ANNUAL MEETING — LEGAL CLINIC

Some thought is now being given to the plans for the next Annual Meeting. The success which attended the sectional assemblies was such that it has been determined to continue these assemblies and to provide for the next meeting a discussion of legal problems in which the profession are interested.

A special committee has been appointed to handle the details. The choice of subjects to be prepared, studied and discussed is not so easy. It would be very much appreciated if members of the Bar would suggest by letter to Mr. G. A. Soule, Fargo, North Dakota, a member of the Committee, some subjects which the Bar would like to have prepared and submitted for discussion. The Committee will assign these subjects to competent lawyers and see to it that the subjects selected are covered in such a way as to be of help to those who are interested.

H. G. NILLES,
President.
