

John Muir Correspondence (PDFs)

1906-01-01

Letter from John Turnbull to John Muir, [ca. 1906].

John Turnbull

Follow this and additional works at: <https://scholarlycommons.pacific.edu/muir-correspondence>

Recommended Citation

Turnbull, John, "Letter from John Turnbull to John Muir, [ca. 1906]." (1906). John Muir Correspondence (PDFs). 3619.

<https://scholarlycommons.pacific.edu/muir-correspondence/3619>

This Article is brought to you for free and open access by Scholarly Commons. It has been accepted for inclusion in John Muir Correspondence (PDFs) by an authorized administrator of Scholarly Commons. For more information, please contact mgibney@pacific.edu.

[Faint, mostly illegible handwritten text, likely bleed-through from the reverse side of the page.]

at North attracted by the Roman remains which have been discovered there. Stonehenge also formed part of the attraction. The mysterious work I visited and felt great interested or rather my interest was by no means diminished. When I saw the remains -

Another year I visited Iceland. The Lakes of Fielammy - a charming spot.
I fear however I tire
you. By the way I enclose two cards which please send to and give you a pair of the ball of the Laced. From Memorial I see you perhaps remember the Laced. In my inquiry with you to see as the of the view of Covid with Sir Walter Scott.

America is said to be a place of magnificent distances. I don't know how far you may be
from the scene of that terrible convulsion which overshadowed San Francisco but I have no doubt you are near enough to be appreciable and to feel the influence of such a catastrophe.

Excuse my rambling letter. If you can find time I shall be glad & pleased to have a letter in reply.

By the way I have a daughter married to a Mr Worm ^{Shick, Shaw, Pugh, Conroy} Montana.
If you are ever ^{that way} I was in your way what they would both be delighted if you would call upon them. With kindest regards from yours very truly John Lubbock

occasion I went south to Christmas and thence up the interior of the country by rail and boat probably over a hundred miles. I was attracted to this of reports that the almost pagan habits of the people were still ^{fast} retained but rapidly disappearing as the people were getting more in contact with the world outside.
I am somewhat of a wanderer. The year before last I visited Holland that quaint old country snatched from the sea. Last year I spent an enjoyable holiday