Dear Brother

We have been getting your little paper each week since it started and have enjoyed it very much and gotten considerable information from it in regard to your worthy enterprise and the country in general down there. So thought would write you few lines & ask you few questions in regard to country. What would be about an average price per acre for small farms of from 20 to 60 acres around Gainsville say from 1 to 4 miles out. Is there very many negroes there is there many in the country outside the town. Do you think it is real healthy there.

How is the standard of morality at Gainsville & surrounding country - is it as good as Mo. Ky, or Tenn. Do you think a person could make it all right on small farm with family provided he practice industry & economy. Could you send me some literature with lists of farms for sale descriptions price etc. I have a nice letter home here in Mo. but am a delicate man & these long severe winters here are very hard on me and as I get older I have been thinking of going to a milder climate.

well will close for this time hoping to hear from you & also to know that you will be eminently successful in all you have undertaken at Gainesville

Yours sincerely
