Dedication

To Bradford C. Welch. ' 35 and Donald L. Sullivan, ' 36
Who gave their all
And to all those others of Scarborough
Who are offering their all,
The Class of 1943 lovingly and humbly dedicate this issue of

THE FOUR CORNERS
"These laid the world away; poured out the red Sweet wine of youth; gave up the years to be Of work and joy, and that unhoped serene That men call age; and those who would have been, Their sons, they gave - their Immortality."

"A MOTHER"

Way is orer; night has fallen
Is she stands and dries her tears;
To her sons she is not calling,
The? have gone perhaps for years.

Dawn will come when night is oor,
All thru the lands sweet peace will reign;
Ind then the hearts of the world will soar,
$\mathcal{N e v e r}$ to be broken and torn again.

So till then, when light shall come,
She keeps the fires burning bright;
Low, now is the beating drum,
And high the courage through the night.
Jee Swinblene, '43.

DOING OUR PART

In the heart of every student at Scarboro High School lies a sincere desire to serve his country. We, the students, camot serve on the battlefield, but we can, and are, playing an important role on the home front. Some of the students have given time to the Observation l'ost on the high school roof: some have sewed for the Red Cross or enllected Scrap; some have helped Mrs. Libbey get out those newsy letters for the bors in the service at home and abroad. The Editorial Board feels that Tue Forn Comeres should serve, too. As a result, we are issuing this year an edition featuring Scarboro's Service Men.

This year we have included snapshots of our bors in uniform, quotes from the boss' letters, snapshots of "what our bors are fighting for," and an account of what we are doing about it. We invite sou to enjoy these pictures; read the letters from the bors; and thrill with pride at their accomplishments.

Although our school life has been altered. although we have had to give up some of the functions which have become traditional at S. H. S., such as the Thanksgiving presentation of the Senior play, you will find that we have not beeu idle. We, too, are in the scrap. With chins up, we face a future which claims eighteen-year-old boys and girls for armed service and defense industry.

TRAMP, TRAMP, TRAMP

Tramp, tramp, tramp, the bors are marching out of the Scuior Class, out of the Jumior Class and into the Serrice. When the call came for eighteen-year-olds. Uncle Sam found a great many still at "the little red schoolhouse." As Unele Sam has always been a bit on the benerolent side, some of the fellows may be deferred until they graduate. The call of the combre is strong and it isn't surprising if the shadow of a dive-bomber glides across the page of that open history book.

Now, we believe that if a high school education will make a student more useful to Uncle Sam, he should complete it. On the other hand, if he is just marking time, if those visions of planes, tanks and uniforms come so fast that they blot out the printed page, then he shouldn't waste time. He is needed in industry, for defense or for fighting. He must not shirk wherever he is.

NO LONGER THREE R'S

This year, in accordance with state recommendations, ten new courses have been added to our high school curriculum. When you read through this list, you can readily perceive their practicability: Pre-

Flight Aviation, Aviation Mathematies, Model Aireralt Progect for the Voiterl States Nave, Current Aviation (Behold our Flyers!), Shop Mathematies, Radio ('ommmications, Trigonometry, Physieal Fitness, Spanish and First dicl. These are courses which will be as practical in the future as they are at the present time.

Lame museles and poor posture are becoming things of the past becanse of our Victory courses in I'hysical Fituess. After a work-out in these courses, we should be realy for labor in industry, on farms, or in the Armed Forees.

First did is a colurse which everyone enjors and finds practical. "The immediate, temporary treatment given in case of aceident or sudden illness before the services of a physician can be secured" can now be administered by a majority of our students.

On the practical and cultural side, we have first-year Spanish. In studying this we hope to open the door of friendship with our neighbors in the South. The United States expects a closer relationship in the future, both in industrial and social affairs, so we're plaming to get acquainted. We want to say "Saludos Amigos," too.

In order to arrange for these additional subjects, in a curriculum that still offers college and general courses, we have returned to the stationary schedule, more periods each day. Everyone works harder, of course, THIS IS WAR!

THE CURE FOR A NEW DISEASE

Hoarding is a discase which has spread all over the country. Although it is neither contagious nor infections, it is dangerous and threatens human lives.

To eat or not to cat is no longer the question, because Uncle Sam has taken a hand.

