REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON AMERICANIZATION AND CITIZENSHIP

(Partly Summarized)

Owing to lack of funds the work of the committee was limited this year. However, we distributed a great deal of literature over the state, and most all of our schools observed Constitution Day, Legion Day, Washington and Lincoln's Birthdays, with programs of historical and patriotic moment stressing the Constitution.

We have urged ministers, teachers, attorneys, various societies, and service organizations of every sort to inaugurate and lead in putting on patriotic programs featuring essays, orations, recitations, musical entertainments, and historical pageants, all accenting the strength of our government under the Constitution.

Generally the response has been fine, but of course, there were, as always, lamentable exceptions in each of the above except the ministers, and from them we received the refusal of a lone individual.

We have stressed comparisons of our form of government with many that have fallen in the past—pointing out pitfalls in the path of our government—the shoals and breakers lying in the course of our ship of state.

Our reports justify us in saying that over 5000 schools and 1000 churches in the state of North Dakota on some one occasion, at least during the year, held a patriotic program, which, together with those the societies of different kinds sponsored, made a wonderful record. And our profound thanks are extended to all of them, to attempt to name even the most prominent might slight some.

However, we feel that it should be said that there are those within the boundaries of our state who advocate the overthrow of our government in favor of some sort of dictatorship, whether they are misled, or have concluded a different form of government could furnish a livelihood with less labor—many of them need enlightenment, and some need another sort of treatment.

And as we have before, let us again, urge every member of our association on all and every occasion to stand for, speak for, and write of the glories of our form, and fundamental principles of government; to the end that now and forever the Executive of the Nation and State shall do the duty to him prescribed, the legislature carry the burdens to it assigned, and the courts of our land ever remain independent, construing the law of our nation and states in accordance with the guaranty given and retained by the people—under the Constitution—and in accordance with the facts of each and every case.

Our work the past year has been at our own expense.

RECOMMENDATIONS

Again we recommend the continuance of this committee work.

That sufficient funds be allotted by the executive committee for committee work to cover the coming year's activities.

That a new committee chairman be appointed and a new committee formed.

That each attorney of this state take it on himself to conduct and put on at least one patriotic program within his or her own county, on Constitution Day or week, and at least one such program on Washington's or Lincoln's day or week, in the county in which he or she resides.

In behalf of every member of our committee thanks are extended to the President for the honor extended in permitting us the privilege of serving during the Sesquicentennial celebration of the adoption of our fundamental law and the placing of same in force.

Most respectfully submitted,

JOHN KNAUF, Chairman,
J. E. HENDRICKSON,
HERBERT G. NILLES,
CHAS. COVENTRY.

APPENDIX

CONSTITUTION AND BY-LAWS OF THE STATE BAR
ASSOCIATION OF NORTH DAKOTA
AS AMENDED

Creation of Bar Association: In compliance with the provisions of an act passed at the 17th session of the Legislative Assembly of the state of North Dakota, approved March 11, 1921, entitled "An Act to Create, Define and Establish the Bar Association of the State of North Dakota," and for other purposes incident thereto, the membership of the Bar Association of North Dakota, in annual session assembled, adopts the following constitution and by-laws:

ARTICLE I

Name: The name of this Association is the Bar Association of North Dakota.

ARTICLE II

Objects: The objects of this Association shall be to promote the administration of justice, uphold the honor of the profession of the law, and encourage cordial intercourse among the members of the State Bar.

ARTICLE III

Membership: The membership of this Association shall consist of all practicing attorneys who have paid their annual dues and received their license from the clerk of the State Bar Board, of the State of North Dakota, and all other attorneys who have been duly admitted to practice by the Supreme Court of this state and are by law exempt from the payment of dues, and all such members shall be entitled to all the rights and privileges of the Association and to vote and participate in the business transacted at its meetings.

ARTICLE IV

Officers: The officers of this Association shall be a president, vice president, and secretary-treasurer, who shall be elected at the annual meeting of the Association and hold their offices until the next annual meeting succeeding their election.

