

The Commonwealth Law Review.

161 King Street, Sydney, 14th Sept. 1904

His Hon.

Mr Justice Clark
Adopt Ths.

Dear Sir

Thanks you very much for your offer contained in your letter of 5th Sept.

As space is limited in the CLR., and as I endeavor to obtain copy from all the States, in order to maintain its representative character, you will understand that I might be hindered in carrying out the idea of the publication, were I to pledge myself to a series of articles from the same pen, in successive numbers of the Review. When the Review is older and starts such a series will be more conveniently dealt with. Meanwhile if you would be willing to submit a couple of your papers, so that I might see if I can use them, I would be obliged.

Thanking you for your offer, and also for past contributions, which I have been received with approval I remain

Yours faithfully
Howard Wigby.
