THE STORY BEHIND "AMAZING GRACE"

EX-SLAVE TRADER WRITES #1 HIT.

by Bob ANDERSON

JUDY COLLINS

If ever there was a song written by an unlikely composer, Amazing Grace, Judy Collins current hit, has won the contest. John Newton, a sea captain's son, scratched down this song that was one day to become one of the world's favorite praise-God songs, and even make for one of the top hits on the record charts. Amazing Grace makes an interesting contrast with it's writer.

Newton, born in 1725, had an insecure childhood in the docks and streets of various strange cities. His hobby was keeping a foul mouth going and at the age of thirteen he could shock even some of the most burly, hard sailors.

Two times his father set him up for a good job, once in Spain, and once in Jamaica, but both times he blew it. By the time he was nineteen, his dad got him a position as midshipman, John shot that down the tubes, too.

So, our hit song writer kind of slid down the tubes into becoming a slave trader. But he didn't stop there; he ended up a slave himself. There he wasted his years off the coasts of Sierra Leone, living on roots while being persecuted by the captain's mistress who got her jollies by making men suffer.

His idea of humor was grossly making fun of Bible stories and mocking the charactors of them. Finally, one day he was rescued from his wretched situation by his father's friend and instead of being relieved and thankful, John's behavior even disgusted the guy who was saving him.

Newton didn't learn a whole lot from this adventure. In fact, he became a captain of a slave ship himself, and lived a life of war. He fought against rebellious slaves, against his crew, and most of all - against God.

It was really a bad trip all the way around. But John's love for books brightened up his darker moments. On the African sands he taught himself Euclid, and on the slave ship he learned Latin. Then he came across a copy of the religious writings of Thomas A. Kempis. The book set off an earthquake under the feet of John's crude atheism.

A terrible storm blew up one night in March 1748, which almost sank his ship. John Newton started seriously re-evaluating life and his personal views. A gradual change began to come over him. He started searching for truth and asking what life was all about. So, he gave up being a captain of the slave ship, became a tide surveyor in Liverpool, and there dug into studying other languages. And Newton made friends with many famous teachers like John Wesley.

John considered becoming a preacher and eventually he made it. The salty ex-sea captain in his blue jacket for clerical dress, ministered to a small starving town of 2,000. Though Newton wasn't an A-1 preacher, he really threw himself into his work. He had compassion for the men who looked to him for help in their struggles with temptation and sin. He could understand and sympathise with them because of the heavy-duty trip he'd been on. And it was at this point that he wrote Amazing Grace. He later went on, going from slave camp to slave camp, demonstrating against slavery.

As Newton himself wrote in one of his famous hymns, "God moves in a mysterious way..."

You know, maybe John Newton isn't such and unlikely guy to have written Amazing Grace. Maybe it's just the other way around. For history is full of untold thousands in whom like Newton, God's grace blasted through the weak wretchedness of their lives and made new men out of them. For where sin abounds, there the grace of God is greater. And God's strength is made perfect in our weakness. Look at the Apostle Paul. Look at John Newton. Look at yourself. Where are you at?

In all the world today, there is only one place a soul can really find rest, and that is in Jesus Christ. Rest in Jesus is something that many Brothers and Sisters have been robbed of by that father of lies, Satan. I could probably fill this whole paper talking of the beautiful inner peace and rest I've found in my Lord Jesus Christ.

Paul tells us in Hebrews Chp. 4: 1 & 2, "Let us fear lest a promise being left us of entering into His rest, any of you should seem to come short of it. For unto us was the gospel preached as well as unto them; but the word preached did not profit them, not being mixed with faith in them that heard it.

The rest is a walk of faith in a God that is more than capable of seeing you through any situation that may arise. Head knowledge is fine when the winds of tribulations are mild, but when they get heavy, it's only the faith in that knowledge that is going to keep all things calm inside: Anyone can have that rest when things are going good but you really find out how much your trusting in the Lord when your in the middle of a storm.

A real misconception today is thinking that the Baptism of the Holy Spirit is the rest, (not so), although the Holy Spirit is a real necessary part of our Christian walk. The real rest lies in a faith of the word of God. The Holy Spirit in a part of that but not all of it.