He has the cure for this disease, rationing. Everyone has become familiar with the term, rationing, within the last year, but did you know that rationing began with the Pilgrims? They had seant supplies for that first winter, so they planned aliead and shared with cach other. Rationing is even more essential in these times. We have many starving people in forcign countries dependent upon us for life, itself. We have an army to feed, and if it is to do its job effectively, it must be well-fed. We may eomplain about griving up coffee, or sugar, or gas, but we are not asked to give an arm, or a leg, or our life. The rubber raft repaid a thousundfold the loss of that vacation momntain trip, when it saved men like Rickenbacker.

Rationing is new to us; new things hare their fanlts, but as time goes on we shall all be more grateful for this fair sharing of prized commodities.

IT'S UP TO US

Many of our high school students have friends or relatives in the Armed Forces of our country. Needless to say we all want to do our part to win the war so they may come back to us soon.

Even a high school student can aid in this effort by being, "The Man Behind The Man Behind The Gun." This summer there will be literally thousands of positions open to high school boys and girls. Some of these jobs may not be glamorous, but is that of the street cleaner, or the soldier on the battlefield? Yet these jobs are important to the welfare of mankind.

Here is a challenge: Will you take the job devoid of glamour but essential for Victory? Will you ask yourself, "Where can I serve best?"

(Extracts from our service men's letters) Dear Folh:s:

Wedl, I'm in the Army new, and having a swell time . . . Imagine your insignitieant Kid bunking in one of the swankiest hotels in Miami Beach . . . Had a swell Christmas dimer of turkey and fixins' but no good old Maine snow . . . Lay on the beach Xmas afternoon and got a sice rich tan . . . On the way down here I saw grand houses and also living conditions that were unbelievable . . . Now who in heck said Ifriea was hot and sumy? . . .

The natives here speak French and are mostly very poor . . . The muck here in Africa is like half dried concrete: try to get out of it! . . . They have big signs here that say, "Texas and the United States will win the war;" of course they have Texas first . . . I know no other High School is in back of its kids like good old S. H. S. I was the only one in my outfit whose school sent him something for Christmas . . . We've had classes on boats every day this week, but so far we haven't "seen the sea" . . . My first test I got 92, the lowest one has been 90 . . Your letters make me want to work all the harder to keep the kind of life I've left . . . And do the gals love a uniform? Oh, Boy!

Say, can my wife cook! I've put on pounds . . . Flew out over the Gulf to fire at a sleeve towed by another plane. The water below was alive with sharks . . . Gee! when I heard my name at Mail
(all and saw that big package from my school! . . . Uncle Sam sure takes care of his nephews: the best of everything and lots of it ! . . . At the height of the meat rationing we did have some horse meat, and I found it very sweet . . . The only thing that worries me, Ma, is for fear you will worry . . . I'll keep all the other guys off my Christmas package if I have to grard it with my rifle . . . Tell the kids back at selool not to fool their time away, and try the teachers' patience; you were mighty good to us . . . The Shavetail gave me his kind permission to wash, wax, and polish 280 feet of hall, and threw in a room with two walls of windows

The Navy sure has a funny policy of not letting us fellows in on its secrets; they're just as likely to send you to Iceland without inguiring if you like the climate

No doubt vou've heard of K. P., but I can assure you, you ain't heard nothing yet ; I had 17 hours today . . . Ken's a MI. P. now, but if you are seen in the company of an AI. P., the fellows are likely to draw unpleasant inferences . . . I'll be glad when my training is over and I can get a crack at those Japs, if there are any left . . . Time for mes:, so I can't linger ; food is swell; plenty of fresh fruit, coffee, sugar, and meat . . . Scems to me folks on the home front deserve medals what with the shortages and all . . . In my outfit, there are men from every state and every class, oil well owners to Kentucky Mountaineers
. . . I'm eren getting to say "You-all"
People say I'll soon learn to say "You-all." hut I'm too much Maine for that . . You should see my Southern wife. She calls me her "Y'ankec," and I call her "My little rebel" . . . You sure get a new slant on History studying it from both sides of the Mason-Dixon line

