San Francisco and Portland S. S. Co.

OFFICE OF S. S. Columbia Sept. 28, 1905

IN REPLY, PLEASE REFER TO NO.

My dear Professor Muir.

I am very much pleased to know that Helen is improving and hope, for your sake as well as her own, she will continue so and grow entirely well.

I wish I could prescribe for her with the same success as in your case. However, when she is again well and strong, I would recommend a trip on the Columbia, and I shall arrange matters with old ocean, and our esteemed friends the huge Leviathans, for a pleasant voyage.

Trusting this will find you in good health and confidence regarding Helen's speedy recovery I am

Yours very truly,

P. A. Moran