You can't talk about rest without talking about the grace of God. My Lord died for me, not so I would fear Him, or live in worry; or any of the other things Satan would have you believe, but He died for me so that I might be a son to Him whereby I can cry, Abba Father (Rom. 8:15). The grace of God is infinite as is His mercy, love and peace

If you have received that grace that saved your soul for all eternity, why not trust Him for your little stay on this planet; just trust Him, (Rom. 8:31) know He is for you and not against you, (as Satan would have you believe). (Rom. 8:1), You are no longer under any condemnation, (as Satan would have you think). Remember it's impossible to worry and to rest in Jesus at the same time, the choice is yours.

Jesus took all the worry, condemnation, fear, sins, and suffered on the ugly, beautiful cross so we wouldn't have to go through it. Rest in the finished work of Jesus ✠

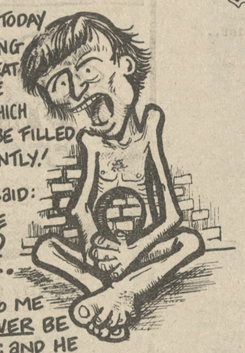
WANT TO KNOW HOW TO RECEIVE Living Bread?

1. ALL OF MANKIND TODAY IS STARVING WITH A GREAT BIG HOLE INSIDE WHICH CANNOT BE FILLED PERMANENTLY!

JESUS said: "I am the BREAD OF LIFE. He who comes to me will NEVER be HUNGRY; and He who believes in me will NEVER be THIRSTY!" JOHN 6:35



2. HOWEVER... TODAY, MEN (and women) ARE TRYING TO FILL THAT HOLE UP ON THE INSIDE WITH SUCH THINGS AS DRUGS, SEX, MUSIC, EDUCATION, CARS, BIKES, SPORTS, PSYCHIATRISTS, RELIGION, GOOD WORKS, etc.

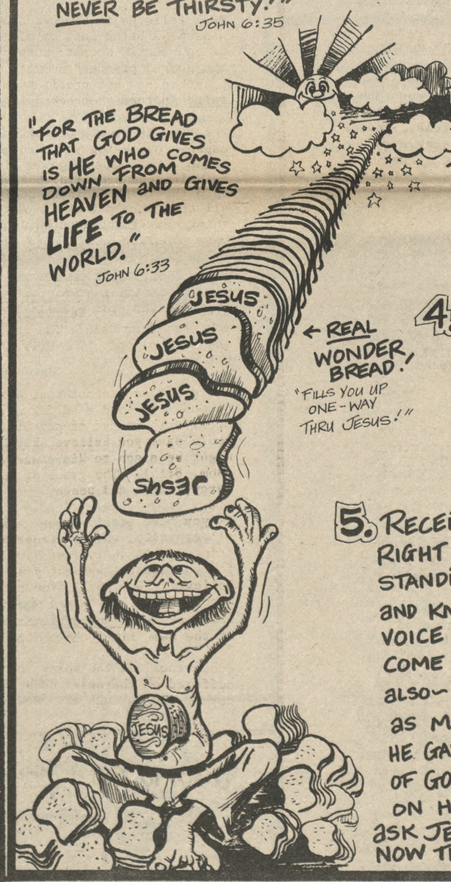
But they DON'T LAST! They DON'T SATISFY! You're STILL EMPTY when You're BY YOURSELF!

3. THAT EMPTY HOLE ON THE INSIDE IS THE RESULT OF SIN, WHICH IS SPIRITUAL SEPARATION FROM GOD... THE BIBLE SAYS: "FOR ALL HAVE SINNED, and COME SHORT OF THE GLORY OF GOD." ROMANS 3:23

"FOR THE WAGES OF SIN IS DEATH" ROMANS 6:23

TRYING TO FILL THAT HOLE ON THE INSIDE WITH SEX, DRUGS, RELIGION, ETC. IS SIN— BECAUSE IT DOESN'T LAST... DOESN'T SATISFY!