The folks here are very nice to the men in uniform, but the Southerners never forget : so far I haven't had a Civil (or uncivil) War with any of them but you never can tell . . . I am positive that no school in any state has a higher percentage of men in the armed serviees than S. H. S., and many of them have passed through Fargo Barracks; our average family is $\$, 000$ . . . When I get that school news letter with all the home gossip, I just throw myself on my bunk and reminisce . . . My commanding officer, Capt. Olesen, grot a medal for execeptional bravery at Guadalcanal: he's plenty tough, but the best . . . I wish some of the folks who strike in our war plants could realize our danger without getting a taste of the material damage the European countries have suffered. It gets under our skin . . . They use us swell in the Nary; teaching us to meet all sorts of danger; we're learning to jump off ship feet first and inflate our jackets to hold us up . . . Too bad the folks at home are working so hard and going without so many things . . . We've had flowers of some sort since Christmas; magnolias and araleas are in bud now . . . My nost inportant news is that live received my Lientenant: Commission here at Del Valle, a Christmas gift, and now I'm Flight Officer . . . We never know what moment we will lee called, but I'm here at Treasure Island waiting for active sea duty . . . All the men I ve seen who have been torpedoed are twice as auxious as the rest to get back into it . . . Im looking forward to being with my wife and little family, but I will hase to forget that till its over . . . Tell the kids to take their lessons to heart, and dig right in on those hardening exereises. lincle sam wants men with brains and toughness for this scrap . . . Tell the kids all they learn in sehool will stam them in grood stead in the Service . . . I believe in this Freedom we`ve had. I've enjoyed it for only a few short vears, but I am willing to give my life for it . . . The Sergeant ordered left face and a rookie did a right face and smacked the guy on his light with his gum. The rookie saw the joke hut Sergeants are fumy that way . . . Seven of our Flying Fortress's crew had to parachute and we landed in a field full of cactus. Wow: . . . I don't believe you folks realize what it means to get mail from home, so write often and long . . . Im writing this letter in class, in good old S. H. S. that would mean a trip to the oftice . . . The package said, "Not to be opened till Xmas," but I guessed (and smelled) .cigaretes - I smoked . . . Excuse my pencil. I lost my pen. Does that remind you of the old days when the Faculty used to say, "It's only a poor plumber that doesn't have his tools with him." Thanks to my high sehool Algebra, I pulled a $95 \%$ in the quiz . . . Didn't have time to empty me waste basket, so hid it in my locker-net result-I dumped and cleaned 16 (and I used to think the teachers were hard-hearted!) . . . By the insignia on $\mathrm{m}_{\mathrm{y}}$ slecve I'm what they call a "Third Class Square Knot Admiral" . . . Got to close, mail call in about ten minutes and then Chow; the only two times I ever see a soldier run down here . . . Here at Thunderbird, we have real beds, not G. I. iron ones and real closets, and best of all, steak an inch thick and twice as big as a man's hand . . . Those school letters are to me about the best morale builders, slows our home folks are right behind us . . . In this man's army I have certanly met some swell fellows, friends I'll never forget . . . I wasn't fortmate to graduate from S. H. S., but you are all groud to make me feel as if I was really one of you . . . I landerl in the Army Air Foree, in Ordnance, and yon know how I always liked ghuns . . . l've covered a lot of territory since I left good old Scarborongh; now I'm in Merry England with the Medical Detachment and like it . . . I visited Westminster Abbey and thought of mer World History class; I guess when you come to think of it we are making some World History . . . It makes a fellow feel pretty good to read the school paper and know his own folks are doing well . . . At a filling station they asked me if I was an English soldier! Whew! guess it was my mush. There were places on the way across Texas where you could see for miles and miles without seeing anything but more miles . . . I have seen a lot, and I don't mean the States; I haven't seen the States in more than a year . . . I am informed my brother got turned down, but I know as a civilian, he will do his part . . . Went out in a large blacked out convoy of trucks and ambulances to set up a collecting station for wounded . . . Since I have been here I have studied very hard. I have a son now and that gives me an additional incentive

1 am sitting in an abandoned Cinema here in North Africa with the rain rattling on the roof and banging away at the typewriter. I haven't slept in a bed for six weeks and ans quite used to a tile floor. live already puddled around in the water and mud so long that I have wel, feet and quack like a duck. I have just been appointed Trial Judge Adrocate in Ciryy parlance a Prosecuting Attorney. So long: until we hang Hitler!

Here in Afriea it seems like Sieptember in Maine. I and all my buddies hope and pray that the folks at home will do their part and a little more so that this thing will be brought to a swift ending . . .

Oh, yes, I must tell you about my servants. I have a houseboy who wakes me each morning and gets me off to work. When I come home at noon he prepares me for my noon siesta. When I come home at night, ah, here is the payoff! He has a fresh uniform all laid out from underwear to tie. Can you imagine me lying on my bunk and having a black boy remove my shoes and clothes, all the time saying, "Master, Master?" Oh, it's wonderfuI! I also have my own Secretary and Chauffemr. Yes, Yes, it is a hard war. Now as to those letters, keep them coming, for they keep me going.

