

HOMERESEARCHEVENTSCENTERSEXPERTSABOUT US

HOME > AJISS-Commentary > Special Series: Trajectory of Heisei, way forward to Reiwa

Contributors:

Shinichi Kitaoka (President, the Japan International Cooperation

Fumiaki Kubo (Professor, University of Tokyo)

Akio Takahara (Professor, University of Tokyo)

Masao Okonogi (Professor Emeritus, Keio University)

Nobuo Shimotomai (Professor, Kanagawa University)

Mie Ōba (Professor, Tokyo University of Science)

Hideshi Tokuchi (Visiting Professor, National Graduate Institute Studies)

Toshiya Hoshino (Professor, Osaka University)

Yasutami Shimomura (Professor emeritus, Hosei University)

Shujiro Urata (Professor, Waseda University)

Takao Komine (Professor, Taishō University)

Kazuhiro Nagata (Professor emeritus, Kyoto Sangyo University)

Nobukatsu Kanehara (Former Assistant Chief Cabinet Secretary and General of National Security Bureau, Prime Minister's Office)

AJISS-Commentary

Special Series: Trajectory of Heisei, way forward to Reiwa

03-31-2020

Series Objectives:

In May 2019, Japan saw that the 30-year-long Heisei era drew to an end, and began. This special issue aims to provide readers with both the trajectory of the prospects of the Reiwa era.

Introduction:

Japan's Foreign and Security Policies in the Heisei Era

Shinichi Kitaoka (President, the Japan International Cooperation Agency)

Contributions:

- 1. US-Japan Relations from Heisei to Reiwa--Huge Progress Made, But Challenges Ahead*
Fumiaki Kubo (Professor, University of Tokyo)
- 2. Japan-China Relations in the Heisei Era*
Akio Takahara (Professor, University of Tokyo)
- 3. Japan-ROK Relations in the cul-de-sac: 30 Years of repeated "reconciliation"*
Masao Okonogi (Professor Emeritus, Keio University)
- 4. Russo-Japanese Relations: 'Abe's step forward?'*
Nobuo Shimotomai (Professor, Kanagawa University)
- 5. Current Status of Asian Regional Cooperation and Japan's Diplomacy in Asia*
Mie Ōba (Professor, Tokyo University of Science)
- 6. Japan's National Security At a Crossroads: Time to craft a new national security strategy*
Hideshi Tokuchi (Visiting Professor, National Graduate Institute for Policy Studies)
- 7. Japan and the Transformation of the United Nations - Catalyzing a Comprehensive Security for Our Common Future*
Toshiya Hoshino (Professor, Osaka University)
- 8. A New Mission of Japan's Infrastructure-FDI Nexus Model in the 'Beyond-Aid' Era*
Yasutami Shimomura (Professor emeritus, Hosei University)

9. A Shift from Passive to Proactive Protector of a Rules-based Open Trading System

Shujiro Urata (Professor, Waseda University)

10. Economic policy in the Heisei Era

Takao Komine (Professor, Taishō University)

11. "Prayer for Peace" Trips by the Emperor and Empress

Kazuhiro Nagata (Professor emeritus, Kyoto Sangyo University)

Special Contribution:

Toward a Free and Open Indo-Pacific Region: Japan's Grand Strategy

Nobukatsu Kanehara (Former Assistant Chief Cabinet Secretary and Deputy Director, Security Bureau, Prime Minister's Office of Japan)

Back To Archive

Featured
Corners

Official SNS

Twitter

Facebook

Youtube

Research
Centers

CDAST

Japan Information Center (JIC)

PECC

About JIIA Membership

Contacts Us / Access

© The Japan Institute of International Affairs

JIIA has established a membership system for corporate and individual members to garner support for its activities and funding therefore from the broader public.