"FOR THE BREAD THAT GOD GIVES IS HE WHO COMES DOWN FROM HEAVEN and GIVES LIFE TO THE WORLD." JOHN 6:33



4. JESUS CHRIST IS GOD'S ONLY PROVISION FOR MAN'S SIN... "HE SAID, "I AM THE WAY, THE TRUTH, AND THE LIFE... NO MAN COMES UNTO GOD EXCEPT BY ME." JOHN 14:6

5. RECEIVE HIM INTO YOUR LIFE RIGHT NOW— JESUS SAYS: "I'M STANDING AT THE DOOR (of your heart) and KNOCKING... IF ANY MAN HEARS MY VOICE and OPENS THE DOOR, I WILL COME INTO HIM..." REV. 3:20

also— THE BIBLE PROMISES: "BUT TO as MANY as RECEIVED HIM, TO THEM HE GAVE THE RIGHT TO BECOME CHILDREN OF GOD, EVEN TO THEM THAT BELIEVE ON HIS NAME." JOHN 1:12

Dear friends in Jesus, our Savior,

I have heard about the "Jesus-revolution" in the radio of Norway and in a Christian News-paper here in Norway.

I should want, faith and prayer for a "Jesus-revolution" also here in Norway. We need it. All of us need Christ and the Holy Spirit.

God bless you all.

I hope to hear from you as soon as possible.

Forgive the bad language. Hope you understand it.

Dear H.F.P.

Please let my letter be printed in your paper, as to give me one more chance to rid myself of the loneliness that does not pass on like the pages of yesterday, that persist in my incarceration in a California State Prison. I would like very much to correspond with that someone who cares about more than just themselves, someone who wants to do more than just accept that there are many millions of people in the world who are lonely.

A man in prison who has no family, no wife, and because of the duration of time, all those friends have gone, he lives a lonely night and a wreckless day that makes each day a less appreciative day of life. There must be more to life than the sadness I have known for so long. Is there one person left in this world I live in who might care? If there is, show themselves to me by sending a letter, tell me the way to happiness and peace, tell me the way to free myself from the torment of loneliness in order that I'll not know any longer the sadness that has plagued my life.

I am a caucasian man who just turned 28 years old September the 1st. It would have been great to receive a birthday card, but what is another year to my life in prison? One that is forever lost, and one that could have been put to better use had I the guidence that the Lord meant for me, but I like so many people, pray every night and find no favorable results from it. Am I doing something wrong? Or will this letter be answered, thus proving that my prayers are not in vain?

Dear Jesus People,

It was just two months ago that I read your paper for the first time. Even though I am "straight" and over 30, I was impressed enough to distribute several copies to the young people of our streets here in Ashland.

Recently a near tragedy occured when two young girls from our church took some LSD that was contaminated with strychnine. The doctor said it was a miracle that they lived. We are praising the Lord for being present in the day of trouble. The girls were healed by the hand of Jesus Christ.

The drug scene in our little college town is getting to be very serious. The girls I mentioned got their LSD from a house just a block from my home. A few days ago the police took several hundred dollars worth of drugs from a house only two doors from us. Do I need to say how concerned we are?

I for one am ready to do what I can to see a real revival among young poeple of all kinds. I am ready to listen to anything you might suggest for our community.

Will you please send 100 copies of the HOLLYWOOD FREE PAPER, to my address? I know some young people who would like to help me give these papers away.

In Christ,

Dear Brother Duane,

Just read the article on student rights in the "Back to School" issue. Right on!

Enclosed are some Supreme Court decisions of import regarding (supporting) preaching, witnessing, and tract distribution as related to the 1st and 14th Amendment of the Constitution.

About two years ago in L.A. I had a court trial (by jury) as a result of an arrest while preaching. Praise God, nine were saved in the jail and the Lord Jesus won the trial for me after several days in court. I appreciate brothers like you who see the need for God's people to take a stand in love.

Dear Mr. Pederson,

I've read your book "Jesus People" and I think it's really far-out. I'm 14 and for once I've read a book that tells the facts and doesn't dodge around them. Sunday I went to Calvary Chapel in Costa Mesa and found something really exciting. No matter how everyone looked or was dressed all they cared about was worshiping God.