ARTICLE V

Executive Committee: The Executive Committee shall consist of the president and vice president of this Association and the presidents of the several District Bar Associations of the state as such districts are now or may hereafter be organized, and the president whose term of office expires in the preceding year shall likewise be a member of the Executive Committee for a period until the next annual meeting after the expiration of his term as president of the Association. In the event that any such District Bar Association shall not have a duly elected president, then the president of this Association shall appoint, from the territory covered by said District Bar Association, a member for said Executive Committee. The representative of such District Bar Association shall serve upon such Executive Committee until the next annual meeting of this Association, notwithstanding the election of a new president of such District Bar Association. The secretary-treasurer of this Association shall act as secretary of the Executive Committee, but he shall have no vote.

ARTICLE VI

Duties of the Officers: The duties of the officers of this Association shall be such as usually devolve upon officers of like organizations.

ARTICLE VII

Duties of the Executive Committee: The duties of the Executive Committee shall be such as may from time to time be imposed upon it by the by-laws of this Association.

ARTICLE VIII

Standing Committees: It shall be the duty of the president to appoint, with the concurrence of a majority of the Executive Committee, such standing committees of the Association, as may from time to time be provided for by the by-laws of this Association, such appointments to be made immediately after the annual meeting each year, and such other committees as may be deemed necessary by him from time to time, with the concurrence of the Executive Committee.

ARTICLE IX

Referendum: Whenever a petition signed by not less than thirty members of this Association shall be presented to the president, asking that a vote of the members of the Association be had on any measure affecting the public interest, state or national, or by way of indorsement of candidates for judicial or other office, the president and Executive Committee shall forthwith and within ten days provide for the submission of such question or measure to a vote of the members by the postal ballot, the details of which shall be prescribed by the Executive Committee. Such referendum shall be by secret ballot and thirty days from date of mailing, the ballots shall be allowed for completion of the votes. At the expiration of that time the ballots shall be canvassed by the president and secretary, and by a judge of the Supreme Court or District Court to be selected by the president, and the result shall be published at the capital of this state. No expression of approval or disapproval by this Bar Association on any such measure or candidacy shall be given in any other manner.

ARTICLE X

Amendments: This constitution may be amended at any annual meeting by a two-thirds vote of the members present upon amendments which have been suggested at a previous annual meeting, or amendments which have been suggested at the next preceding annual meeting.

ARTICLE XI

Quorum: A quorum of any regular meeting or special meeting shall consist of twenty-five members.

BY-LAWS

ARTICLE I

Meetings: Sec. 1. Regular Meetings. This Association shall meet at least once each year, at such time and place as shall be designated for that purpose by the Executive Committee.

Sec. 2. Special Meetings. Whenever the exigency presents itself, the president of this Association may, and on request of any twenty members in writing, shall call a special meeting of the Association at a time and place to be designated by him.

Sec. 3. Notice of Meetings. The secretary shall send notices of the time so selected to each member by mail at least ten days before the date of meeting.

ARTICLE II

Dues: No payment of annual dues shall be required of members of this Association if the appropriation from time to time made by the Legislative Assembly shall be sufficient to defray the legitimate expenses of the Association, but assessments of not to exceed one dollar for each member may be made upon the resolution adopted by a majority vote at an annual meeting or at any special meeting if due notice be given in the call for such special meeting that such assessment will be proposed.

ARTICLE III

Duties of the Executive Committee. The Executive Committee shall make all necessary arrangements for the meeting of the Association, and provide in their discretion for its entertainment, prepare the programs for its proceedings, audit all bills against the Association, and the accounts of the secretary-treasurer, and perform such other duties as may be required by the Association. The Executive Committee shall have full power and authority in the interval between meetings of the Association to do all acts and perform all functions which the Association itself might do or perform, except that it shall have no power to amend the constitution or by-laws.

ARTICLE IV

Duties of the Secretary-Treasurer: The secretary-treasurer shall keep correct and full report of the proceedings of the meetings of the Association and of its Executive Committee and shall collect and receive all money appropriated by the state or otherwise collected on assessments of the membership, and keep true and correct account of the same, and shall pay out such moneys on the order of the Executive Committee from time to time and upon vouchers drawn by the president and secretary, and he shall make a full and detailed report of all receipts and disbursements accompanied by the vouchers and paid checks, to be submitted to the Executive Committee and to the next annual meeting after his election, and he shall file in the office of the clerk of the State Bar Board a duplicate of such itemized statement of receipts and disbursements. The secretary-treasurer shall give a surety bond in the sum of two thousand dollars running to the state of North Dakota, the premium on which shall be paid by the Association. Said bond shall be conditioned for the faithful accounting by him for all funds and property which may come into his hands by virtue of his office, and for the delivery thereof to his successor at the expiration of his term of office. The secretary-treasurer shall receive as compensation for his service such sums as may be fixed or allowed from time to time by the Executive Committee.

