STUDENT LOANS

Have we got a Diehl for you!

The Diehl Montgomery Student Finance Plan (The Originator of the Student Finance Plan in this Area)

This plan allows the students, upon approved credit and job, to buy a new car with nothing down and payments of $50.00 per month until you are on the job. This plan is not new. Diehl Montgomery has sold over 1000 new cars and trucks to graduating students this way. See us for the details. Also you can use your own insurance or ours.

This allows the graduating students to have a new car before he graduates when he really needs it. "This is a special discount program for students. We will be glad to quote you a price on any Ford, Lincoln-Mercury product."

At Diehl Montgomery, we know you've got better ways to spend your money. So we protect you with our

LIFETIME SERVICE GUARANTEE

1. Our Free Lifetime Service Guarantee.

If you ever need to have your Ford, Mercury, Lincoln or Ford Light Truck fixed, you pay once and we'll guarantee that if the covered part ever has to be fixed again... we will fix it free. Free parts. Free labor. Covers thousands of parts. Lasts as long as you own your vehicle.

2. Factory-Trained Technicians

We provide factory-trained technicians. Up-to-date specialists armed with the latest technical know-how.

3. Quality Ford and Motorcraft Brand Parts.

These original equipment parts are designed to replace your worn parts perfectly. Come in soon! We'll prove that "Quality Service is our Job 1"!

This limited warranty covers vehicles in normal use. And excludes routine maintenance parts, belts, hoses, sheet metal and upholstery.

UMR Film Series Will Show 17 Movies From Aug. 29 to Dec. 5

The UMR Film Series for the fall semester will run from Aug. 29 to Dec. 5.

Seventeen films will be shown at 7 p.m. every Thursday in Miles Auditorium, Mechanical Engineering Building, on the UMR campus.

Admission to the films is by season ticket, which can be purchased for $14, or by individual ticket, which can be purchased at the door for $3.

Films to be shown are:

—Aug. 29: "Desperately Seeking Susan," directed by Susan Seidelman with Madonna and Rosanna Arquette. Rated PG-13. Released in 1985. This quick-paced adventure revolves around identity and mistaken identity — not unlike Shakespeare's "Midsummer Night's Dream."

—Sept. 5: "Rope," directed by Alfred Hitchcock with James Stewart. PG. 1949. Hitchcock's favorite film is also his rarest, most intriguing and unprecedented movie. "Rope's" title is taken from the murder weapon and loosely based on an actual murder.

—Sept. 12: "El Norte," directed by Gregory Nava with Zaide Gutierrez and David Villalpando. PG. 1983. This extraordinary odyssey focuses on two young people seeking a better life as their world begins to crumble. They must first travel dangerous roads and cross heavily patrolled borders. Once in America, their troubles are not over. They are "illegals" and must live in constant fear of discovery. It's no fun being an illegal alien.

—Sept. 19: "Sugar Cane Alley," directed by Euzhan Palcy with Garry Cadenat and Darling Ligitimus. PG. 1983. Set in Martinique in 1931, the film paints a rich impasto of native life under French colonial rule, filtered through the coming-of-age of a sweet, opportunistic black boy learning to reconcile the value of his shantytown roots with the educational opportunities that beckon him to the big city.

—Sept. 26: "The General," directed by and starring Buster Keaton. G. 1927. Keaton's masterpiece involves two great locomotive chases and a Civil War battle. Along with an excellent print of this classic film will be live piano accompaniment.

—Oct. 3: "Koyaanisqatsi," directed by Godfrey Reggio. G. 1982. "Dark Glow of the Mountains," directed by Werner Herzog. G. 1985. Breaking with narrative tradition, "Koyaanisqatsi" brings landscape and cityscape to the foreground in a meditation on progress and the supposed benevolence of technology. Music by Philip Glass. "Dark Glow of the Mountains" is a mystical portrait of Reinhold Messner, one of the world's foremost mountain climbers, who recently traversed Gasherbrum Peaks I and II in an unprecedented seven days.