There's a place in Pomona called Green Pastures. It's just like a big beautiful heaven where everyone goes. I call it heaven cause everyone is happy no matter how they look. It's really beautiful and so are you. I've found something from reading this book that I've been looking for, for quite some time.

Thanks,

Kaye Byer

Brothers and Sisters,

I'm writing you because I just read the Free Paper I got Sunday in church and I read the testimonies by the brothers and sisters. I was interested in them and then read the part of the "Living Waters" and then it said for more info. write to you, so here I am writing.

I received Jesus as my personal Savior and liberator and I am interested in learning more about Him. Right now I am doing some time in an institution and we get the Free Paper here. It's a bummer being locked up, but now that I have accepted Jesus in my life it isn't too much of a bum trip. I got busted for drugs and that was a bummer because I was getting down low on them and I wasn't having fun taking them as I did when I first started. But, I asked Jesus to help me and I knew He would.

I would like to have a subscription of the Free Paper, but I have no bread, but I'll be going to my pad in two months and plan on having a subscription then.

Please send the info. on Jesus as my liberator.
Thank you.

Dear Jesus People,

I fixed my eyes on your ad and decided that it was what I was looking for! Hallelujah!

I'm a turned off hippie who has turned on to "Jesus our Lord." Even though our town is small, it needs a very deep movement. So many of my friends are on dope or making the weekend drunk.

There is only a very small minority of us that are Jesus People, and we don't have the music or knowledge to really move.

I want to learn more of God and the Bible, but I'd like to have other brothers and sisters helping also. . have rapped with my friends and they are interested in God, but they are afraid they will be turning square. I can feel they want to turn on to God, but I feel the only thing that will attract them is a "Festival of God," where all can gather together in internal peace.

If at all possible, the invitation is open and deeply appreciated. Please help and please pray.

Yours in Christ,

P.S. Waxahachie Needs you!

To all brothers and sisters in Christ,

Many say, "God is a wonder", but I say, " God's love is wonderful."

I have learned that Jesus can fill all of the missing parts in your life and pull you back together from sins. Jesus gives you knowledge and wisdom, and give you love for everyone, your mom, dad, your brothers and sisters, all colors and sizes.

But all I can say is "Praise God, thank you Jesus, wow Jesus loves all."

Since Jesus came into my life, I can't stop praising God! I've also got love in my heart for everyone, Praise God! I want you to know that I will still pray that your work will grow and that the Holy Spirit will touch everyone on earth. I will still tell everyone that "Jesus loves you" with God's grace and love I close for now. May God be with you always.

Your sister in Christ,

Jon Pritchett

arthur BLESSIT RAPS TO New Yorkers in Times Square ABOUT JESUS.

I just emerged from the womb
in my mind
I took my first breath and cried at the wonder of Jesus who delivered me from the developement of my own selfish thoughts

To landy paths
I walk away
from sitting in my problems
All grass is flesh
I am vain
but quiet waters
still my soul
Miracle peace becomes my contentment
As God loves me
in everything I see Colors never spoke until
I heard Jesus
O Lord may your sweet winds sweep my love to heaven

I just looked at a beautiful moth
He amazed me with his little fury body
We starred at each other for a moment
Then he freely fluttered his powdered wings
I saw browns and yellows unfold
He amazed me with those big eyes

He's gone noe
I'm laying in clover patches
Grass grows around the bees
But I can still see the moth in my mind
Never can he eat holes in my garments
Never will he touch my treasure in heaven

I used to envy creatures of flight
Like David, I longed to be a dove
So I could fly away from the tempests
Now I ride the wings of cherubs with Jesus
I can fly--high

A spider just walked across my open Bible
All eight legs scurried his fat self along
I used to be afraid of crawly spiders
Solomon tells me they spin webs in kingly palaces
So small, they work hard though often crushed
I feel like a small spider to God --
Crushed in poisonous pride and selfishness
But He allows me to spin in His Palace

Nature is a mirror where I see myself
God illustrates love in the life I cannot define
How great, how detailed is my Lord
I declare Him unashamedly
O Sleeping eyes -- be opened and know the depth of what you see!

