Sophomores, Juniors and Seniors: Please take this Survey

Details: On Wednesday, Oct. 25, all Wofford sophomores, juniors and seniors received a request, via e-mail, to take Wofford's Campus Religious and Spiritual Climate Survey. The survey focuses on students' perceptions of Wofford's spiritual and religious climate, and takes about 20 minutes to complete. Those who complete the survey will be entered in a raffle for two Terrier Buck awards of $100.00, four awards of $50.00, and eight awards of $25.00. The e-mail address from which the survey was sent was postmaster@e-mail.studentvoice.com. We want to hear what you think! Please take the survey, and feel free to contact Drs. Trina Janiec Jones, Ellen Goldey, or Ron Robinson if you have any questions.

Date: November 2, 2011 at 8:58 AM
To: Wofford Staff WoffordStaff@Wofford.Edu

To All Faculty and Staff:
From: Lisa Ware

Fall Career Week will be held November 7 – 11. Faculty and staff are invited to attend any of the events (see schedule below), and we request your assistance in encouraging students to attend.

You may be particularly interested in attending one of the career luncheons/dinners. Alumni working in healthcare, business, law, and education will return to campus to talk to students about their career paths (plus, there's free food!). These are great education/networking opportunities for students. Also, please encourage any students considering graduate school to attend the Personal Statement Workshop led by Dr. John Miles. Finally, we hope you'll attend "How to: Deliver Effective Presentations" led by Scott Cochran. Learn the elements that will make your presentations engaging, persuasive and meaningful for your audience.

For details, visit <http://bit.ly/un67oc>. (You do not need to register to attend the events)

If you have questions, please contact Matt Hammett (hammettmk@wofford.edu) or Jennifer Dillenger (dillengerja@wofford.edu).

Thanks for your time, and we hope you can join us for any or all of these events!

Faculty TalkDate/Time: 11/3/2011 4:00:00 PMLocation: Montgomery Room, Burwell BuildingCost: FreeDetails: Dr. Cary R. Voeller, Department of English: 'Reform Culture, Masculinity, and Physical Disfigurement in Mark Twain's "Those Extraordinary Twins"' This talk will discuss Mark Twain's representation of 1840s American male reformers, representations often founded upon dominant masculine traits such as violence, self-reliance, and emotionlessness. In light of these dominant male figures, Twain utilizes a trope of disability—the conjoined twins—to ultimately envision an alternative reform (and American manhood) based on emotion, community, and gentleness.Contact: Alan D. Date/Time: 11/4/2011 4:30:00 PM

Date/Time: 11/7/2011 4:30:00 PM

Location: Martha Cloud Chapman Gallery

Cost: Free

Details: Dr. William O. Whetsell has established a fund in memory of his brother, Dan Whetsell, to enable a Wofford student to study some aspect of the visual arts, with the summer's study leading to an exhibition on the campus during the next school year. The 2011 Whetsell Fellow, Amy Horton, spent the summer working with the Spartanburg artist Isabel Forbes developing her skill in oils. The subject matter generally derives from Ms. Horton's study abroad in Spain during the spring semester of 2011. The exhibition will include several phases of the work leading to the final results. Please join us for the opening reception from 4:30-6:30 p.m. today, Friday, Nov. 4, in the Martha Cloud Chapman Gallery.

Preparations are in full swing for Wofford to be the host location for the next debate among the candidates for the Republican presidential nomination—and the first to be nationally televised on one of the big three traditional networks. The event is set for Saturday, November 12, beginning at 8:00 pm in Benjamin Johnson Arena.

Naturally, there is tremendous interest among students, faculty, staff, and friends of the college in attending the debate. However, understandably, the SC Republican Party controls the seats and ticket distribution for this event, and only a small allocation (approximately 200 out of an anticipated audience of 1,400) is being made available to the college. We will be making a substantial portion of our allotment available to students and employees through an online lottery system early next week. But please be advised that the demand for tickets will almost certainly far outstrip their availability. We will also make arrangements for an alternative campus location to watch the debate on Saturday evening.