—Oct. 10: "Educating Rita," directed by Lewis Gilbert with Michael Caine and Julie Walters. PG. 1983. Michael Caine stars in this warm-hearted, ingratiating comedy as an alcoholic and disillusioned academician who reluctantly undertakes the education of a brassy and uneducated hairdresser.

—Oct. 15: "Macbeth," directed by Roman Polanski with Jon Finch. R. 1972. An absolutely stunning conversion of Shakespeare to film. It contains all the classic tragic elements of murder, guilt and revenge. (Note: This is a special Tuesday screening in Miles Auditorium.)

—Oct. 17: "The Ballad of Narayama," directed by Shohei Imamura with Ken Ogata. R. 1983. Japanese. Winner of the grand prize at the 1983 Cannes Film Festival, "The Ballad of Narayama" is based on one of the most astonishing of Japanese legends. Deep in an isolated, impoverished village, the elderly, upon reaching the age of 70, are customarily abandoned on a mountain top to meet the gods of Narayama. Orin, a matriarch whose time approaches, willfully insists that her reluctant son take her to Narayama — for her death will be the final insurance the family needs to survive.

—Oct. 24: "Xica," directed by Carlos Diegues with Zeze Motta. R. 1976. (Brazil). Xica is based on the true story of a legendary black slave whom director Carlos Diegues calls "Our Joan of Ark. Sort of." Xica de Silva parlayes an iron determination and a unique, unnamed talent into a rise to power that makes her the unofficial empress of Brazil.

—Oct. 31: "Barbarella," directed by Roger Vadim with Jane Fonda and David Hemmings. PG. 1968. "Barbarella" recaptures the spirit of old-fashioned American comic strips. She conquers evil in the form of robots and monsters, and rewards the handsome men who assist her in her adventures.

—Nov. 4: "Sunday in the Country," directed by Bernard Tavernier. G. 1985. (France). This gentle portrayal of an aging artist is done in an Impressionist manner that will delight both eyes and heart. (Note: This is a free Monday screening, sponsored by the French section of the applied arts and cultural studies department.)

—Nov. 7: "The Brother From Another Planet," written, directed and edited by John Sayles with Joe Morton. PG-13. 1984. What would happen to a visitor from outer space, an extraterrestrial, who looked exactly like a young black man, if he crash-landed in New York Harbor and wound up in Harlem? "The Brother From Another Planet" is a science-fiction comedy that answers this question in a manner both funny and touching.

Physical Facilities Department Enhances UMR

The physical facilities department at UMR is dedicated to "Providing the necessary services to maintain and enhance a physical environment that is conducive to academic instruction and research," according to Bob Marlow, director of physical facilities.

He added that the department has been committed to these goals since its inception. "Today, however, the services required of physical facilities in pursuit of these objectives have expanded in size, scope and complexity," said Marlow.

UMR physical facilities now includes the following areas: building maintenance, custodial services, grounds maintenance, operation of the power plant, utility distribution, vehicle operations, engineering services, minor renovations and remodeling and support for special events on campus.

Marlow explained that physical facilities provides these various services through three sections — maintenance, support services and heating plant.

"The maintenance section, which is under the direction of Lowell Wynn, is the largest of these three and is responsible for providing the campus with building and grounds maintenance, custodial services, utility distribution and support of vehicle services, renovation and special events," he said.

"The people who work in this section include custodians, groundskeepers, prevention maintenance, specialists, carpenters, electricians, painters, plumbers, refrigeration specialists, heavy equipment operators, mechanical trades specialists, auto mechanics and drivers," he added.

The support section is under the direction of Hugh Jesse, assistant director of physical facilities. He explained that "We provide support services to the campus in the following areas: construction estimating, planning, key control, departmental accounting, clerical services, facilities inventory data, renovation scheduling, drafting, field engineering services, purchase order contracting, operation of central control system and vehicle reservations.

"These services are provided by engineering, drafting, clerical, secretarial, accounting, estimating and facilities analyst personnel," he added.

