CONSENT DECREE AND ORDER

The Honorable Larry R. Hicks
United States District Judge

INTRODUCTION

Plaintiff U.S. Equal Employment Opportunity Commission (the "EEOC" or

1 "Commission") and Defendant Pioneer Hotel, Inc. d/b/a Pioneer Hotel & Gambling Hall, Inc.
2 (alternately referred to as "Pioneer" or "Defendant") agree to the entry of this Consent Decree to 3 resolve the EEOC's Second Amended Complaint ("Complaint") filed under Title VII of the 4 Civil Rights Act, as amended, 42 U.S.C. section 2000e et seq. ("Title VII"). The EEOC's
5 Complaint alleges that Raymond Duarte (herein referred to as "Charging Party") and a class of 6 similarly situated individuals (hereinafter referred to as "Class Members" where appropriate and 7 collectively with Mr. Duarte as "Claimants") were discriminated against by Defendant.
8 Specifically, the complaint alleges that the Claimants were subjected to harassment on the basis
9 of their national origin, Latino and color, dark skinned, in violation of Title VII.

11 I.

12 PURPOSES AND SCOPE OF THE CONSENT DECREE

13 A. The Parties to this Consent Decree ("Decree") are the EEOC and Defendant. This 14 Decree shall be binding on and enforceable against Defendant, its officers, directors, agents, 15 successors, and assigns.

16 B. The Parties have entered into the Decree for the following purposes:

- 17 1. To provide the Claimants with monetary relief;
- 18 2. To provide for injunctive relief;
- 19 3. To ensure that Defendant's employment practices comply with federal 20 law;
- 21 4. To ensure a work environment free from national origin and color based 22 discrimination and retaliation subsequent to any complaint of 23 discrimination;
- 24 5. To ensure training for Defendant's managers and employees with respect 25 to the law against national origin and color-based discrimination, and any 26 subsequent retaliation; and
- 26 6. To provide an appropriate and effective mechanism for handling 27 complaints of national origin and color-based discrimination, and any 28 subsequent retaliation.

II.

RELEASE OF CLAIMS

- A. This Decree fully and completely resolves between Defendant and the EEOC all claims that are raised by the EEOC against Defendant in the Second Amended Complaint, referred to herein as the "Complaint" filed on January 28, 2013 in the above captioned complaint.
- B. Nothing in this Decree shall be construed to preclude the EEOC from bringing suit to enforce this Decree in the event that Defendant fails to perform the promises and representations contained here.
- C. Nothing in this Decree shall be construed to limit or reduce Defendant's obligation to comply fully with Title VII and any other federal employment statute.
- D. This Decree in no way affects the EEOC's right to bring, investigate, or litigate other charges that may be in existence or may later arise against Defendant in accordance with standard EEOC procedures.

III.

EFFECTIVE DATE AND DURATION OF DECREE

- A. The provisions and agreements contained here are effective immediately upon the date that this Decree is entered by the Court (the "Effective Date").
- B. Except as otherwise provided here, the Decree shall remain in effect for four (4) years after the Effective Date.

IV.

MODIFICATION AND SEVERABILITY

- A. This Decree constitutes the complete understanding of the Parties with respect to the matters contained herein. No waiver, modification, or amendment of any provision of this Decree will be effective unless made in writing and signed by an authorized representative of each of the Parties.
- B. If one or more provisions of the Decree are rendered unlawful or unenforceable, the Parties shall make good faith efforts to agree upon appropriate amendments to this Decree to 1 effectuate the purposes of the Decree. In any event, the remaining provisions will remain in full 2 force and effect.

3 C. By mutual agreement of the Parties, this Decree may be amended or modified in writing
4 in the interests of justice and fairness to effectuate the provisions of this Decree

6 V.

7 JURISDICTION

8 A. This Court has jurisdiction over the Parties and the subject matter of this lawsuit. The 9 Complaint asserts claims that, if proven, would authorize the Court to grant the equitable relief
10 set forth in this Decree. The terms and provisions of this Decree are fair, reasonable, and just.
11 This Decree conforms with the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure and Title VII and is not in 12 derogation of the rights or privileges of any person.

