Civil Action No: 06-3429 (JKG)

CONSENT DECREE

INTRODUCTION

A. This action was instituted by the United States Equal Employment Opportunity Commission (the “EEOC” or the “Commission”) on or about August 3, 2006, against Shahil, Inc. (d/b/a Dunkin Donuts/Baskin Robbins Leola, PA) under Title VII of the Civil Rights Act of 1964 and Title 1 of the Civil Rights Act of 1991 (“Title VII”). The EEOC alleged that Defendant Shahil, Inc., subjected Charging Party Ashley Bowermaster, a counter and cash register worker, and a class of female employees to sexual harassment, committed by male supervisors and co-workers, beginning in August 2004. The Commission alleges that despite numerous complaints by these women, Shahil failed to undertake any effective remedial action to stop the offensive and discriminatory conduct. As a result of the alleged sexual harassment, the female employees were forced to resign from their employment and were constructively discharged from their positions as counter and cash register employees. The EEOC also alleged that as a result of the harassment, the female employees suffered severe emotional distress and damages as a result of the illegal conduct of Shahil. On October 26, 2007, the EEOC filed an Amended Complaint against Shahil, Inc., R.N. Foods Corporation, Shanker Corporation, Om Shree Ji Corporation, Iccha Foods Corporation, and Ratanam, Inc. The Defendants have denied said allegations.

B. This Consent Decree is entered into by the EEOC and Defendants Shahil, Inc., R.N. Foods Corporation, Shanker Corporation, Om Shree Ji Corporation, Iccha Foods Corporation, and Ratanam, Inc. (“Defendants”). This Consent Decree shall be final and binding between the EEOC and Defendants Shahil, Inc., R.N. Foods Corporation, Shanker Corporation, Om Shree Ji Corporation, Iccha Foods Corporation, and Ratanam, Inc., its directors, officers, agents, employees, successors or assigns and all persons in active concert or participation with it (collectively referred to as “Defendants”).

C. The Commission and Defendants do hereby agree to the entry of this Consent Decree, which shall fully and finally resolve all claims which were raised by the EEOC in its Amended Complaint in Civil Action No. 06-CV-3429. This Consent Decree shall not constitute an adjudication of or finding on the merits of the case and shall not be construed as a violation of Title VII by Defendants, nor an admission by Defendants of any wrongdoing.

CONSENT DECREE

Upon consent of the parties to this action, it is hereby ORDERED, ADJUDGED and DECREED that:

NON-DISCRIMINATION AND NON-RETALIATION

1. This Court has jurisdiction over the parties and the subject matter of this action.
2. Defendant Shahil is enjoined from engaging in any employment practice which constitutes unlawful discrimination under Title VII. Specifically, Shahil is enjoined from creating, fostering or tolerating a work environment which discriminates based on sex.
3. Shahil is enjoined from engaging in any employment practices which retaliate in any manner against any person, including but not limited to, Ashley Bowermaster, Courtney Burns, Ashley Burns, Ruth Middleton, Sarah Raffensberger, and Teresa Weidman, because of that person's opposition to any practice alleged or believed to be unlawful under Title VII, or because of the filing of a charge, the giving of testimony or assistance, or the participation in any manner in any investigation, hearing or proceeding under Title VII.
4. Shahil shall not divulge, directly or indirectly, except as required by law, to any employer or potential employer of Ashley Bowermaster, Courtney Burns, Ashley Burns, Ruth Middleton, Sarah Raffensberger, and Teresa Weidman, any of the facts or circumstances related to the charge of discrimination against Shahil, Inc., or any of the events relating to their participation in the litigation of this matter.
5. Shahil shall expunge from the personnel files of Ashley Bowermaster, Courtney Burns, Ashley Burns, Ruth Middleton, Sarah Raffensberger, and Teresa Weidman, any documents, pleadings, correspondence and related papers pertaining to the charge of discrimination filed by Ms.

Bowermaster with the Commission.

6. Shahil shall comply fully with all provisions of Title VII. BY THE COURT:
JAMES KNOLL GARDNER
UNITED STATES DISTRICT JUDGE

DATE: February 12, 2008

EXHIBIT 1

NOTICE TO ALL SHAHIL, INC. EMPLOYEES

This Notice is being posted pursuant to a Consent Decree entered by the Federal Court in EEOC, et al. v. Shahil, Inc., et al., Civil Action Number 06-3429 (E.D. PA.), resolving a lawsuit filed by the Equal Employment Opportunity Commission (“EEOC”) against Defendants Shahil, Inc., et al. (“Defendants”).

Title VII of the Civil Rights Act of 1964, 42 U.S.C. Section 2000e, et seq., as amended, (“Title VII”), prohibits discrimination against employees and applicants for employment based upon race, color, sex, religion or national origin. Title VII further prohibits retaliation against employees or applicants who avail themselves of their rights under Title VII by engaging in protected activities, such as opposing employment practices believed to be discriminatory, filing a charge of discrimination and/or testifying or participating in a Commission investigation. The EEOC is a federal agency which investigates charges of unlawful employment discrimination. The EEOC has authority to bring lawsuits in Federal Court to enforce Title VII.

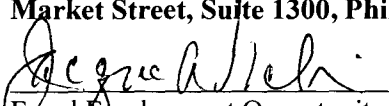

In its lawsuit, the EEOC alleged that Shahil subjected Charging Party, a counter and cash register worker, and a class of female employees to sexual harassment, committed by male supervisors and co-workers, beginning in August 2004. The Commission further alleged that despite numerous complaints by these women, Shahil failed to undertake any effective remedial action to stop the offensive and discriminatory conduct. As a result of the sexual harassment, the female employees were forced to resign from their employment and were constructively discharged from their positions as counter and cash register employees. Defendants deny these allegations.

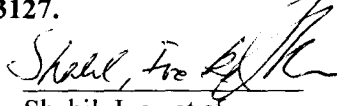

To resolve the case, EEOC and Defendants have entered into a Consent Decree which provided, among other things, that: (1) Shahil paid monetary relief; (2) Shahil will not discriminate on the basis of sexual harassment in the future; (3) Shahil will not retaliate against any person because she or he opposed any practice made unlawful by Title VII, filed a charge of discrimination, participated in any Title VII proceeding, or asserted any rights under the Consent Decree; and (4) Shahil will train all employees at its Leola, PA facility regarding sex discrimination and Shahil’s policy prohibiting sex discrimination.

If you believe you have been discriminated against, you may contact the EEOC at (215) 440-2600. The EEOC charges no fees and has employees who speak languages other than English.

THIS IS AN OFFICIAL NOTICE AND MUST NOT BE DEFACED BY ANYONE

This Notice must remain posted for three years from the date below and must not be altered, defaced or covered by any other material. Any questions about this Notice or compliance with its terms may be directed to the: Regional Attorney, EEOC Philadelphia District Office, 801 Market Street, Suite 1300, Philadelphia, PA 19107-3127.
