

7-31-1817

Letter to Mr. Vaughn

Hannah More

Follow this and additional works at: https://digital.kenyon.edu/chase_letters

Recommended Citation

More, Hannah, "Letter to Mr. Vaughn" (1817). Philander Chase Letters. 472. https://digital.kenyon.edu/chase_letters/472

This Book is brought to you for free and open access by the Archives at Digital Kenyon: Research, Scholarship, and Creative Exchange. It has been accepted for inclusion in Philander Chase Letters by an authorized administrator of Digital Kenyon: Research, Scholarship, and Creative Exchange. For more information, please contact noltj@kenyon.edu.

My dear Sir

July 1817

K. Ch. 170232

Many thanks for your kind letter. I often regret that tho' independent on both sides we so rarely meet. In the interval of a trying illness I have been enabled to erect myself in my poor way in favour of the great cause you have so much at heart.

I write this hasty line to request your cooperation and patronage of a little scheme for the better promoting the circulation of the new cheap Repository Tracts and says inserted in its environs. I have had some talk with Messrs. Hermer and Hodges today who are very zealous on the subject, the former wile I dare say confer with you about it. - Do you think you could prevail on Sir Richard Craigher as wile to concur in it himself as to stimulate some of his powerful friends.
A similar society is formed in London of some gentlemen of the first respectability

As the Hesters and ever some shops in Bristol are selling the Seditious and blasphemous Pamphlets not only of Cobbett, but many ^{printed} ~~written~~ by Arnold in honor here, we wish to enable Hesters and others by making it worth their while, to consider the mischievous ones.

I look forward with pleasure to the hope you give of a kind visit in the Spring and with our kindest regards to Mrs Venables I remain my dear Sir very faithfully & ever Yours
A more

Barley wood
Tuesday