In the Review article ‘Brachypodium distachyon: making hay with a wild grass’ by Magdalena Opanowicz, Philippe Vain, John Draper, David Parker, John H. Doonan, which was published in the April 2008 issue of Trends in Plant Science, the gene name ‘TFL’ was incorrectly written as ‘TLF’ in two places on page 176. The corrected sentence is:

“Overexpression of LpTFL1 or TFL1 in transgenic Brachypodium plants resulted in a significant delay in flowering compared with that in controls [47].” The authors apologize for any inconvenience this error has caused.