Peace

by bob anderson

"Peace I leave with you; My own peace I give unto you. I do not give it as the world does. Do not let your heart be troubled, neither let it be afraid." -Jesus

When was the last time you sat in the middle of a hurricane? Not too many of us have had the kicks of doing that. But if you had, you would have noticed a freaky thing. Right smack dab in the middle there of that hurricane, the wind is totally still. All is at rest. You could actually be sitting there sipping a 7-Up while reading this paper and the pages would hardly be rustling. Yet on the outside, amidst inky-black clouds of thunder, all kinds of junk and debris would be thrashed, and wizzing around in howling winds of up to 150 mph.

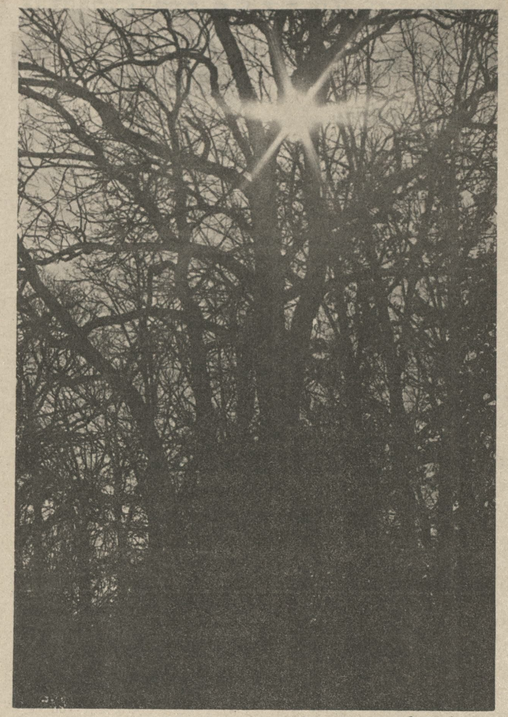
What does Jesus mean when He says that He gives peace unlike the world gives? What peace does the world give? The word is plastic. It's all surface stuff. And that's the snag. What counts is the inside. That's where you are. And this world is a hurricane!

Christ said that whoever would believe on Him, out of his inner most being would flow rivers of living water. That's how far God is concerned with you - to your very inner most being. Because when people say "Jesus saves", they aren't kidding! Sometimes Bible teachers will refer to the Greek words that the Bible was originally written in for a real clear illustration of what a verse means. A Greek word that refers to Christ's making us whole is 'diasozo'. It means saved 'through and through'. Thoroughly! Peace from within your very core!

And this peace is an all around thing, too. It's peace with God, with other people, and peace within yourself as you live in this uptight world. We have peace with God because of what Jesus did on the cross. The Bible says that He has made 'peace through the blood of His cross' for us. That's the only way it can be. For the Bible says that '...without the shedding of blood, there can be no forgiveness of sins.'

We can have peace in ourselves because, for one thing, we know that we are right with God! That's a lot of sweat off your brow! But also because it's a fruit of the Spirit. Jesus gives us His Spirit to empower us and change us. As we abide in Him and He in us, the fruit grows. And the fruit of the Spirit is also love, which makes a good foundation for having peace with other people!

The Bible also promises those who trust in God that 'The peace of God, which passes all understanding, will keep our hearts and minds through Christ Jesus.' So when Christ says, 'Come unto me, all you that are weary and heavy laden, and I will give you rest'... He isn't talking about something like stretching out on a sofa after a weary day. He's offering a penetrating peace that will keep, though the world around us may be blowing apart!