13 B. The Court shall retain jurisdiction of this action during the duration of the Decree for the 14 purposes of monitoring and entering all orders, judgments, and decrees that may be necessary to 15 implement the relief provided here.

16 VI.

17 COMPLIANCE AND DISPUTE RESOLUTION

18 A. The Parties agree that if the EEOC has reason to believe that Defendant has failed to 19 comply with any provision of this Decree, the EEOC may petition or may bring an action before 20 this Court to enforce the Decree. Prior to initiating such petition or action, the EEOC will notify 21 Defendant, in writing, of the nature of the breach. Unless irreparable harm may result from the 22 breach, Defendant shall have thirty (30) days from receipt of EEOC's notice of the alleged 23 breach to attempt to resolve or cure the breach. The Parties agree to cooperate with each other 24 and use their reasonable efforts to resolve any dispute referenced in the EEOC notice.

25 B. If, after thirty (30) days have passed with no resolution or agreement to extend the time
26 further, the EEOC may petition or bring an action before this Court for compliance with this 27 Decree. The EEOC may seek all available relief, including, but not limited to, an extension of 28

1 the terms of the Decree for such period of time as the Defendant is found to be in breach of the 2 Decree.

3 VII.

4 MONETARY RELIEF

5 A. In settlement of all monetary claims in the EEOC's case, the Defendant shall pay a total
6 of $150,000.00. EEOC shall have sole discretion on the distribution of the monetary amount to 7 the Claimants.

8 B. Defendant shall make payments to the individuals identified by the EEOC and the 9 amounts so designated by the EEOC within ten (10) days of the Effective Date. No federal 10 and/or state taxes shall be deducted from the amount paid to any Claimant. Defendant shall 11 issue the appropriate Form 1099 for the tax year in which payment was issued. The amounts 12 designated herein are deemed to be compensatory damages. Defendant shall make the 13 appropriate reports to the Internal Revenue Service and any other appropriate tax authorities.
14 The Claimants shall be solely responsible for the payment of any taxes owed by them as a result 15 of receiving such payments from this action.

16 C. Within three (3) business days of mailing the aforementioned payments, copies of the 17 checks and any related correspondence shall be submitted to Anna Y. Park, Regional Attorney 18 U.S. Equal Employment Opportunity Commission, 255 East Temple Street, 4th Floor, Los 19 Angeles, California 90012.

21 VIII.

22 GENERAL INJUNCTIVE RELIEF

23 A. National Origin Harassment.

24 Defendant, its officers, directors, agents, management, successors, assigns an, and all 25 those in active concert or participation with Defendant are hereby enjoined from creating,
26 facilitating, or permitting the existence of a work environment that is hostile to Latino 27 employees and are further enjoined from:

- 28 1. subjecting individuals to harassment based on their Latino national origin; and

1           2.       creating, facilitating or permitting the existence of a work environment that is
2                    hostile to Latino employees.

3           B.       Color Harassment.

4           Defendant, its officers, directors, agents, and management successors, assigns, and all
5 those in active concert or participation with Defendants, are hereby enjoined from creating,
6 facilitating, or permitting the existence of a work environment that is hostile to employees who 7 are dark-skinned, and are further enjoined from:

- 8           1.       subjecting individuals to harassment based on their color, dark-skinned; and
- 9           2.       creating, facilitating, or permitting the existence of a work environment that is 10                   hostile to dark-skinned employees.

