THE FATHER OF HIS COUNTRY LEFT THIS
TO HIS CHILDREN—stand by it.

Armington Heights
August 12th 1861

Gen Gardner

I received your letter last night and in answer will say that I should have sent the wool before this time if I could have got them shipped to the U.S. Col Roberts has gone after an officer to say he has not got back yet I have been putting them up to it every day since we come but they think it a little hard that we did not get any liberty the officers there say we are entitled to it if Roberts gets there in time to get the wool

COPY-RIGHT SECURED.

Into the mail to night you will get them the same time you do this letter

There is a new gun passed paying Lead or drum Major as the same as 2nd Lieutenant I want to know if I have got to papers showing the office if so send them or let me know something about it.

This Regiment is in rather bad shape there will be a hard time whether three months or about they say they shall stick around they are bound not to stay any longer they have been used here

I shall send the papers as soon as we get musters in you do not send them before that will be to day or to morrow I hope your mail is safe A. L. Hancock
