Dear Andrew,

I have just received the enclosed report from the Detective re Wooby & send it for your information. It appears to be a case of unfounded jealousy on the part of your client & as his wife seems to be living a blameless life I don't see the use of proceeding farther - Will you send

P. O. Order for The Detective's charges £4. 12. 0? If the matter will stand it I might make a charge of £2. 2. 0 for my trouble in the matter & thus wipe off the amount I owe you, but don't think of doing this unless the matter warrants it.

I am looking forward to your promised letter & have a long one to write to you in reply

I have no special news - I have been very busy lately but,
luckily my health has been much better ~~lately~~ I had an interview
yesterday with Minke I sent him to Wilton - He gives a gloomy account of the collapse of the Mining industry in Tasmania, but I hope matters are not so bad as he describes them.

I write in great haste, so pardon the brevity of this letter
With kindest regards
Believe me

Ever thine affectionately

Wm. H. W.

A. English Clark Esq
Wm. H. W.

Mittie is looking very well & sends his special regards. I am very sorry he didn't get the chess set.