Details will be provided early next week.

From: COL. Randy Hall, Director of Campus Safety
Re: Parking Information for November 4-12th

Many members of the staff are busy getting ready for Wofford to host the CBS/National Journal Republican Presidential Debate on campus on November 12th. We need your cooperation in creating space for CBS trucks and equipment.

Tonight Spartanburg High School will play Gaffney High School in Gibbs Stadium. After the game, the parking lot in front of the Richardson Building which some call the Verandah lot will be cleared of all vehicles. Students and employees are asked not to park there so trucks can move in and out of the lot.

By 11:00 pm this Sunday night (November 6th) the row closest to the Campus Life Building in the Campus Life Building parking lot which some people call the DuPre parking lot must be cleared. The College's vehicles normally parked there will be relocated. If you are to use a vehicle, please check with Ms. Anderson for its location.

CBS will be airing their morning news show on Friday and Saturday mornings from the mall behind Main Building. Therefore, the Horseshoe drive around the mall between Shipp and DuPre must be cleared of all vehicles by 5:00 pm on Wednesday (November 9th). Faculty and staff who normally park in the horseshoe will be allowed to park in Gibbs Stadium lot B on Thursday and Friday from 8:00 am-5:00 pm. Anyone needing an escort is asked to call Campus Safety at 864/597-4911.

The Campus Life Building/DuPre parking lot must be cleared of all vehicles by 5:00 pm on Thursday (November 10th). Patrons attending the Wofford Theatre on Thursday and Friday night may park in the lot if spaces are available around the media trucks. People needing an escort to or from the theatre are welcome to call Campus Safety at 864/597-4911.

Any vehicles not moved by the deadlines noted above will be towed at the owner's expense.

Thank you for helping Wofford make the CBS News Shows and the Debate successful.

Re: Campus Life Building

CBS crews are on campus and are working diligently to set up the Benjamin Johnson Arena for Saturday night's debate. To make the final preparations, we must close Zach's and Java City in the Campus Life Building on Friday, Nov. 11. On Friday, if you have class in the McMillan Theater, if you have an appointment in Student Affairs or with one of the faculty members in the Theatre Department, you may enter the building. Otherwise, we ask your cooperation in not entering the building on Friday or Saturday.

Thank you for your cooperation.

Date: November 8, 2011 at 4:13 PM
To: Wofford Students WoffordStudents@Wofford.Edu, Wofford Staff WoffordStaff@Wofford.Edu

To: All Wofford students and employees
From: David M. Beacham, Senior Vice President for Administration

As announced by President Dunlap to the campus community last Friday, a substantial portion of the small allotment of tickets provided to the college for the upcoming Republican Presidential Debate will be offered to Wofford students and employees through a lottery. To access the lottery, log into myWofford and look for the Debate Lottery graphic on the myWofford tab. The lottery is open for your one-time registration NOW, and will close at noon on Thursday, November 10. Those persons whose numbers are drawn for the available tickets will be notified shortly thereafter by email of their selection.

Prior to registering for the lottery, please be aware that if you are selected, you must plan to attend the event. The Debate begins at 8:00 pm on Saturday, November 12, in Benjamin Johnson Arena of the Campus Life Building. Due to security and national television considerations, all attendees will be required to be in their seats no later than 7:30 pm, so attendees will need to plan accordingly. This means that you need to be at security no later than 7:15. Please note that you will NOT be able to bring bags, water bottles, cameras etc. into the Debate. The Web coverage of the event extends until 9:30 pm (the television broadcast will conclude at 9:00), so attendees must remain in their seats until that time.

For those whose effort to obtain tickets to the Debate are unsuccessful, there will be a Debate viewing event in Leonard Auditorium for the campus community.