11           C.       Retaliation.

12           Defendant, its officers, agents, management (including all supervisory employees),
13 successors, assigns, and all those in active concert or participation with Defendant, hereby are 14 enjoined from engaging in, implementing or permitting any action, policy or practice with the 15 purpose of retaliating against any current or former employee or applicant of Defendant, or 16 either of them, because he or she has in the past, or during the term of this Decree:

- 17           (1)       opposed any practice made unlawful under Title VII;
- 18           (2)       filed a charge of discrimination alleging such practice;
- 19           (3)       testified or participated in any manner in any investigation (including without 20                    limitation, any internal investigation undertaken by Defendant), proceeding in connection with this case and/or relating to any claim of a Title VII violation;
- 21           (4)       was identified as a possible witness or claimant in this action;
- 22           (5)       asserted any rights under this Decree; or
- 23           (6)       sought or received any relief in accordance with this Decree.

24           D.       Posting of Notice of Consent Decree

25           Within ten (10) days after the Effective Date and throughout the term of this Decree,
26 Defendant shall post a full-sized copy of the Notice of Consent Decree, attached to the Decree 27 as Attachment A, in a clearly visible location frequented by employees (i.e. break rooms or 28

1 bulletin boards with other employee notices) in each of its facilities during the term of the 2 Decree.

3 E. Equal Employment Opportunity Consultant

4 1. Within thirty (30) days after the Effective Date, Defendant shall retain an Equal 5 Employment Opportunity Consultant ("Monitor") with demonstrated experience in the area of 6 employment discrimination to implement and monitor Defendant's compliance with Title VII
7 and the provisions of this Decree. The Monitor shall be subject to the EEOC's approval, which 8 shall not be unreasonably withheld. If the EEOC does not approve Defendant's proposed 9 Monitor, the EEOC shall provide Defendant with a list of at least three (3) suggested candidates
10 acceptable to the EEOC. Defendant shall bear all costs associated with the selection and 11 retention of the Monitor and the performance of his/her/its duties.

12 2. The Monitor's responsibilities shall include:

- 13 a. ensuring that Defendant's procedures to handle complaints of discrimination, 14 harassment, and retaliation comply with its obligations under Title VII and this 15 Decree;
- 16 b. ensuring that Defendant's policies and reporting procedures against 17 discrimination, harassment, and retaliation effectively carry out its obligations
18 under this Decree;
- 19 c. ensuring that all employees are trained on their rights and responsibilities under 20 Title VII, including but not limited to, the responsibility to provide a workplace 21 free from national origin and color discrimination and retaliation;
- 22 d. ensuring that all employees are trained on Defendant's policies and procedures 23 related to national origin and color discrimination and retaliation;
- 24 e. monitoring Defendant's investigation of all complaints of national origin 25 discrimination, color discrimination and retaliation to ensure compliance with 26 Title VII;
- 27 f. ensuring Defendant properly communicates with complainants regarding the 28 complaint procedure, status of the complaint investigation, results of the investigation, and any remedial action taken;
- g. ensuring that Defendant's reports required by this Decree are accurately compiled and timely submitted;

- 1 h. ensuring that Defendant's disciplinary policies hold employees and managers
2 accountable for failing to take appropriate action or for engaging in conduct
3 prohibited by Title VII and this Decree;
4 i. ensuring that Defendant creates a centralized system of tracking national origin,
5 color, and retaliation complaints;
6 j. ensuring compliance with the terms of this Decree; and 7 k. preparing a brief annual report on Defendant's progress, including its compliance
8 with the terms of this Decree and the Monitor's compliance with his/her 9 responsibilities as articulated herein.