Here "Down under" everything is back end to. They drive on the left side of the road, eat with the back of the fork, the lady leads in dancing, the upstairs seats in theaters are most expensive, and to cap the climax, it is cold in Tuly, and hot in Jambary. Can you beat it!

Well, Folks it's time to hit the stack,

SENT IN BY OUR MEN IN THE SERVICE

A LETTER HOME

By MILLARD GOWER , '40
As I take my pen in hand at night, There's not a single thing to write. Perhaps I'll write about the weather, Not write at all, is what I'd rather. "The days are hot, the nights are chilly"; To write like this would seem darned silly.

You'd like to hear about Australia.
I'd say some things I couldn't mail you. I'd write about the things I do,
But, darn it. twould be censored, too.
Perhaps about the women fair,
They're not at all like they are there.
You see how hard it is to write
A letter on a quiet night
With not a single thing to say,
Except I'm thinking every day
Of you and Home and that great day,
When your wand'ring boy comes home to stay

ODE TO THE AUSTRALLAN HEN

In she came and down she sat;
Laid an egg and up she gat.
(Contributed by Arthur Burnell, '31: Written by a boy who waited two weeks for somebody to write to him.)
It's not so much where your feet may roam,
Nor the folks you meet while away;
It's the line or two that you get from home
That's making you sober or gay.
The girls, of course, do their share to please;
The boy pals-well, perhaps they're the same,
But when you get blue and you're down in the knees
Comes your Mother's words, "Son, play the game."
For no matter where in this wide world of chance,
That your feet ever wand'ring may roam,
You can always gamble right after the ramble, There's a letter awaiting from Home.

THE NAVY BLUE

Say, Girl, I saw you sneer just now. Don't I look good to you?
"I'm not one of your class", you say. I wear the Navy Blue.

You think I'm not fine enough For such a girl as you?
Men that would not hold your hand Have worn the Navy Blue.

You bar us from your theaters, folks. And from your balirooms, too,
Where there is room for everyone Except the Navy Blue.

We're only common sailor boys, Till trouble starts to brew,
And, then, dear Friends, you are the first,
To cheer the Navy Blue.
How many folks in civil life Will take the time to think
That sailors do some other things, Besides carouse and drink.

But when we all are dead and gone, When Life's last cruise is through.
We'll not be barred from Heaven's gates, For wearing Navy Blue.

So when you meet a sailor boy, I'd smile, if I were you.
No better men have trod the earth Than boys in the Navy Blue.

STUDENTS COUNCIL

WAR SAVING S'TAMPS

In accordance with the Government's wish and our own, a War Savings Stamp and Bond sale has been regularly conducted each week. Up to the date of our going to press the students havo purchased a total of $$ 925.25$ worth of stamps and $$ 637.50$ worth of bonds. The bonds are reckoned at purchase price and not at matured value. To stimulate further interest in the sales, a banner bearing the letters W. S. S. and the numerals of the class selling the most stamps and bonds is riven each week to the class, not the home room, making the best showing. So far the Freshmen have won the banner once, the Seniors twice, and the Sophomores six times.

Many a time I have heard a girl say, "Boy, I wish I was A-1 physically!" Quite a different attitude from that of the girl of the ! $\mathrm{H}_{\mathrm{s}}$ s who wasn't a lady unless she fainted frequently. But we are at war, and the need for a nation of phesically fit pecople, not merely men, but crerybody, has :uddenly fared us and we must prepare for it. Even military jobs, once thot to be a man's affair. are now taken ower by the WA.I'S. W.IVES and the SPARS, and who knows which of us may soon be in one of these orqanizations? This means that we must iake our physical training more serionsly, and take it from me, we are. If you peck in on a girls phesical fitness class in S. H. S. now, rou see a hardening process going on which at first lamed us up so we were in agomy, then darel us to go back for more. Oh, that first "morning after!" Talk ahmut a "hangover!" We had one. If we hadn't been ravenously hungry, nothing would have induced us to cmelure the misery of doing the stairs to the liuch counter. We looked longingly back to the state of fitness we had before we began those exercises. but there was not let-up. However, like the man who jumped into the bramble bush and "scratched them in again," we found that more of the same sort cured the lamencss. Just watch us now stand on our heads, turn a forward, then a backward somersault, flop in all sorts of weird positions on the mats, langh our heads off, then up and at it again. But we're arriving, and in a fow weeks the WAVES or WA.IC'S will have nothing on us. Here we come, Enncle Sam!