Dear Members of the Faculty and Staff:

I would like to call your attention to several exciting events happening on campus this week, Alpha Phi Omega National Service Week 2011. This year's theme is "Improving Nutrition and Exercise". The Wofford chapter of Alpha Phi Omega has worked hard to put together a schedule of fun, informative events, and I would encourage you all to check out this week's schedule and support our students in their endeavors.

I would especially like to highlight the Hub City Farmer's Market, which will be visiting our campus on Thursday. This is a great opportunity to not only support our students, but to support the community by buying fresh, locally-grown produce. Please contact Taylor Thomas at thomastm@email.wofford.edu with questions.

Schedule of Events for National Service Week, November 7-11

Wednesday, November 9:

- Speaker, Spartanburg Partners for Active Living. Lauren Ringo, Director of SPAL, will speak on healthy living, exercising, and cycling. This is a cultural event for freshmen. McMillan Theater, 7 PM. Free cups will be given out while supplies last!

Thursday, November 10:

- Hub City Farmer's Market. This mobile market will be on campus selling fresh, locally-grown fruits and veggies in front of Old Main from 11-1.
- Burwell will be sponsoring a healthy meal for lunch.
- Capture the Glow, a campus-wide nighttime capture the flag game in front of Old Main. Free glow sticks will be given to the first 50 participants. Lawn in front of Old Main, 8 PM.

Contemporary Challenges for U.S. Foreign Policy

Faculty Forum at Wofford College

Wednesday, November 9, 2011, 7 - 8:15 p.m.

Leonard Auditorium, Main Building

Moderator:

Byron McCane is the Chair and Albert C. Outler Professor of Religion. He was the recipient of Wofford's Philip Covington Award for Excellence in Teaching of Humanities and Social Science in 2008. McCane attended the University of Illinois and received his master of divinity from Trinity Evangelical Divinity School and his master of theology from Duke Divinity School. He received his Ph.D. from Duke University. McCane is considered one of the foremost experts in the burial customs of early Christianity and is the author of "Roll Back the Stone: Death and Burial in the World of Jesus." He has been an expert commentator for a variety of national television programs, including "Science of the Bible" in 2005 on the National Geographic Channel and "In the Footsteps of Jesus" in 2003 on the History Channel.

Panelists:

John Farrenkopf is an associate professor of government. He grew up in New Jersey and attended Trinity College in Hartford, Conn. He earned his master's in government at Georgetown University and his Ph.D. in foreign affairs at the University of Virginia. Farrenkopf also spent four years at the University of Munich in Germany as the recipient of two Fulbright and two Thyseen grants. His passion is studying world politics and history. Farrenkopf is in the process of completing his second book with the provisional title being "Imperial Twilight: the American Empire and the Decline of the West." His first scholarly work, "Prophet of Decline: Spengler's Philosophy of World History and Politics," was published in 2001.

Katerina Andrews is an associate professor of economics. She was born in Delaware, but her family moved to the suburban part of Athens, Greece, shortly after her birth. Andrews enrolled at the American College of Greece, where she received a B.S. degree in business administration. Upon graduation, Andrews returned to the U.S. and completed the M.B.A program at Delaware State University. Later, she received a Ph.D. in applied economics from Clemson University. During her five years at Clemson, she conducted research in the area of health economics and also taught statistics, microeconomics and macroeconomics to undergraduate students.

Clayton Whisnant is an associate professor of history. He received his B.A. from Rice University, and his M.A. and Ph.D. from the University of Texas Austin. Whisnant's graduate studies focused on European history in the 20th century, with a specialty in German history. He also has an interest in the study of gender and sexuality. Whisnant has taught at Wofford since the fall of 2001 and is currently working on his first book, titled "Between Persecution and Freedom: Homosexuality, Masculinity, and Family Politics in West Germany 1945-1969."