10 The Monitor shall ensure compliance for the foregoing provisions for the term of the 11 Decree.

12 F. Policies and Procedures

13 1. Policies and Procedure

14 Within sixty (60) days of the Effective Date, Defendant, with the assistance of its 15 Monitor, shall review, and if necessary revise, its policies and procedures against discrimination
16 and retaliation prohibited by Title VII (the "policy"). Regardless, within ninety (90) days of the 17 Effective Date, Defendant, with the assistance of its Monitor, shall distribute and implement the 18 policy. The policy and complaint procedure shall be distributed in both English and Spanish 19 and shall include:

- 20 a. a clear explanation of prohibited conduct;
21 b. a clear statement regarding Defendant's commitment to prevent discrimination,
22 harassment, and retaliation;
23 c. an assurance that employees who make complaints of discrimination and 24 harassment or provide information related to such complaints will be protected
25 from retaliation;
26 d. a clearly described complaint process for discrimination, harassment, and 27 retaliation that provides accessible avenues of complaint against co-workers, 28 including the complainant's supervisors, that allows for complaints to be initiated verbally;
e. a clearly described complaint process for discrimination, harassment, and retaliation that provides accessible avenues of complaint against supervisors, that allows for complaints to be initiated verbally;

- 1 f. a requirement employees in supervisory positions who receive complaints,
2 whether formal or informal, written or verbal, report such complaints to the 3 human resources department within 24 hours after receiving said complaint;
- 4 g. an assurance that Defendant will protect the confidentiality of discrimination
5 complaints, to the extent possible, from being disclosed;
- 6 h. a complaint process that provides a prompt, thorough, and impartial 7 investigation;
- 8 i. an assurance that Defendant's disciplinary policies hold employees, managers, 9 supervisors, and human resources accountable for failing to take appropriate
10 action or for engaging in conduct prohibited under Defendant's policy and/or 11 Title VII;
- 12 j. a procedure for communicating with the complainant regarding the status of the 13 complaint / investigation, results of the investigation, and if any remedial action 14 was taken without revealing specific information that may be confidential;
- 15 k. assurances that Defendant will take immediate and appropriate corrective action
16 when it determines that discrimination, harassment or any subsequent retaliation 17 has occurred; and
- 18 l. designation of at least one human resources employee to receive and process all 19 national origin and/or color-based discrimination, harassment, and retaliation 20 complaints.

21 If no member of the Human Resources department or Defendant's management team is 22 proficient in Spanish, Defendant shall ensure that employees whose primary language is not 23 English are afforded a neutral translator, which may be a third-party, to communicate with 24 Human Resources throughout the complaint and resolution process.

25 2. Performance Evaluations

26 Defendant shall hold its managers, supervisors, and human resources personnel
27 accountable through either performance evaluations or disciplinary action to ensure compliance 28 with anti-discrimination statutes.

29 3. Distribution of Defendant's Policies Against Discrimination and Any Subsequent 30 Retaliation

31 a. With the annual report (see Section I, Reporting), Defendant shall provide to the 32 EEOC a copy of its policy and complaint procedure, and shall submit to the EEOC a statement 33 confirming distribution of the policy to all managerial and non-managerial employees.

1           b.       For the remainder of the term of this Decree, all new employees hired shall
2 receive within thirty (30) days of hire Defendant's policy and complaint procedure and be
3 afforded an opportunity to interact with Human Resources within one week after receipt of the 4 policy and complaint procedure.

5           c.       For the remainder of the term of this Decree, all employees promoted from non-
6 managerial to managerial positions shall receive within thirty (30) days of promotion any 7 policies and procedures of Defendant's against and about discrimination, harassment, and 8 retaliation applicable to managerial employees, including management responsibilities to take 9 appropriate action as set forth in Defendant's policies and procedures. New managers shall be
10 afforded an opportunity to interact with Human Resources within one week after receipt of the 11 policy and complaint procedure.

12           G. Training

13           1.       Defendant will continue to require new employees to attend orientation, during 14 which employees will receive training on federal laws regarding employment discrimination, 15 including but not limited to national origin, color, and retaliation, and Defendant's policy and 16 reporting procedure. All attendees will verify their attendance in writing.

17           2.       Each year, Defendant will provide a one-hour training to current non-managerial
18 employees who have been employed by Defendant for more than one year and who did not 19 attend the training provided during orientation within the last 12-months, on the federal laws 20 regarding employment discrimination, including, but not limited to, national origin, color, and 21 retaliation, and Defendant's policy and reporting procedure. All attendees will verify their 22 attendance in writing.