ARTICLE V

Standing Committees: There shall be appointed annually by the president immediately after his election, the following standing committees:

1. Jurisprudence and Law Reform.
2. Legal Education and Admission to the Bar.
3. Legislative Committee.

The duties of the committees shall be as follows:

1. Jurisprudence and Law Reform. The committee upon jurisprudence and law reform shall receive and consider from any member of the Bar of the state at any time proposed amendments to the code, and shall at each meeting of the Association report what changes, if any, have been made by the Legislature since the last meeting, and any modifications of the rules of practice that shall have been made by the Supreme Court and in addition to such reports shall recommend such changes in the code and in the practice as shall seem to said committee to be proper and advantageous to the end of securing a proper reform of the laws.

Three weeks prior to the date of any annual meeting it shall file with the secretary of this Association a statement of the matters upon which it will recommend Legislative action, such statement to embody all proposed amendments to existing laws and all new laws recommended by such committees, and that upon filing such statement the secretary shall cause the same to be printed or typewritten and that he forthwith mail a copy thereof to each member of this Association.

2. Legal Education. The committee on legal education and admission to the Bar shall confer with and recommend to the faculty of the School of Law of the State University a suitable course of study to be pursued as a qualification for admission to the Bar, and shall also confer with and recommend to the Supreme Court a standard of education and qualification to be adhered to as a pre-requisite to admission to the Bar, and shall report in regard to such matters at each meeting of the Bar Association.

3. Legislative Committee. There shall be appointed, by the president, for a term of two years a Legislative committee of fifteen members of which the president of this Association will be chairman. The duties of said committee shall be to properly formulate all propositions approved by the Association for the enactment of new laws or the alteration and amendment of existing statutes, to supervise and direct the due presentment and course in the Legislature of legislative bills formulated by it at the next succeeding session of said Legislature, and to use, in the name of the Association, every honorable means and influence to secure the passage and enactment into a law of the measures so introduced.

ARTICLE VI

Compensation: No officer other than the secretary-treasurer shall receive compensation for his services, but the expenses of the officers of the Association and the members of the Executive Committee who shall attend the regular or special meetings of the Association, or duly called meetings of the Executive Committee, shall be paid out of the funds received from the State Bar Board as provided by law. Such payment shall be made upon the detailed statement to be rendered by each officer, or committeeman showing the actual cash expenses of attendance at each meeting or such meetings.

ARTICLE VII

Additional Committees: In addition to the standing committees provided by Article 5 there shall be appointed by the president, with the concurrence of the Executive Committee, such other committees as shall be necessary from time to time to effectively accomplish the purpose for which this Association is organized and to carry out the work undertaken by the Association at its annual meeting.

ARTICLE VIII

The Executive Committee shall select twice as many names as there are nominees for the Bar Board to be submitted to the Supreme Court. Attorneys may make additional nominations by a petition signed by ten men, and filed with the secretary. Reasonable notice shall be given in Bar Briefs of the time when such petition must be filed. The secretary shall then prepare the ballot, which shall contain the statement "nominated by petition" after all names so nominated. The ballot shall be mailed to each member of the Association thirty days before the day when it must be returned, of which date notice shall be given by the secretary when sending out the ballot. The president shall appoint a canvassing committee to canvass the ballots. Those receiving the highest number of votes, up to the number of nominees to be chosen, shall be presented to the Supreme Court as nominees of this Association for members of the Bar Board.

BAR BRIEFSARTICLE IX

Member of House of Delegates of American Bar Association: There shall be elected in each odd numbered year one delegate to serve as a member of the House of Delegates of the American Bar Association, who shall hold his office for a period of two (2) years after his election, or until his successor has been elected by the State Bar Association, and whose duties shall conform to those prescribed by the American Bar Association and State Bar Association, and it shall be his duty to attend the annual meetings of the American Bar Association until his successor is elected. The actual expenses of said delegate so elected in attending such meetings of the American Bar Association shall be paid by this Association.

ARTICLE X

Amendments: These by-laws may be amended at any time by a majority vote of the members present and voting at any regular meeting of the Association.