Laura Barbas Rhoden is an associate professor of foreign languages and the coordinator of the Spanish program. She received a B.A. in Spanish from the University of Georgia, an M.A. in Latin American studies and a Ph.D. in Spanish from Tulane University. Barbas Rhoden's areas of specialization and research are ecocritical approaches to literature; contemporary Latin American literature; central American literature; and community-based and service learning. She is the author of numerous articles on Central American literature and Latin American ecocriticism. She also has published a book, "Writing Women in Central America: Gender and the Fictionalization of History" (Ohio University Press, 2003), and has a second manuscript on ecocriticism near completion.

Race to the White House: Rhetoric and Democracy

Lecture and Panel at Wofford College

Friday, November 11, 2011, 3 - 5 p.m.

Leonard Auditorium, Main Building

Lecture:

James W. Ceaser is the Harry F. Byrd Professor of Politics at the University of Virginia. He received his Ph.D. in 1976 from Harvard University, and has held visiting professorships at Princeton, Oxford, Harvard, and seven other universities. He is the author or co-author of 15 books and more than 60 articles and book chapters on American politics and political thought, including a book length treatment of each of the past five American presidential elections.

One of the foremost political scientists working today, Ceaser is regarded among the founders of the field of American Political Development, which examines contemporary politics in light of the broad history of American political thought and institutions. His book, "Nature and History in American Political Development" (Harvard University Press, 2006), was the culmination of his 2004 Alexis de Tocqueville Lecture on American Politics at Harvard University, with critiques from prominent scholars Jack Rakove, Nancy Rosenbaum and Rogers Smith. "His Reconstructing America: The Symbol of America in Modern Thought" (Yale University Press, 1997) places contemporary American politics in the context of more than two centuries of European intellectual views of American exceptionalism.

Ceaser is a presidential appointee to the National Archives Commission and has served as a consultant for the American Bar Association's Committee on Elections. He has traveled on many occasions for the U.S. Department of State, advising on programs abroad for the study of American politics. He taught as a Fulbright scholar at the University of Basel and the University of Florence, and has received honorary doctorate degrees from the University of Bordeaux and Kenyon College, his alma mater.

Discussion:

Mark S. Byrnes' obsessive interest in politics and the presidency goes back to watching the Watergate hearings as a child. He has published "The Truman Years, 1945-1953" (Longman, 2000), and articles in Diplomacy and Statecraft and Presidential Studies Quarterly. He is currently researching the "Great Debate" over U.S. intervention in World War II. As associate professor of history at Wofford, his teaching interests range across American diplomatic history, the Cold War, and censorship and free speech. He is a prolific blogger at "The Past Isn't Past" [<http://byrnesms.blogspot.com/>].

Robert C. Jeffrey, professor of government at Wofford, has been a careful observer of American politics for more than 50 years. He has done graduate study in religious studies, philosophy, theology, American politics, literature, and political philosophy. At Wofford he teaches 12 different courses in American politics and political thought. He has used many of James Ceaser's books in courses since 1980. Named Wofford College Teacher of the Year for 2002-03, he is famous for his recommended readings, "Books and Sundries for my Students."

John D. Miles is assistant professor of English and the director of the Writing Center at Wofford. He teaches classes in writing, research, American and Native American literature, and American political rhetoric. He edited the volume "Teaching with Student Texts: Essays on an Informed Practice" (Utah State University Press, 2010). His current research includes Native American rhetoric, rhetorical theory, and student writing.

Kimberly A. Rostan is Assistant Professor of English at Wofford. Her teaching interests include African literature and the body politic, world literatures in English, literature of witnessing and human rights, fiction and trauma, African women writers, travel writing and ethics, and critical theory. Her current research focuses on Hannah Arendt's Speculative Witnessing in Eichmann in Jerusalem.

The CBS Evening News with Scott Pelley will be broadcast live, anchored by Scott Pelley, at 6:30 p.m. Friday from Wofford's campus. The broadcast will originate from the horseshoe area on the back side of Main Building, on the Evins Street side.