BOIS PHYSICAI, FITNESS

The boys in the Junior and Senior classes of S. H. S. appreciate the physical fitness program which is designed to develop coördination between mind and muscle, the ambition of every young man. He is a part of the nation-wide program to promote the conditioning of American youth and give him preliminary training for military service.

Our program consists of ability tests for: (a) Balance, (b) Agility, (c)

Strength, (d) Speed, (e) Power, (f) Flexibility, (g) Motile endurance. By motivating the work, exercises become more than merely repetition of the usual calisthenic drill. Our boys who enter the Service will benefit from the workouts in the gym, however tedious they may seem at times. To all our fellows now in the service of our country, we say, "Chins up; many fine and physically fit young men will join you soon."

FIRSTADD

Slam! 13ang! Wham! What's happened! Only someone falling downstairs. What of that? Merely a triffe to us Studes in First Aid. Broken arms, legs, backs, or necks, bring 'em along. Meanwhile we call either Doc Titus, Cohen, Dodge, and nurses, Ray, Sherwood, or Libby, and in a trice they will do you up from head to heeds, ably assisted by dozens of other First diclers, put you on a stretcher and send you off in an ambulance to your fate.

Scriously, we bave really done quite a job, or at least, we think so. in learning not only to do up simple wounds, and put on splints and slings, traction bitches and such, but in learning the reason for our procedures. We feel quite well acquainted with our anatomies, and have acquired a lot more respect for our complicated structure, especially all those bones and our hearts. Oh, those heart diagrams! We never knew what heart trouble was until our instructor made us do a diagram of one.

We have had four classes of nine weeks each, with a total of it students enrolled. We recite every day as in all other courses, and have a lot of practical work. We gave one demonstration to the student body. One thing we were very prond to master was the application of the Kelly-Blake half ring hinged splint for the leg and the Mur-ray-Jones splint for the arm. Since the high school is the emergenc: casualty station and we would perhaps be called to assist in an emergener we have been allowed to use some of the station equipment.

Although this was begun as a war course, it will be even more valuable in peace. Many people in our town now have knowledge, once open only to doctors, that may save lives. Long distances from a doctor, bad auto accidents, even bombings, are no longer dreaded. Unlike London, we will not have to wait until a raid is upon us to find out what to do. In every town classes like ours have played at bleeding, drowning, suffocating, to gain practice and we know we will come thru with flying colors.

ORCHESTRA

The Orchestra, under the capable direction of Miss Sara Steele, has increased its membership this year, and is trying to promote still more interest among students. The group consists of four violins, one trumpet, one trombone, one cello, three clarinets, one piano-accordion, and two pianos. It has had several public appearances, including one before the Civic League and one before the children from the grade buildings, at which time the players explained and demonstrated their various instruments to see if it might prompt some children with musical interest to take up an instrument. The orchestra intends to parade and play at the School Music Festival in Portland some time in May.

A Junior Orchestra has been formed with three violins, two trumpets, one trombone, one saxophone, and two pianos. These players are mostly from the Grade School, but the start they are getting will have them ready to enter the Senior Orchestra upon entering High School. Just before the end of last year, the Mothers' Club got us all beautiful uniforms with insignia in our school colors of Red and White. These add both to our appearance and enjoyment. We are to furnish the music for the Memorial Night program as we did last year.

STATE GUARD RESERVES

Company 17 of the State of Maine Guard Reserves was organized in August, $19+2$, under the command of Capt. V. D. Krijanorsky. Officers of the company were: 1st Lieutenant Emile Jamelle, 2nd Lieutenant Dwight Libber, Staft Sgt. James Shaw, Supply Sgt. A. Ralph Jibbey, Staff Sgt. Harold Bemnett, Staff Sgt. Louis Crockett, Staff Sgt. Guy Winchester; Corporals, Fred Atwood, Donald Bradford, George Douglas, William Littlejohn, Ralph Lorfano, Donald Mitchell, Edward Nielsen; and Pvts. Israel Albert, Wesley Beckwith, Roger Bennett, Jr., Arthur Booth, Joseph Bowser, William Curlew, Neil Douglass, Ralph Fowler, Horace Frost, Ralph Grant, Albert Harmon, Russell Hunt, Eugene Jenkins, George Knight, R. Leon Lary, Albert Libby, Fred Libby, Aubrey Lincoln, Fred Lorfano, Walter McKenuey, Arthur Mitchell, Lesley Moulton, Thomas Mucci, John Olesen, Harlan Paige, George Perham, Ir., Aubrey Pharmer, Leroy Prout, Richard Reilly, Franklin Russell, George Scamman, Nason Snow, Kenneth Van Brocklin, Elmore Walker, William Winchester, and Clarence Wyman. Besides these, the following have been active members but have cither enlisted or have been inducted into one of the branches of U . S. service; Cpl. Warren Delaware, Prt. Frank Winchester, Prt. John Snow, Prt. Howard Furlong, Prt. William Burnham, George Perham, and Neils Johnson, Jr. The company has had drill in all sorts of military work, including field manoeurres, rifle practice and had one general mobilization at the Scarborough Airport with seven Reserve Companies from as far away as Mechanic Falls. At this event the Canteen, Mrs. Hays of Portland in charge, served a hearty meal to all the units. During the winter the unit drilled in the Portland Armory.

