My dear Andrew,

I waited several times a Davey Cole but without satisfactory result. Davey had attended to the matter but could not find any trace of it in his papers.

On receipt of your two letters of 17th I waited a Jennings (whom I know very well) to explain the position of matters. He has promised to see the Manager

I not take any proceedings without first communicating with me. If he determines to go on I will see Colver to get the amount out of him. Of course you remain liable under sect 54 of the Act 409 (1st Vol. Statutes. p. 244) notwithstanding the circles mentioned by you.

I have very little to report in other matters.
I am writing to you by this a next mail. You would oblige me if you could casually mention to my brother that I am in great straits owing to want of money. He has not contributed anything for more than a year & I am at my wits end to find funds.

I am very pleased to find you liked the article by Pillsbury & hoped you liked Rev^d C. Strays sermon - Read, too, Dr. Coffey's article in last Thursday's Argus

With love to Mrs Clark
& the children in haste Believe me ever truly,

Wm. H. Hall