CBS political correspondent Jan Crawford also will be providing live reports from the same location during The Early Show on Friday and Saturday mornings, between 7 and 9 a.m. Also on set will be John Dickerson and Major Garrett of the National Journal.

The campus community is welcome to watch these broadcasts as long as they do not interfere with the production. While normal foot traffic around the area of Main Building will not be impeded during these broadcasts, there will be no provisions for an "audience" within the camera shot.

REMINDER

To: All Members of the Wofford Community
From: COL. Randy Hall, Director of Campus Safety
Re: Parking Information for November 10-12th

The Campus Life Building/DuPre parking lot must be cleared of all vehicles by 5:00 pm today (November 10th). Patrons attending the Wofford Theatre on Thursday and Friday night may park in the lot if spaces are available around the media trucks. People needing an escort to or from the theatre are welcome to call Campus Safety at 864/597-4911.

Students and employees who park in the Calvary Baptist Church parking lot on the corner of Church Street and Pearl Street must move their cars by 8:00 am Sunday morning.

Any vehicles not moved by the deadlines noted above will be towed at the owner's expense.

Thank you for helping Wofford make the CBS News Shows and the Debate successful.

5K race/walk to fund scholarship in memory of Karl Edward Alexander

The Kappa Sigma Fraternity at Wofford College will host the "5K for Karl" race/walk on Saturday, Nov. 19, 2011 at 9:30 AM on the Wofford College campus. The event is held in memory of Karl Edward Alexander, 19, vivacious young man and member of Kappa Sigma Fraternity, who passed away in 2010.

The 5K for Karl race is a moderate course showcasing the beauty of Wofford College, a national arboretum. The course has rolling hills on pavement and sidewalks. You can view the course on Map my Run or as a pdf file here. Packet pick up will be at 8:00 AM and the race will start at 9:30 AM.

The cost to enter is $20 per person, and 100% of the proceeds will go toward funding the Karl Alexander Memorial Scholarship to benefit a future Wofford student.

Awards will be presented to the top 3 overall male & female finishers as well as the top male and female finishers in each age group: Under 18; 18-22; 23-29; 30-39; 40-49; 50 and over.

Subject: MSG from Dr. Mathewson re Post-Debate Forum
Date: November 11, 2011 at 2:23 PM
To:

Dear Colleagues –

I will be moderating the third and final Faculty Forum centered on Saturday's Presidential Primary Debate. The forum will take place on Thursday of next week (the 17th) at 7pm in Leonard, and it will be a post-debate analysis of the candidates' discussion of foreign policy issues. Each panelist will play a brief clip from the debate and then offer a 5-7 minute response. We will have a lively and enthralling Q& A session after the panelists speak (a bold declaration, I know).

For the forum to work, we obviously require faculty with expertise in the various foreign policy issues to volunteer to be on the panel. Of course, we won't know until Saturday evening which foreign policy issues will actually be debated or what the candidates will actually say -- which means, of course, that we won't be able to assemble our faculty volunteers until after the debate is finished.

What we do know right now, however, is that if you are reading this email, you are a potential panelist, and I desperately want you to volunteer! (Except if the massively important foreign policy issue of Canada should arise during the debate; I have that expert response already prepared, and I shall deliver it to Thursday's audience wrapped in my giant Canadian flag.)

If a topic arises during the debate that you think you'd like to discuss on the panel, please do two things:

1. Make a note about when, during the debate, the candidate says something you'd like to discuss (i.e., Herman Cain at 8:35; or Mitt Romney at 8:41 and Rick Perry at 8:44). This information is extremely important!
2. Get in touch with me ASAP to let me know that you'd like to be on the panel, and please give me a very brief description of the foreign policy issue you wish to discuss.
3. I will then get back in touch with you with further details, but one thing that I will need you to do is sit down with Dave Whisnant for a few minutes on Monday or Tuesday. Dave has generously volunteered to create video clips of the moments in the debate that the faculty experts wish to play and discuss during the forum.