BOY SCOUT MESSENGER

Last winter many of the scouts muter the supervision of their local Scont Masters received training in Messenger work to acom:pany the work of the Air Raid Wardens. Since receiving their training. the Warden service has ruled that only hoys over fifteen may act as messengers, but all who took the course will soon qualify if they are not already. Many of those who are at present qualified to act as Messengers are taking the regular First Aid course in school in addition to that already taken last winter and are proving to have real skill. Since the High school has heen named a casualty station, in event of a rail, it will be a fine thing to have so many on hand, to assist the adnlt First Aiders.

OBSERVATION POST

The Scarborough Observation Post was- as spotters, including women and grammar organized last Spring under the direction school children who sure know their of Harold Bennett, who has proved a most capable and efficient chief. An observation tower was erected on top of the High School building near the boys' entrance, and a platform surrounded by a board fence was later added, together with a stairway. The house is heated by an electric heater, and has large windows on three sides. Many different persons have served planes. Usually the spotters work in pairs for a four-hour shift, but some work alone for a two-hour period. This is at times interesting, but at times as monotonous and lonely as an outpost guard in the army, and-as essential. Our hats off to those who have braved all kinds of weather and have stayed awake to guard the rest of us wḥile we slept.

ATHLETICS

Owing to the emergeney, we have been obliged to curtail our program of interscholastic sports this rear. However, we have competed with other schools in track, basketball, cross comerry and swimming. Our spring schedule calls for outtloor track in which there seems to be growing interest among our neighboring schools.

TRACK

In an abbreviated season of only three track mects. Searloro High was undefeated.

On May 7th, our team met Old Orchard Beach High at the Ohl Orchard play field. In a cold drizaling rain, we succeeded in dombling the score of our opponents, winning ( $\mathbf{6} 6-3 ; 3$.

On May 13th, we defeated Gorham High and Winutham High in a triangular meet beld at the Thornton Academy field. Harris Cohen of Scarboro was high point man with 17 points. The scores were: Scarboro, 59 ; Gorham, 22 ; and Windham, 18.

On May 20 th, we captured the Triple C track meet at the Portland Stadium by seoring in every event on the program. Joug Harriman of Windham won three first places, winuing the mile, quarter, and half. Meehan of Falmouth also won three places in the broad jump, shot put, and the javelin. A well-halanced team rather than star performers won the meet for us.

BOY゙' B.ASKETBALI,

BASKETBALL

lasketball this yar was much the same as many other things have been, - rationed. Due to lack of transportation facilities there was no otticial Triple C schedule, a shortened schedule of games was played. By close figuring on the part of Coach Hallett, our team managed to complete a schedule of twelve games, although the only way our team could get to the games was by bus.

Our first team consisted almost wholly of Seniors - Ǩnight, Libby, Richardson, Scamman, Jensen, Grant, Cohen, and Witham. Our outlook for next year is none too bright but several promising Sophomores and Freshmen will be on hand, many of whom have seen experience on the second team this year. The following Sophomores will probably be on the first squad next year: J. Plowman, J. Lorfano, R. Reills, l2. Hicks, R. Cott, and 1). C'ampbell.

Althengh we only wom three games out of twelse played, most of the games lost were by very close seores with the outcome of the games in donbt until the very last. VARSITY SCHEDULE

Chins up

CHINS UP!

Chins up! Tho lonely glooms the way; Tho' heel may drag. and heart may roice no lay.
An end will always come to darkest day.
Chins up!
Chins up! And take life with a smile.
With laugh and jest the tedious hours beguile. The merry heart will haste the weary smile.

