THE HILDA NEATBY PRIZE IN WOMEN'S HISTORY

The purpose of the Hilda Neatby Prize in Women's History, awarded since 1983 by the Canadian Committee on Women's History at the annual meeting of the Canadian Historical Association, is to encourage the publication of scholarly articles in women's history in Canadian journals and books. Any academic article published in Canada during 1991 and deemed to make an original and scholarly contribution to the field of women's history is eligible for nomination for the 1992 prize.

Send nominations, and 8 copies of the nominated article, before March 1, 1992 to the President of the Hilda Neatby Prize Committee:

Dr. Ruth Roach Pierson
OISE
252 Bloor Street West
Toronto, Ontario
M5S 1V6.

Erratum

José E. Igartua wishes to make the following corrections to the article by Gérard Bouchard, published in the Spring 1991 issue of the Newsletter:

- Gail Campbell is with the University of New Brunswick, not Mount St. Vincent.
- The list of Committee members should include Ian Winchester of the Ontario Institute for Studies in Education.
