THE ANNUAL MEETING

The annual meeting of the State Bar Association is now a matter of history. There was a fair attendance at the Devils Lake meeting, there should of course have been more. I have heard it stated by some lawyers that the meetings are not democratic. Now that is not the fault of the Association, that is the fault of those that do not attend to make the meetings democratic. The place to make the meeting democratic is at the meeting not at some street corner. I urge therefore that all lawyers attend first, their District Meetings and second, be at the annual meeting, and I am certain that then and only then can you with good grace criticize.

I believe that the one big objective of the State Bar this year is to work for recodification of our laws. Past President Palda started the "ball a rolling". I therefore urge each and every lawyer in the State to act as a committee of one and see the Senator and Representatives from his District, to urge the passing of a law for the recodifying the laws of North Dakota. I am certain that if the lawyers will urge this legislation that we can get it. The initial step has been taken, let's take it up and push it to a completion.

Then we can report at the next annual meeting something that has been accomplished that is not only worthwhile to all the lawyers but also to the whole citizenary of the State.