Chins up!
Seen over a meat counter display: "Please be kind to our clerks; they are harder to get than customers, and meat is harder to get than either."

Mrs. Baker - shopping for the lunch counter: "What lovely salmon!"

Clerk: "That ain't salmon, ma"am. It's only cod blushing at the price I have to ask for it."

Pome by D. R., 43.
"Ruth rode on my cycle car Directly back of me.
I hit a bump at sixty-five And rode on Ruth-less-ly."
H. C.: "Driving's getting easier every vear."
S. L.: "How's that ?"
H. C.: "Well, in 1941, I had no running board; 1942, no gear shift; and in 1943, no car."
B. K., '45: "X'd like to send a telegram."
W. U. Clerk: "O. K. What's the message ?"
B. K. "Just 'Yes'."
W. U. Clerk: "But you can say ten words for the same price."
B. K., blushing: "I'm afraid he would think I was too anxious if I said it ten times."

Mr. S.- in Am. Hist.: "What did Paul Revere say when he embed his famous ride?
1). 13., 43 : "He said, "Whoa'."

One Rookie: "Whey the gloom!"
Other Rookie: "I haven't heard from my girl for a month."

One Rookie: "l thought she said she would write every day."

Other Rookie: "She does - to some other guy."

Mrs. Catty: "So your husband is one of the big gans in industry:"

Mrs. Batty: "Yes, indeed, he's been fired five times."

Mrs. L. - To the grocery clerk: "You ought to be in the front line of battle."

Clerk: "And why, Madam?"
Mrs. L.: "Because no enemy could stand the way you charge."

Miss F.: "Remember, write only on one side of the paper."
H. N., '46 - anxiously: "Which side, please?"
D. B., '43, and R. G., '43, were fishing, but they were new at the game.
"Got a bite yet, Donald ?"
"NTo," said Donald, "I don't believe my worms are half trying."
"Some day," said B. D., '44, "I expect to have the world at my feet."
D. W., '44: "What have you been doing all this time, walking on your head?"
E. J., 'ł3: "l've never seen such dreamy eyes before."
[R. P.,. '43: "You never stayed so late lefore."

Persomel Director: "Have you any references?"
(i. K., ' 43 , the applicant: "Sure, here's the letter -- 'To whom it may concern. George Knight worked for us one week and we're satisfied'."

Miss Bascom in a restaurant, asks the waiter: "Is there any soup on the menu?"

Waiter: "There was, madam, but I wiped it off."
N. S., ' $\ddagger 3$, speceling along a highway at 100 miles an hour was stopped by a patrolman.
"W'as I driving too fast?" asked Nason, apologetically.
"Heck, no," replied the patrolman, "Y'ou were flying too low."

Mrs. Libby: "What was the former ruler of IRussia called ?"
B. B., ' 44 : "The Tsar.

Mrs. Libby: "What was his wife called ?"
B. B., '44: "The Tsarina."

Mrs. Libby: "And the children ?"
B. B., 't4; timidly: "Tsardines."

Miss Ferguson: "Billy, use the word fascinate in a sentence."
13. P., '46: "I have nine buttons on my coat, but I can only fascinate."

Dad: "How are your grades this month?"
T. M., '44: "Under water."

Dad: "What do you mean under water?"
T. M., '44: "Below O level."
D. R., '43, who was very absent-minded went into a dentist's office. The dentist asked, "Will you take gas?"

Stubly replied: "Yes, and you'd better check the oil, too."

Mr. Libby asked the class to write a sentence using the words analyse and anatomy:

One boy handed in this poem:
"My analyse over the ocean,
My analyse over the sea, Oh, who will go over the ocean, And bring back my anatomy?"

We have a Colby but no college.
We have a Knight but no day.
We have a Soule but no heart.
We have a Sherwood but no forest.
We have a Clark but no Gable.
We have a Wright but no wrong.
We have a Walker but no rider.
Mrs. L.: "Now, Fanny, you have raced around the hall so that you will have to sit in your seat for an hour."
J. C., ' 46 : "C'mon, Fanny, let's go out of door."
F. B.: "Can't. Been fined for speeding."

Mrs. B.: "I had it on the tip of my tongue a moment ago and now it's gone."

Mr. B.: "Perhaps it will come back if you think hard enough."

Mrs. B.: "Oh, no, it won't. It was a postage stamp."
P. S., '44: "What was the most thrilling experience you bave had in the Air Corps?"
P. D. (home on leave): "The time I parachuted down onto a lawn marked, 'Keep off the grass'."
J. S.: "Why do you tell all the secrets that the fellows in the Service write yon ?"
A. W., 't4: "Because I have two views about a secret. It's either too good to keep, or it isn't worth keeping."

