

Directions

The name of James Cotton pencilled in the attestation is merely suggested - Testator may ask any adult not interested in the Will to sign his name - The Will must be first read over as stated in the attestation in presence of the Testator and the two Witnesses then dated and finally signed as pencilled