

March 15th 1897.

Dear Moses.

The bearer is Hon A.R. Clark Attorney General of Tasmania who is "doing" our country with a double view of pleasure and information. I knew to say that he is my friend will assure his most courteous treatment but he is not only my friend and an honored and trusted citizen of one of the Colonies of Australasia, but he is a great admirer of the splendid manhood of our dear America: and I want him to have a favorable an impression as the conditions will justify.

Please accept him as you would

Yours.