Scaman, broadcasting: "There, I see a torpedo heading straight for us."
D. H., '44: "Goodness, I hope it's one of our own."

Adolf's epitaph: "This is positively my last territorial demand."
J. S., "t3: "What makes A. W. look so sad?"
N. R., ${ }^{44}$ : "Oh, don't you know? She's got softening of the hearteries."
S. L., '44: "Has he asked you to marry him vet?"
R. Wr., '44: "Ňot yet, but his voice has an engagement ring in it."
W. S. (caught in the act of skipping detention).

Mr. B.: "Must you go ?"
IV. S., "44: "Oh, no, just a matter of choice."
"A merry heart doeth good like a medicine."
H. W. in Home Ee quiz: "Two wellknown cereals are Post Hostess and Roll Stone."
R. H. L. in First Aid: "If a person faints put Epsom Salts under his nose."
M. P. in Civics quiz: "A Congressman-at-large is a Congressman who is running around and has to be caught."

Mr. Libby-in Biology: "Who is man's noblest friend?"
P. C., '45: "The hot dog-it feeds the hand that bites it."
Mrs. S.: "Now, dear, what'll I get if I cook a dimer like that for vou every day?"

Mr. S.: "My life insurance!"
1). J., ‘ti: :"There's too much favoritism in my house."
M. M.. 't5: "How's that?"
D. J.: "Well, when I bite my mails, I get scoldel, but when the baby puts its foot in its mouth they all think it's cute."

Sarge: "Whats the idea of yom crawling thru the bushes like that !"

Rookic: "We camouflaged the gun and now we're trying to find it!"

She: "Wasn't that a grand wedding?"
He: "Yes, I moderstand her Dad gave them a pound of butter to start with!"

Mr. B. at noon lunch: "See here, you've got your sleeve in my soup."
M. W., 't5: "That's all right. It's only an old dress."

Miss S. in Music Appreciation class: "What is your favorite song?"
B. H., '4s: "The National Anthem, because when any one says, 'Now we'll sing' the National Anthem, I know the speeches are all orer.".
MI. D. C.., '45: "What's for lunch today ?"
E. W., '46: "Oh, hundreds of things. We have beans."

Mr. H.: "Why don't you stop roaming around and get to work? Don't you know that a rolling stone gathers no moss?"
N. H., '46: "Not to evade your inquiry, but merely to secure information, may I ask what practical utility is moss to a man like me?"

Miss F.: "Bobby, which would yon rather be, William Shakespeare or Charlie Chaplin?"

IB. H., 45: "Charlie Chaplin, because he ain't dead."

Motto for the girls in Home Ee. who knit: "Remember Pearl Harbor and purl harder:"

Mrs. J.: "Well, Roger, were you first in anything today?"
R. J., '46: "Yes, Ma, I was first out of the building."
K. S., '46: "My Dad is a Lion, a Moose, an Eagle, and an Elk."
D. C., '46: "What does it cost to see him?"

Stude: "What cured Mr. S. of arguing with his wife?"

Second Stude: "Arguing with his wifc."
W. P., '46: "Why do women like the word 'zymotic'?"

Mr. B.: "I didn't know they did."
W. P.: "Well, Pa said women like the last word, and I looked in the dictionary and it was 'zymotic'!"

Bitty: "Whenever $I$ am down in the dumps I get a new hat."

Kitty: "So that is where you get them."
Mr. S.: "Alfred, this essay on 'My Mother' is exactly like your sister's."
A. S., '43: "That's right. You see we have the same mother."

'Take your pick'."

Mr. B.: "Yes, didn't you hear her say,
Mr. H.: "Those cakes are hard as iron."

Mrs. B.: "Jackie, what is etiquette?" J. R., '46: "It's the noise you don't make when you are eating your soup."
1). W., '46: "I carry all my Civics notes in my hat."
N. H., '46: "I see ; news in a nut shell."

Mrs. H.: "Jerry, wake up; I hear a mouse squeaking."

Mr. H., sleepily: "Never mind. I'll oil it the first thing in the morning."

Miss B.: "What is a rare book?"
Ruth B., '43: "t library book that comes back."

The Teachers of Scarboro extend their best wishes to the Editorial Staff of "The Four Corners" and congratulate it upon the timeliness of its Theme.