That ye may be blameless and harmless, the sons of God, without rebuke, in the midst of a crooked and perverse nation, among whom ye shine as lights in the world.
Philippians 2:15

How Hit Songs Are Made:

"The love of money is the root of all evil; Some men in their passion for it have strayed from the faith." I Tim. 6:10

your bed's too short, your blanket's too narrow!

by dale yancy—

What are you resting on right now? I'm not asking you to describe your bed, whether it be traditional or water - but rather what is your life resting on? This is the question that Isaiah was asking the children of Israel because Israel was not resting in the Lord. Instead, the Children of Israel, as was their tendency, followed after seers, and prophets, saying, "tell us those things that we want to hear - those things that aren't offensive. Tell us those things that tickle our ears - even if they're lies." The Children of Israel were also getting drunk, even the priests and the prophets, and because of their drunkeness, the prophets were making errors in their visions, and the priests in their judgment. The Children of Israel were also swollen under the pride of their own knowledge and learning. Why, they didn't need Isaiah or his God - that's 'old-fashioned.' That was alright for our grandparents and ancestors, but we've acquired too much knowledge to believe in God - that's for the simple-minded people who need a 'crutch.' Sound familiar? Israel had discarded the precept-upon-precept, line - upon-line, here-a-little, and there-a-little form of teaching. This was the basis of all teaching. This was the way God had taught them, and was continuing to teach them through Isaiah. But the Israelites laughed and said: "Who can he teach? Send him back to kindergarten, let him teach the little ones. That's all he's good for." Children of Israel - your bed is too short, your blankets too narrow.

Are you resting on your own knowledge and learning? Are you trusting in the words of wisdom from some philosophy instructor or guru? If so, your bed is too short, your blankets too narrow.

Are you resting in the church? you say, "Why, I was confirmed, and baptized, and I spoke the vows -I'll be saved." When you spoke the vows, did you really give up the world? Did you really give up sin? If not, then, you're resting on 'broken vows' - your bed is too short, your blankets too narrow.

Are you resting in the knowledge that you received Christ five or ten years ago at the Billy Graham Crusade, or someone came up to you with a booklet containing four laws, and after going thru that booklet, you prayed to receive Christ, and now you're saved. That was five or ten years ago. What about now, today? Where's your experience with God today? Unless your past experience is carried over into the present, your bed is too short, your blankets too narrow.

If you're resting on the fact that God is too loving and merciful to condemn you to hell for not wanting Him, then your bed is too short, your blankets too narrow. Why should a loving God force Himself upon you when you don't want Him or His so-called Heaven. He'll allow you to make your own decision for Him or against Him. It wouldn't be too loving for God to force you to exist with Him in Heaven for eternity when you didn't want to have anything to do with Him while you were here on earth, would it? Because God is loving and just, you're free to make your own choice, but He'll hold you to it.

If you're resting on the possibility of 'living it up' right now, the way you want, and then receiving Christ right before you die - right before your last heart beat, just before that cold chill reaches your throat and you've breathed your last, "Oh Jesus, save me," how do you know you'll be sincere?

A study was made by a physician in England of 1,000 patients where the patients thought they were to die of some illness and they prayed to God to save them, and they said they gave their lives over to Jesus. Well, all 1,000 patients recovered, but only one continued in the Christian faith. Will you really be sincere, or will you just be seeking some fire insurance? Jesus doesn't look on your words, He looks on your heart - the motive behind those words.

In short, if you're resting on anything in life other than Jesus Christ as Savior and Lord, your bed is too short, money, education, sex, fame, revolution, politics, philosophy, psychiatry, and church, etc, are not going to save your soul and bring you into a oneness with God and peace of mind. Only Jesus claimed to deliver those goods, all in one package - Himself, by dying on that cross 2,000 years ago for your sins and mine. And, today, in 1971 it is by His blood that we are cleansed and made righteous. If you are trusting in anything else such as your own morality, etc., then, your blanket's too narrow. It's not going to cover your sinful nature from the sight of God. When you get down to it, how do you stack morally, when compared with Jesus? How righteous are you alongside Jesus? He's God's measure for righteousness, and you've got to meet His standards to get into Heaven. But you say, " that's impossible!" Right- on - it is impossible. That's why we come to God and we are made righteous by the blood of Jesus Christ. If you're trying to cover your sins with anything but the blood of Jesus Christ, then - your blanket's too narrow and no doubt, your bed's too short!