Thanks in advance for all of your help. I think this will be a very interesting and informative forum.

Dan

To: The Wofford Community
From: President Dunlap

Never did so few do so much for so many! Several hundred people here at Wofford performed Herculean tasks over the past several weeks to assure that thousands of people here on this campus and many millions across the nation would see the dazzling beauty and skills of Wofford College. Of those several hundred, a few dozen -- especially in Communications, Security, IT, Athletics, Housekeeping, Maintenance and Student Affairs -- worked tirelessly to show the college off at its very best. Coordinating the entire effort, Doug Gabbert deserves particular praise. But it was a team effort and a team success. Congratulations to everyone and endless thanks.

Re: Campus Emergency Alert System Change

Wofford has changed its Emergency Alert System to RAVE, replacing e2Campus.

All members of the campus community are automatically in the system with your Wofford email account. Student cell numbers that are available in Banner also have been registered. Please be sure to update your data in the new RAVE system to include all forms of emergency alert notification – text messaging (cell phones, PDAs, etc.) and email.

To update your information, go to my.Wofford.edu. Click the RAVE channel icon in the myWofford tab.

That will take you to a Terms of Use page. Once you accept the Terms of Use, you will be taken to your account, where you will be able to update your data (add or change telephone numbers, carriers, etc.).

Please log in as soon as possible so that your information is updated as quickly as possible.

Non-myWofford users (such as parents or spouses) may manually register by going to <https://www.getrave.com/login/wofford> and following the registration instructions.

If you have any problems accessing the site or making any changes to your account, or if you have questions about the system, please contact Laura Corbin at laura.corbin@wofford.edu.

From: President Dunlap

In recognition of all those who worked so tirelessly to make the presidential candidates' debate such a success, I urge all campus offices to let the Thanksgiving holiday begin at noon on Wednesday, November 23rd. Those offices that must maintain a skeleton staff should make provision to do so. Happy Thanksgiving to all!

Date: November 22, 2011 at 12:57 PM
To: Wofford Staff WoffordStaff@Wofford.Edu, Wofford Students WoffordStudents@Wofford.Edu

PLEASE DO NOT REPLY TO THIS EMAIL. If you have questions, please contact Randy Hall, director of Campus Safety at halljr@wofford.edu.

Wofford College
429 North Church Street
Spartanburg, South Carolina 29303-3663

To: Members of the Wofford College Community
From: J. Randy Hall, Director of Campus Safety
Date: November 22, 2011

Students and employees are asked not to park in the Shipp Hall and the DuPre Hall parking lots between 5:00 pm on Wednesday and 5:00 pm on Saturday. If the lots are cleared, the Physical Plant staff will be able to repaint the lines in the lots.

Students who are going to leave their vehicles on campus during the break are encouraged to park them in the lot behind Marsh Hall because we can control access to this lot.

Students are also reminded that it is illegal for them to use a handicapped parking permit that belongs to another person even if that person is a relative. The Campus Safety Department has been reminded that the College complies with all ADA regulations. Therefore, the officers will be checking handicap parking stickers next week. Please contact me if you have any questions about them.

Best wishes for a Happy Thanksgiving!

The Quintessential Cup is Seeking Designers for $100 Gift Card

Details: The Quintessential Cup is an idea for a new cup (Tervis Tumbler) that students can use for free refills at Zach's, Burwell, Phase V, and Basketball Concessions. This cup will help cut down on waste and promote sustainability. We are looking for designers to create a design that will wraparound the inside of this cup. Email me at didokds@email.wofford.edu for a template. You are limited to four colors. You have less than a week to get a preliminary sketch or final design to us. Students will vote for the best design at SI Deliverable Day on Tuesday Dec. 6, in the Campus Life Commons, and the winning designer will receive $100 Visa Gift Card. This design should be unique from any other cups sold on campus, it should incorporate various elements of Wofford, and you should take full advantage of the space allotted for the design. Designs are due as PDF or any standard image file by midnight on Saturday, Dec. 3, to the email address listed below.

