Over the last 5-6 years I have developed a valued international learning network, through engaging in conversations and informal learning opportunities with other educators within social media spaces. In my presentation I will share both the anticipated and the unexpected learning gains I have experienced; and how this form of open learning has impacted on my career.

I'm glad you will be joining us at the conference! I hope you will be able to give a few words of advice for people who are shy or otherwise reluctant to participate in social media. I'd also be interested in your thoughts about how social media will shape -- and be shaped -- by us, in (say) the next 10 years.