The heating plant section is under the direction of Larry Matson. "The function of this section is to provide, without interruption, the generation of steam, electricity, compressed air, soft water and distilled water for the campus," Marlow said.

"These utilities are supplied 24 hours a day, 365 days a year by stationary engineers, heavy equipment operators and maintenance and secretarial personnel," he added.

"By working together as a department we feel that we are able to provide an attractive campus environment and provide for the campus' needs in a number of technical areas," said Marlow.

Extravaganza Gets Ready in New Facility, New Location

Work on the all new Ozark Exhibition Center for the Ozark Extravaganza is nearing completion and UMR students and other area residents will be surprised by the changes.

"This all new facility has taken several months of dedicated time, effort and downright hard work, but the results are terrific," an Extravaganza spokesman said.

This year's Extravaganza has more to offer than ever before, the Extravaganza spokesman said. The event will be held Sept. 12-15 next to the Rolla National Airport at Vichy.

"We have four jam-packed days of events, entertainment and fun. Our 1985 entertainment lineup is fabulous. Among our featured guests are Elly May Clampett of the Beverly Hillbillies. And on Saturday, Grandpa Jones from TV's 'Hee Haw' will delight you with his singing and storytelling."

Also on the agenda are 18 musical groups performing a range of tunes, country, gospel, Dixieland, folk, German and Nairobian.

In conjunction with the Extravaganza, the Coca-Cola Bottling Co. will give away a ton of Coke. Drawings will be held every day in this promotional endeavor.

The new special events section will feature horse races, a demolition derby, two nights of the Outlaw Truck Pull sponsored by Fred Voss Enterprises Inc., an antique tractor pull, Grandpa Jones and the KZNN Country Music Extravaganza.

"This new section allows you to enter at a separate gate, so admission to the Extravaganza is not necessary," the spokesman said.

For more information, write or phone the Ozark Extravaganza office, 1008 W. 12th St., Rolla, MO 65401; telephone 364-7600.

quette and Vincent Spano. R. 1983. The story of an unlikely romance between two high school opposites. The Sheik, always cool and decked out in his sharkskin suit, manages to woo an intrigued Jill. But she's going away to college and he's going nowhere.

—Nov. 21: "The Gods Must Be Crazy," directed by Jaimie Uys and Marius Weyers and Nixau. G. 1980. (South Africa). When a soda bottle drops out of the sky and is discovered by a tribe of bushmen, their lives become disrupted. One of their number volunteers to throw the troublesome object off "the edge of the world." That's just the beginning of this charming and hilarious movie. —Dec. 5: "Repo Man," directed and written by Alex Cox with Harry Dean Stanton and Emilio Estavez. R. 1985. An explosive, outrageous, surreal satire of the seedy underworld of auto repossession and east L.A. Program director is Dr. James Bogan, UMR associate professor of art.

Volunteer Today To Share A Child's Tomorrow!

Be a Big Brother or Big Sister to a younger child by giving just 2 hours of your time each week. It's an experience of memories you can never replace. Call 341-2600 to find out how to become a Big Brother or Big Sister.

Many boys and girls are waiting for Big Brothers and Sisters like you.

Volunteer today!

A good strong mind with lots of questions.

A finely tuned ear for dinner calls and recess bells.

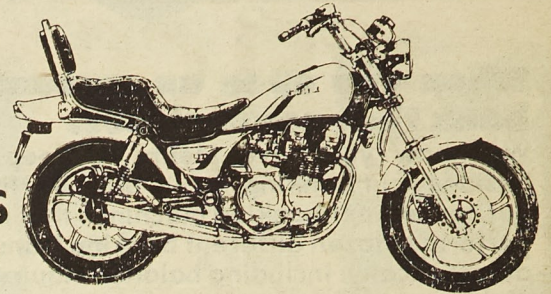

Hands that build great models, grip all trees, and are never totally clean.

Legs that are not quite as long as yours, but will always keep up.

A heart with a spot reserved for one special man.