Subject: MESSAGE FROM DR. RICHARDSON: Holiday contributions for Aramark employees
Date: November 29, 2011 at 11:23 AM
To:

This time of year it has become customary for the staff and faculty of Wofford to express our appreciation to those Aramark employees that serve us in the Burwell dining room. Ted Monroe and I will begin taking contributions this week to distribute to workers as a gesture of holiday cheer. Please seek us out before the last day of class (Dec. 9th) to make your contribution. Thanks.

Location: Off-campus build site (less than 5 minutes away)

Cost: Free

Details: Would you enjoy participating in some community service and taking your mind off of end of semester worries by doing some manual labor? If so, then you should participate in the Habitat for Humanity Build Project this weekend! You can work all day or you can pick to work during either the morning shift (8:30 a.m.-noon) or the afternoon shift (1-4 p.m.). No construction experience is required. If you would like to volunteer, please email Joseph McAbee.

Announcements

The Quintessential Cup is seeking designers for $100 Gift Card!

Details: The Quintessential Cup is an idea for a new cup (Tervis Tumbler) that students can use for free refills at Zach's, Burwell, Phase V, and Basketball Concessions. This cup will help cut down on waste and promote sustainability. We are looking for designers to create a design that will wraparound the inside of this cup. Email me at didokds@email.wofford.edu for a template. You are limited to four colors. You have less than a week to get a preliminary sketch or final design to us. Students will vote for the best design at SI Deliverable Day on Tuesday Dec. 6th in the Campus Life Commons, and the winning designer will receive $100 Visa Gift Card. This design should be unique from any other cups sold on campus, it should incorporate various elements of Wofford, and you should take full advantage of the space allotted for the design. Designs are due as PDF or any standard image file by midnight on Saturday, Dec. 3, to the email address listed below.

Angel Tree

Details: Dear faculty, staff, and students, It's that time of year again! Twin Towers is sponsoring an Angel Tree for disadvantaged youth in the Spartanburg area. This year, we have chosen SAFE Homes-Rape Crisis Coalition as our charity. You can help give the children who are affiliated with this organization an amazing Christmas. Making a Christmas wish come true is easy: 1. Stop by Campus Life and pick an angel from the tree. 2. Purchase a gift from your child's list. (Please make sure that the toy is new, the organization is not accepting used gifts.) 3. Drop off your gift (unwrapped with the child's name attached) in the workroom on the first floor of Old Main by Dec. 13. Help us put a smile on a deserving child's face this Christmas. Contact Meggan DeVeaux (deveauxmm@email.wofford.edu) if you have any questions or need more information. Happy Holidays! Twin Towers

Subject: IMPORTANT MESSAGE FROM CAMPUS SAFETY: Update on Emergency Notification from Tuesday
Date: November 30, 2011 at 2:14 PM
To: Wofford Students WoffordStudents@Wofford.Edu, Wofford Staff WoffordStaff@Wofford.Edu

To: Campus Community
From: Randy Hall, director of Campus Safety

Wofford College Campus Safety has investigated the report of a hold up on Monday night in the gravel lot on Evins Street.

It has been determined that no crime occurred on campus. The investigation has revealed that four Wofford students were robbed on Monday night at a location about two miles from campus.

The safety and security of our students, faculty and staff are paramount concerns. We urge you to take appropriate precautions both on and off campus. Should you encounter suspicious activities/persons or should you become a victim of a crime off campus, you should immediately contact the appropriate law enforcement agency by calling 911. If you are on campus, contact Campus Safety at 597-4911 or call 911.

We reiterate that you may request an escort by Campus Safety if you are walking alone on campus at night by calling 597-4911.