23           3.       Each year, Defendant will provide a 90-minute training to current managerial
24 employees and human resources employees who have been employed by Defendant for more
25 than one-year and who did not attend the training provided during orientation within the last 12-26 months, on the federal laws regarding employment discrimination, including, but not limited to,
27 national origin, color, and retaliation, Defendant's policy and reporting procedure, and the role 28

1 of managerial employees in enforcing federal law and Defendant's policy. All attendees will
2 verify their attendance in writing.

3 4. EEOC shall be informed thirty (30) days prior to the scheduled trainings of the 4 location and time of the training and may attend the training(s) at EEOC's discretion.

5 5. Within sixty (60) days of the Effective Date, Defendant shall submit to the 6 EEOC a statement describing the training it intends to provide for each category of employee
7 and the materials it intends to use in this training.

8 H. Record Keeping

9 Defendant shall establish a recordkeeping procedure that provides for the centralized 10 tracking of complaints of national origin and/or color-based discrimination, harassment, and 11 retaliation. The records to be maintained shall include:

12 1. All documents generated in connection with any complaint, investigation into, or 13 resolution of every complaint of discrimination, harassment, and retaliation for the duration of 14 the Decree and the identities of the parties involved;

15 2. All forms acknowledging each employee's receipt of the policy and complaint
16 procedure against discrimination, harassment, and retaliation as required under this Decree;

17 3. All documents verifying the occurrence of all training sessions and names and 18 positions of all attendees for each session as required under this Decree;

19 4. All documents generated in connection with the monitoring, counseling, or 20 disciplining of employees whom Defendant determined to have engaged in behavior that may 21 be discriminatory, harassing, and/or retaliatory;

22 5. All documents generated in connection with Defendant's confidential follow-up 23 inquiries into whether any complainant believes he or she has been retaliated against; and 24 6. All documents generated in connection with the establishment or review of 25 performance evaluation measures for managers, supervisors, and human resource employees.

26 Defendant will make the aforementioned records available to the EEOC within ten (10)
27 business days following a written request by the EEOC.

NOTICE OF SETTLEMENT AND CONSENT DECREE

TO: ALL EMPLOYEES OF PIONEER HOTEL

The U.S. Equal Employment Opportunity Commission (“EEOC”) filed a lawsuit in the United States District Court for the District of Nevada, against Pioneer Hotel Inc. d/b/a Pioneer Hotel & Gambling Hall, Inc., et al., Case No. 2:11-CV-01588-LRH-GWF. The lawsuit was brought by the EEOC on behalf of employees who alleged that they were subjected to harassment on the basis of their national origin, Latino, and/or color, dark-skinned, in violation of Title VII. Pioneer Hotel settled the case by entering into a “Consent Decree” with the EEOC and payment of monetary relief.

Pursuant to the Consent Decree, Pioneer Hotel is providing notice to all of its employees that alleged violations of its policy against harassment and discrimination will be thoroughly investigated. Individuals found to have violated that policy will be subject to discipline up to and including termination of employment. All employees will undergo training to correct and prevent unlawful harassment and discrimination towards employees.

Federal law requires that there be no harassment or discrimination against any employee or applicant for employment because of a person’s age, disability, race, sex, color, religion or national origin, with respect to hiring, compensation, promotions, discharge, terms and conditions or privileges of employment.

Pioneer Hotel is committed to complying with federal anti-discrimination laws in all respects. It will not tolerate harassment or discrimination, and will not tolerate retaliation against any employee because of the filing of a charge of discrimination, giving testimony or assistance, or participation in any manner in any investigation.

If you believe that you have been harassed or discriminated against because of your sex, national origin, age, race, color, religion, or disability, you may follow Pioneer Hotel’s internal procedure and/or you may seek assistance from:
